C. B. S. News Appears In New Format

It was shortly less than two years ago that the C. B. S. News was inaugurated as the official school publication, under difficulties well realized by the sponsors of the innovation, Brother Patrick, our beloved principal, Brother Bertram, moderator, and George Gillette, the first editor.

Though the first few issues were quickly taken up and apparently successful, still the new journal had a long uphill climb before it could truly be said to breathe of the pure, if somewhat precarious, ozone of success. During that climb, two of its most energetic sponsors, Brother Bertram and George Gillette departed from C. B. S., the one to take a teaching post at Mount La Salle,

Juniors Take First Place On February Roll of Honor

The Honor Roll for the month of February as released early this week showed that the Junior classes led the Seniors by a slight margin in scholarship. Taking the classes separately, however, the Senior Academicians slightly surpassed the Junior Commercial class.

Thomas Moriarty of Junior A class achieved a straight A record.

The complete High School honor roll is as follows:

Senior A: P. Agrimonti, R. Beecher, G. Fox, W. Keating, L. Marzacci.

Senior C: J. Bruns, N. Caldera, R. Meyers.

Junior A: J. Boock, R. Boyd, R. Bruggman, R. Knight, T. Moriarty.

Junior C: E. Condon, E. Duccini, W. Feneran, W. Fountain, A. Frauzoa, D. Kelleher.

Soph A: J. Hennessy, J. Sulli

Soph B: J. Boltano, E. Coupe, T. DuHain, F. Garcia, W. Gormley, E. Harlow, A. Kiene.

Fresh A: R. Bambery, R. Cunningham, S. Gittam, J. Mulligan.

Fresh B: E. Larrabee, W. Varozza.

The Honor Roll for the Grammar School department as released by Brother Ambrose, the dean, lists the following as proficient in scholarship during February:

Eighth Grade: J. Cox, F. Hubbs, J. Pierini, G. Smith.

Seventh Grade: R. Banahan, T. Bigelow.

Sixth Grade: J. Church, C. McDaniel, M. Yates.

Fifth Grade: J. Fuller, H. Leffmann, C. O'Connor.

Fourth Grade: R. Craig, M.

Second Grade: B. Beattie, D.

Junior A's Win School Debate Kudo

The debating fever, which has gripped the school for the last few weeks reached its peak last Friday, March 11, with Junior A meeting Sophomore A for the Interclass Championship. The Sophomore team, composed of J. Harris, O. McEligott, and J. Hennessy took the affirmative of the question: "Resolved: That Congress should have the power to override, by a two-third majority vote, decisions of the Supreme Court declaring laws passed by Congress unconstitutional." The Junior team made up of James Boock and Elmer Gieseke supported the negative.

After a splendid session of forty minutes, the Juniors won the championship 638 to 546. James
