

Festival In Readiness

SHIRLEY LEVENTON, far left, points a finger at Jeanette Byer, head usher for the Festival, looks on. Janet Cappello looks over one of Cordilla Gutierrez's paintings for the art exhibit of the three night event.

Vol. 1

TRI-HI

No. 1

A combined publication of Saint Joseph Academy, Saint Francis High School and Christian Brothers School, Sacramento, California, April 25, 1962.

Annual La Salle Frolic Starts Tonight In CBS Gymnasium

Eight o'clock tonight will see the doors flung open on the fifteenth annual La Salle Club Frolic offering unsurpassed fun, entertainment, and prizes. The Frolic, given to raise money for the athletic fund at CBS, is slated to run tonight and tomorrow night in the CBS gym. A dance is also on the agenda for tomorrow night.

The festivities are under the general chairmanship of Mr. E. V. "Kettle" Wirts. Dr. Ted

SJA Juniors

Yearly Holy Name Rally To Be Held

The twenty-first annual Holy Name Rally will be held again this year at Edmonds Field, Sunday, April 2, at 3 p.m.

Father Patrick J. Roche, assistant superintendent of schools, is

Eaglet Theatre Site Of Spring Festival

Various phases of art, music, and drama will be featured in the Tri-School Fine Arts Festival to be held at the Eaglet Theatre, 1419 H Street, on May 7, 8, and 9. This project, the first of its kind to be attempted by Christian Brothers, St. Francis, and St. Joseph's, will have as a highlight a presentation of the Paul Vincent Carroll play "Shadow and Substance."

The play will feature Walter Murphy, a State College student, in the part of an Irish canon, supported by amateur thespians Karen Lagergren, Roger Meyers, Shirley Leventon, Kathleen Wagner, Bill Chambers, Ray Earle, Joan Hawkins, Bob Avila, and Ray Terrible.

Glee Clubs to Sing

The musical program will include choral and orchestra selections. The combined and separate glee clubs of St. Francis, St. Joseph and Christian Brothers, with soloists yet to be chosen, will present magical melody to bewitch the festival audiences and the orchestra from St. Joseph's will provide springtime serenades and rousing rhythms.

An art exhibit, consisting of copy and original works, will include water color, oil, pen and ink, charcoal and pastel, pencil sketch, design, cartoon, craft work and open classifications. Artists of eight Catholic high schools will help fill out a complete program to be presented on each of the three nights.

Other Schools Will Participate
Invitations have been extended to five other Catholic high schools in Northern California, including Holy Rosary Academy, Woodland; St. Mary's Academy, Grass Valley; Notre Dame High School, Marysville; Our Lady of Mercy High School, Red Bluff; and St. Bernard High School, Eureka.

Faculty Members Make Arrangements

CSF Groups Set Confab At Sac High

Plans for the Northern Conference of the California Scholarship Federation are now well under way. All chapters in northern California have been invited to attend the conference which is to be held in the Sacramento Senior High School on Saturday, April 26, 1962. Theme of the conference is "Friendship."

The program for the day will include luncheon in the school cafeteria featuring the yells and songs of the various schools, and afternoon discussion sections.

Since there are many phases of friendship, "Friendly Through Hobbies" has been selected as the main subject of discussion. The various topics of the sections include photography, collections, sports, dancing, natural science, hobbies and museum, student activities, journalism, writing and dramatics, art and painting, traveling, and music. All members of the CSF are urged to attend.

Registration will begin at 8:30 a. m. Those planning to attend from SJA are: Fortunata Algosso, Gail Armstrong, Carolyn Bentley, Patricia Bentley, Natasha Byckoff, Lorreta Choy, Kathleen Wagner, Marjorie Wagner, Eileen Walsh, and Francis