

work for the Catholic school survey conducted by the NCEA.

Some noticeable differences were found between the national sample and the Catholic component, Manno observed. For example, Catholic youth do more homework and report a more orderly and positive school environment. However, these youth and issues important to them. Both Catholic youth and their parents affirm more than others the "horizontal" religious perspective that involves reaching out to others and translating faith into compassionate attitudes and actions. Catholic youth appear more concerned than other youth about alleviating global problems such as hunger and war.

Christian Brothers graduates 155 seniors

The class of 1984 of Christian Brothers High School in Sacramento will graduate Saturday, June 2, at a ceremony to be held in the Community Center Theater beginning at 5:00 p.m. Diplomas will be conferred on the 155 graduates by Brother Richard Camara, F.S.C., principal. Sister Rosemary Zaffuto, superintendent of diocesan schools, will be the honored guest.

The baccalaureate liturgy and senior awards assembly will be held on Friday, June 1, at 9:15 a.m. in the school gymnasium. Presiding at the ceremonies will be Father Ben DeLeon, the school's chaplain. Special academic awards and presentations will be made during the program.

Among the awards to be presented are the General Excellence Award, the De La Salle Medal for excellence in religion, the Brother Ambrose Award for school service and loyalty, and the Bank of America trophies for excellence in liberal arts and science, mathematics.

Departmental honors and scholarships will also be given. Thirty-five members of the graduating class will be installed as life-time alumni, and life members of the California Scholarship Federation will be honored. A special luncheon at the Woodlake Inn will follow the awards assembly.
