

CATHOLIC

By TOM RYAN

Ash Wednesday opened the season preparing us for the triumphal resurrection of Christ on Easter Morn. It will be the next few weeks that we are asked to do things for Christ — something more than we have done before — a sacrifice of a few minutes — (here are a few suggestions): Since you are Catholics and in a Catholic school, cannot you rise a little earlier and attend Mass, go to Communion, study a bit harder, be kinder to everyone. — would these things be asking too much of you as Catholics to do for Christ who suffered and died on the Cross for each of us.

First Treasury Flag

The first school in Sacramento to fly a Treasury Flag was a Catholic School, St. Joseph's Academy. It is not the school that buys the most stamps that gets the flag but the school that sells a ten-cent stamp to each member of the student body each month. This makes it a real sacrifice each month by each student. Congratulations St.

Disputed Passage Seen By Boarding Department

"Disputed Passage" was presented to the Boarding department last Wednesday evening in the school auditorium. Brother Cormac has a series of pictures to present including pictures of historic interest such as The Crusades and Tower of London. Many travel talkies and trail blazers of commerce are shown as shorts before and after the main features.

Ampro Movie Camera Purchased By Brothers

Through the efforts of Brother Cormac and the cooperation of Brother Cyril a $500 Ampro movie camera has been purchased for the use of the student body. Through this camera, visual education will play an important part in the education at Christian Brothers.

Cohan And Berlin Hits Will Be Sung; Brother Cyril Directs Production

Extravaganza studded with the star spangled musical melodies from the hearts of George M. Cohan and Irving Berlin will warm the hearts of their admirers in the Annual Christian Brothers Big-Time entertainment to be staged immediately following the lenten season. By a sort of roving flashback technique unconventional but highly effective we will be introduced to the scenes made great by those two troubadours and as incense wafts its way across the stage will be the rhythms they made famous.

It is this year that the musical world is paying tribute to the immortal George M. Cohan who has just passed into the great beyond and it was just thirty-five years ago that Irving Berlin started to give us his hit tunes made famous with the years. Interspersing scenes and tunes from World War I, stressing the prohibition days

Armed Forces Get Five New Rookies

James Baruch, Steve Rooney, Phil Swalberg, Bud Thomas, John DuPree, Marshall Cuffe, and Raymond Hackett have passed the air corps mental examination. James Baruch has also passed the physical while the others are awaiting their call.

Conway Cuffe has been inducted into the air force. John Hayes has been called to the coast guard. Bill Friend is now in Uncle Sam's navy. John Risse and Frank Delaini, former 1942 football players are now members of the United States army.

To date only five have been called from the present student body. But many of the seniors are now reporting to their draft boards and making ready for induction into our armed forces.

Debating Schedule Fails As Upper-Division Drop

During the last round of debating, William Coffman and Victor Keiser defeated Paul Girulani and Daniel Chenoweth on the topic: "Resolved, That a World Federated Peace should be established after this war." William Bordisso and Norman Jurasin were victorious over a junior team of Louis Lamb and William Friend. John O'Neill and Edward Farrell were also vic-
