

BROTHER RICHARD CAMARA NAMED PRINCIPAL OF CHRISTIAN BROTHERS HIGH SCHOOL

Brother Norman Cook, FSC, Provincial, appointed Brother Richard Camara, FSC, Principal of Christian Brothers High School, Sacramento, to succeed Brother Jerome Gallegos, FSC. Brother Richard will assume his responsibilities July 1, 1981.

Brother Jerome was changed to De La Salle High School, Concord, to be Principal, succeeding Brother Michael Meister, FSC, who will be continuing his doctoral studies full time next semester. Brother Norman explained that the transition in administration for both schools would be smoother by these appointments.

Brother Jerome had been in the administration of the Concord school before coming to Sacramento, July, 1979. Brother Richard has been Vice-Principal of Christian Brothers for the last three years and was Principal of Justin-Siena High School, Napa, before his Sacramento assignment. Brother Richard brings to his new job both experience and familiarity with the local situation.

Brother Richard was first assigned to CBS in 1958 and was Director of Resident Students in 1964 when the school at 21st and Broadway closed and the boys of the 9th and 10th grades there joined the junior and seniors boys at Bishop Armstrong High School.

ALUMNI AND STUDENTS CONFER ON CAREER DAY

The Alumni Association sponsored its second Career Day on February 10.

Sixty members of the alumni spent the morning meeting with groups of students to discuss various careers.

After an assembly in the gym where Jim Schenk '60, co-chairman with Jerry Kirrene '53, introduced the alumni participants, all dispersed to the assigned classrooms. Each student had the opportunity of learning of three general career areas in the morning sessions.

thedral basement will follow the Mass. Sacramento, April 11

The Sacramento community will honor the Brothers for their 300 years of service with a Mass in the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament at 3:00 p.m., April 11, 1981. Bishop Francis Quinn will be the chief concelebrant and Monsignor Russell Terra will be the homilist.

A civic reception will follow at The Crossroads. Tickets will be required for the reception and may be reserved by calling the school office or the Alumni Office or by writing to the Tercentenary Committee, 4315 Sacramento Blvd., Sacramento, 95820 before March 31.

During lunch, the cafeteria tables were designated for the 19 general career areas so that alumni and students could exchange questions and answers.

After the lunch period, students assembled in homerooms and the alumni in an assembly hall to critique the experience of the morning sessions.

From all reports, the second annual career day was another successful endeavor.

Signs on cafeteria tables brought alumni and students together for lunch to continue Career Day discussions.

ALUMNI NEWS

by Jack
Stassi '40

Since our last column many good things have been happening to the Alumni. First and foremost, there have been some really great class reunions, the most notable, of course, being my class, the Class of '40, having its 40th. My old classmate, BILL GORMLEY had the quote of the week at the reunion; as we walked in he looked around and said: "Jack if I had known some of my classmates looked this old, I would have brought more of my cards." Nice going, Digger.

Another memorable function was the Annual Alumni Dinner which was bigger and better than ever. The Class of '56 took the honors for the most in attendance, but the Class of '41 claims to have had the highest percentage there. Honorary diplomas were presented to REX D'ALESSANDRO '35, FRANK MUGARTEGUI '51, AL PULIZ '43, JOE FRANZELLA '49, RAY GALLAGHER '43, CLIFF HASKELL '49, Z. BUD MEREDITH '26 and ED SMITH '56. Named as Honorary Alumni were: GLYNN MOORE, VINCENT STANICH, SR., JIM CHURCH, SR., MIKE GILL, WALT TURNER, SR., JOE J. KIRRENE, RAY CLEMONS, JOHN CECCARELLI, BILL SCHUMACHER and JOE GENSHLEA, SR.

Hats off to EDMUND SILVEY '18, the oldest grad in attendance.

Now let's see what some of the Out of Towners are doing . . . When in Reno stop by and say hello to TOM FRANZOIA '71, the new assistant manager of the Vassar-Wells Music Hall . . . LARRY PRATO '30 is a partner with his sons at the Valley Stock Farm in Oakdale . . . BYRON SCHULTZ '56 is the Personnel Director of International Operations for All State Insurance Co. and now based in Palatine, Ill. . . . JEFF DAY '63 is the Vice-President of Brady's Moving & Storage in Chico and he tells me he is quite active in the Rotary Club and Boy Scouts . . . another law and order man, TOM HIGGINS '59, Deputy District Attorney for Los Angeles and living in LaVerne.

JOHN HAMILTON '56 is a Chief Master Sergeant in the USAF and on a special assignment in San Vito, Italy, teaching social studies in an adjunct facility for Troy State University and City College of Chicago European Division. John, be sweet to all my cousins over there.

BRIAN MOORE '61 was recently named executive director of the Health Plan of Anne Arundel County, Maryland.

DENNIS DORSEY '52 retired from U.S. Army after 22 years of service with the rank of Lt. Colonel and now living the good life in Florida, working as a personnel officer for Orange County . . . BOB FOUTS '40, ex 49er sportcaster and very proud father of DAN FOUTS, the superbowl quarterback

BA Women Grads

We haven't had a lot of response from our first column and need to hear from women graduates of Bishop Armstrong H.S.

of the San Diego Chargers, is back in the bay area.

Now let's see what the Towners are doing: Ex-coach JIM FLYNN '30 recently participated in the second annual USF, St. Mary's, Santa Clara ex-Jock banquet, held again this year at USF. If you played for any of these great institutions from the 20's through the 40's I am sure it is an event you would enjoy.

GARY CASIO '66 is a scuba diving beer salesman for Sacconi Distributing Co. . . . ROBERT BUTCHER '62 is an office supervisor for the State Board of Equalization . . . AUSTIN JOHNSON '55 is a supervisor for the Sacramento County Sheriff's Office Work Furlough Program . . . BOB FERRY '54 is a criminal investigator for the District Attorney's office and Bob's family has really covered the territory: his father attended at 12th & K, Bob at 21st and Broadway and his son is now a senior at the Sacramento Blvd. site.

TERRY FLYNN '70 is a mixologist at the Club 2-Me, a popular hangout for the East Sacramento crowd . . . CHARLIE SCHANZ '37 says now that he is retired he may be a better fisherman than he was a big league ball player when he pitched for Cincinnati.

I must mention that handsome, affable and debonaire member of our Board of Regents, HARRY TONKIN. He just loves to see his name in print. Harry you now owe me a lunch.

Congrats are in order to TOM ZANZE '59 and his wife who are the newly installed presidents of the St. Francis High School Parents' Club . . . and to FRANK McNAMARA '51 who did a great job as the M.C.

MARGIE McALPINE ESTABROOK is local homemaker with two children.

CAROLYN MEREDITH GRANUCCI is local homemaker with five children, with one son at CBHS and very much involved in the Parents' Service with her husband Bob, 5" . . . her sister, MARILYN MEREDITH HARRIS is local X-Ray technician married, three children, with two of them at CBHS and husband, KEN, '54 very much involved in Parents' Service Organization.

JOAN PERSIC CRAWFORD is local homemaker, two children . . . BETTY ANN PRATT WATTERS is nurse with Easter Seal Society, three boys, one of whom is a junior at CBHS, a member of CBS Alumni Board of Directors . . . KAY PROCOPIO MILLER has moved to Hawaii, married, one girl . . . JAN SCHAEFFER PIRO just graduated from nursing school, married, two children, living in Fairfax.

MEG SCOTT O'NEILL, local homemaker, five children . . . JUDI SILVA HANNIGAN, optical work in Stockton, three girls . . . JOAN VALERIO MEYERS, Superior Court Clerk in Sacramento, two children . . . MARY ANN WOODS RICH, married, three children, in Lake Oswego, Ore.

Please let us hear from you. Write Rosemary Bollinger c/o Caravan Travel, 964 39th St., Sacramento, CA 95816, 454-4323.

for the father and daughter dinner at Bishop Manogue High School. His lovely wife was chairperson of the event . . . and to VINCE STANICH on his election to the La Salle Club Hall of Fame. No one is more deserving.

GLORIA SCHAAF, member of our Board of Regents, informs me that she has changed the name of delivery service to American Parcel Service . . . VICTOR CABRAL '72 is practicing civil and criminal law in Sacramento . . . and how about this CASELLI musical family: JOHN '70 is National Sales Manager for KROY, AM and KROI, FM; JIM '73 is head drummer at Sacramento's Moon Studios and MIKE '76 is exciting audiences with his Band Odyssees . . . if you want to catch up on your geography, just corner BILL KOEWLER '33, a world traveler just recently returned from China. He is still trying to figure out why they made the wall so long.

And I am happy to report that my fellow columnist, STAN GILLIAM '41, who was having a bit of eye trouble, is fully recovered. I know this for certain as Stan and I were standing on a street corner when a sweet young lady walked by and his glasses immediately fogged up and his eyes started to water.

DICK BARBEAU '45, well known local attorney, is fast becoming one of Sacramento's most prestigious antique collectors.

Congratulations to FATHER TOM WRIGHT '46, Executive Director of Nevada Catholic Welfare Bureau, on his 25th anniversary as a priest.

This is it. Write: P.O. Box 160006, Sacramento, CA 95816.

ANNUAL GIVING PROGRAM MOVING AT SLOW PACE

The appeal to alumni, parents, friends and business firms for an annual gift or pledge to attain the ongoing goals of the Development Program has been moving slowly. Response has been received from 122 donors for a total pledge of nearly $22,000.

With the assistance of the memorial donors and Christmas gifts, the Development Program has realized close to $65,000 as of January 31, 1981, the end of the Fall semester. The 1980-81 goal is $115,000 to bridge the gap between cost-per-student and the revenues from tuition and subsidies.

With four months left in the fiscal year, the momentum of the appeal must pick up if the inflationary raise in 1981-82 tuition is to be kept at a level most families can afford.

The Regents gratefully acknowledge the following donors whose gifts or pledges have been received between November 15, 1980 and February 15, 1981:

Alumni: Rand Anderson '69, Eugene Angelo '52, Anthony Bressi '76, Christopher Bressi '77, Thomas J. Cook '76, Robert C. Cuff '38 James P. Hoefling '52, William J. Machabee '48, Stephan M. Mahaney '69, John Mooney '53, Col. Paul F. Reese, Ret. '35, Walter E. Short '52.

Parents: John A. and Patricia L. Drew, Mr. and Mrs. William Dunk, Edward G. Herbst, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Corsiglia (parents of alumni).

Regents and Friends: Jack Buick, California Office Furniture, Inc., Corti Brothers, El Dorado Savings & Loan Association, Kenney Supply Co., Msgr. Thomas H. Markham, F. Marsala-General Contractor, New Home Building Supply, Mae Belle and Barney Pendergast.

Other Donations to the Development Program: Charles A. Dimas '50, Life Time Alumni; Mr. and Mrs. James Lawson '54; Christian Brothers High School Alumni Association; Salvador Vasquez '52; Ada Cekarrelli; Peter J. FINE ARTS CENTER PROPOSED AS MEMORIAL TO DOUGLAS LEE NELSON '82

By MAE BELLE PENDERGAST

Douglas Lee Nelson, a Christian Brothers High School junior, died on December 4, 1980, just one day after his 17th birthday.

To perpetuate his memory — and to fulfill a dream Doug had — a fund has been set up to build a fine arts center on the campus. The facility, to be called the Douglas Lee Nelson Fine Arts Center, will provide a setting for the exclusive development and encouragement in various expressions of the arts — painting (in all its aspects), sculpture, music and drama, plus the more contemporary fields of communication, television, radio and film making. It is envisioned as more than a workshop and classroom, but also as a facility for theatrical productions, concerts and exhibitions.

Doug Nelson had an intense interest in the arts, which possibly first was evident when he was but 8 years old. He became a motion picture mogul — writing and directing a neighborhood movie, with his brother, David (CBS '75) behind the camera. Doug's creative talent was to be reflected for the remainder of his life through a variety of activities. Before he had entered the seventh grade, he took part in a summer Music Circus production, playing a munchkin in "The Wizard of Oz" with the Hudson Brothers. The following year, he took a new role as stage, lighting and sound co-manager for his school's (Holy Spirit) production of the same play.

At Brothers, Doug also could be found in journalism as a reporter on the Talon staff and as both photographer and advertising salesman for the Crest. Drama reappeared when he was a cast member of "Hobbit", and film making was a continuing avocation. His spirit and drive were evident outside of school as he helped with parish festivals (he was an altar boy five years), as a volunteer for Easter Seals, Cerebral Palsy and KVIE telethons, and as a worker for La Salle Club Frolics. During holidays he was busy with distribution of baskets for the less fortunate. He was a member of Junior Achievement.

During vacation, too young to obtain a paid job, he became a playground volunteer, teaching arts and crafts to children. Less than two months before his death, he was a guest disc jockey for radio station KZAP. He seemed to have boundless energy and diverse talents.

Doug had long expressed a need for a center where creative talents could be continuously enriched, so it is appropriate his parents, Dick and Sue Nelson, put forth their suggestion and endorsement on a Fine Arts Center in his name. Although the fund is small now, it will continue to grow until the center is a reality and already a committee is working to provide architectural drawings. A program for fund raising is being established, spearheaded by the Nelsons and donations will be continuously accepted.

As the Nelsons say, "Doug was not a spectator of life; he was a participant who reached out to all that life had to offer. He loved life to its fullest. He lived it well."

Donations may be directed to the Douglas Lee Nelson Fine Arts Center, Christian Brothers High School, 4315 Sacramento Blvd., 95820.

25 Years of Religious Profession Celebrated By Brother Jerome

On March 21, the Brothers religious community will honor Brother Jerome Gallegos, Principal, with a Mass, reception and dinner for his silver jubilee as a Christian Brother.

Brother Jerome attended Cathedral High School, Los Angeles, where he first met the Brothers. After graduation from high school, he entered the novitiate and received the religious habit in August, 1956.

After graduating from St. Mary's College in 1961, his assignments gave him experience in St. Mary's High School, Berkeley, Bishop Armstrong High School, Sacramento, Garces Memorial High School, Bakersfield, Christian Brothers Retreat House, St. Helena, De La Salle High School, Concord.

He has served in administration at St. Helena, Concord and Sacramento. He will return to Concord in July as the newly appointed Principal.

When he was in Sacramento from 1963 to 1968, he taught and was Director of Counseling and Guidance at Bishop Armstrong High School. Alumni from those years will remember him as Brother La Salle.
