Bishop Armstrong Confers Honors On Forty-six Graduates; Senior Ball Set For Summer Evening, June Second

Selby-Farrell Tie In Speech Contest

Bruce Selby, sophomore and Edward Farrell, freshman, tied in the second annual lower division oratorical contest held at Brothers. Outstanding was Edward Farrell's clear and factual presentation of the standing of the Vatican in this present war. Bruce Selby made an appeal to the people of America to work harder for victory for it is our own existence that we are fighting for.

Patrick Dullanty, Richard Hartun, Parker Woods, Ernest Massa, and Walter Shaffer were the other representatives from among all those of the lower division for top honors.
