Alumni News

by Jack Stassi '40

Since our last publication, we have had some really fine events involving our alumni and a lot of congratulations are in order. Sure wish to congratulate James Schenk '60, President of the Alumni Association, and his crew for their great work on the Alumni Dinner. I noted one of my colleagues, Bill Blanas '39, was chairman of the Committee, but it was Bill's partner, Frank Files, who was doing all the work; Bill never went to school, he just ate lunch there.

Another outstanding event was the brunch honoring our own John McNamara '50. Pete and Barbara Mikacich '52, Pete and Jeanette Caietti handled the whole affair and donated all the receipts from the day's event to the Christian Brothers Sports Program.

Another prominent event, the Pig Bowl, had an awful lot of CBers playing important roles; the games winning edge (two points) was supplied by Lou Fatur '42.

Although Sacramento City Police Chief, Jack Kearne's '51 squad did not win the game, I am sure Jack was very proud of Pete Willover '63, who did their punting. The police squad also missed Pete Hanratty '32 who, from the inception of the game, helped with the steak breakfast for the players.

One of CB's more prominent leaders, Ed Lammerding '47, was invited to the White House Conference on small business. Ed assured me that he handled the meeting of the president with the utmost decorum. I'll bet he spent many hours practicing that decorum stuff.

Mike Bosnich '40, still with the friendly Southern Pacific, but fast becoming a real estate mogul with the John Urda Company.

Received a nice letter from Bob Cuffe '38, and he would like to be remembered to his old classmates.

Tony Piava, Jr. '73 co-owner of Valley Hi Auto Supply and his brother Ron '75 is working for Ma Bell. One of my stringers, Ed O'Donoghue '43 the World's Greatest Irishman, says that his friend, Francis Bird Atkins '26, has just recently married and returned to the Sacramento area.

Don Terra '55, is the owner of Franklin Stationery Company and Ken Belke '37, is getting ready to take a long journey to the Norwegian countries with a stop off in Russia — poor ole Ken, when he lived in our neighborhood, he had an awful time getting on the right street car to get up town— be careful Ken.

Al Keine '40 and Sonny Valine '41

are partners in an electrical supply business.

It is getting around that time of year again when individuals and companies are looking for fellows like Fred Oliver '63, a tax and corporate attorney.

Jim Flynn '32, represented the area at the first "old jocks" reunion. This is a group of old jocks that played for USF, St. Mary's, and Santa Clara. A good time was had by all.

Paul "Mumbles" Bernardis '41, was co-chairman of the Herman Wedmeyer party at St. Mary's College.

Tim Kennedy '41, is with Martyr and Curry and his daughter is with my son most of the time.

John Zupan '62 has been appointed head football coach at Del Campo High School. William Keely '66 is a true CBer. He married Howard McKenzie's '40 daughter. Bill owns a sporting good store in Vintage Fair Shopping Center, Modesto.

It is almost that time of year again for the annual USF, St. Mary's, Santa Clara, St. Patrick's luncheon. It will be held at the Dante Club and the menu will be, of course, corn beef and cabbage, and cooked by the finest Italian cook money can buy. This year St. Mary's will be the host school.

Because of my fine Roman heritage I have introduced a new Italian insurance company to my office. The name of the company is The Sicilian Mutual, and if you buy a policy you get a piece of the rock, and if you don't buy the policy you getta the rock through your windshield and busted head. In the next issue I hope to feature some of our alumni from out of state or country. If you fall in that category, sit down right now and drop me a note and let me know what's going on.

RECENT ALUMNI

By KEVIN McGOVERN '74

This is the third in a series of articles on the graduating classes from 1960 to the present. This month we spotlight the Class of 1971 with a report from Mike Tatro, now working as a sales representative for the NorCal Electric:

First, let's get the embarrassing news out of the way. Dan Carmazzi, former football and basketball star, is currently working as a teacher/coach at Jesuit High School. We will have to forgive Dan, however, for he was a good sport and showed up for the recent Alumni Basketball game.

Steve Yates is working for the UPS as a driver in the downtown area. Pat Blocker is controller for the Mother Lode Commerce Bank.

Two graduates are currently working for Raley's, Don DaRosa at the warehouse in West Sacramento and Tom Francesconi as a receiving clerk for the supermarket on Freeport Blvd.

Jack Nolan is working for Oak Park Realty; Stan Olsufka is doing a good job as a counselor at Juvenile Hall.

No one better fool around with ex-President Jerry Ford as George Domich is now one of Jerry's secret service agents in Palm Springs.

Tom O'Neil is currently working at Dan Lahey Realty; John Blanchard is back in school — working on his Master's at San Diego State.

Jim Sardi is the dispatcher for the local office of Systems 99 Trucking and he's getting help there from night foreman, Dan Dillon.

Mike Smyth is currently working for the State of California; George Cook is working for El Dorado Savings and Loan in Placerville and Mark Perry is an appraiser for the same company.

You better bring a heavy coat if you're going to visit Jim Blakeway, who is working as a carpenter in Alaska.

Stop in for lunch at the Sandwich Factory, 19th & P, and see owner, Steve Massa.

Roger Britton is working for UPS in Rocklin; Doug Silva is a chef in Sausalito; Pat Brousseau is one of the buyers for Julius Clothing Store.

"I've been working on the railroad", says Paul Williams, inspector for S.P.

Tom Golowski is another one of those UPS men; Nick Moreno is a tree trimmer for Sacramento; Mike Schiele manages the Custom Fireside Shop.

Are the pipes leaking again? See Joe Morondi, the plumber. How about the wiring? Frank Vellutini is the electrician.

Kenny Lewis is a teacher at Cache Creek School, Boys Ranch; and if you're looking for a good Italian dinner, stop in to Americo's Restaurant at 20th and Capitol where your waiter will be Danny Brown and your chef will be Nathan Stanley.

A DISCLAIMER—CHRISTIAN BROTHERS DEVELOPMENT

The Development Office of Christian Brothers High School attempts to raise money to provide scholarships for needy students and to help with the operating deficit of the school so that tuition can remain at a level most families can afford.

However, it is not in the business of constructing and selling homes as "The Christian Brothers Development Company". This enterprise is listed in the telephone directory.

Nor are the Christian Brothers who conduct Catholic schools and colleges associated with any of the following: Christian Brothers Carpet, New York, Christian Brothers Carpet Cleaning, San Francisco, Christian Brothers Plumbing, San Jose, or Christian Brothers Thrift Store, Sacramento.

Whatever be the origin of these enterprises which use the words "Christian Brothers", they are not related to the Catholic religious congregation that operates Christian Brothers High School.

Our West Coast Province does own a winery which produces premium wines and brandy which are marketed under THE CHRISTIAN BROTHERS brand. From this the Brothers are able to provide a substantial subsidy to all the educational endeavors of the Brothers in California and Oregon. However, this subsidy is not nearly sufficient to provide scholarships and to cover the expenses of these institutions. That is why we must have successful Development programs in all our schools and colleges.

As part of the tercentenary of the founding of the Christian Brothers, Mont La Salle Vineyards and St. Mary's College are sponsoring a tour of Europe encompassing visits to areas associated with the early history of the Brothers (Reims/Paris and the motherhouse in Rome as well as the wine areas of Italy and France. Brochures available at St. Mary's College.
