

Attorney Karl Schnetz '52 was awarded the first-ever Pro Bono Achievement Award from the Placer County Bar Association (PCBA). According to the PCBA, Schnetz was chosen because of his long-standing pro-bono work helping the disadvantaged. Schnetz has volunteered his time as a pro-bono practitioner two days a week since 1998. In doing so, he has handled a wide variety of matters including criminal, family, immigration and contract disputes.