

C. B. S. News

Published by the Students of Christian Brothers School

James Boock
New President

Farewell
Class of '38

L II.

SACRAMENTO, CALIFORNIA, JUNE 3, 1938

JUNE 3, 1938

Monsignor Presides; Earl Desmond To Speak

McGuire and Gallagher
Student Speakers

Into the school auditorium for the last time as students will file, next Wednesday evening, the graduating class of 1938, forty seven strong, there to receive from the hands of Rev. Monsignor Thomas Horgan the diplomas for which they have worked so long and so well. The ceremonies will commence at eight o'clock.

Monsignor Thomas Horgan, Vicar-General of the Diocese, will preside in the absence of Bishop Albert Armstrong, at present in Rome making his ad limina pilgrimage to St. Peter's in Rome. Students selected to speak on behalf of the graduates are Jack McGuire, star athlete, who will speak on "The Value of a Catholic Education"; and Bill Gallagher, honor student, whose subject is "Catholic Action." Chief speaker and honored guest of the evening will be the famed Sacramento attorney and assemblyman, Earl

SPEAKER

EARL DESMOND

Carnival Surpasses Expectations

Bringing the social season to a brilliant climax the Patrons, friends and students of C.B.S. staged a very successful Field Day and Carnival last May 22. Commencing with the Interclass Track Meet at 11:00 A.M., festivities continued until the last melodic strains of Jack Alderson's orchestra signaled the end of the dance at midnight.

Visitors to the school grounds enjoyed the three track meets, the tasty dinner, the numerous carnival games, the varied vaudeville acts and the dance in the school gym.

William McQuillan, general chairman, and Thomas Armstrong, chairman of the day, worked diligently to make the affair thor-

Jim Boock New Prexy At Brothers

In a hotly contested election last Wednesday, Jim Boock, editor of the C.B.S. News, prominent debater and honor student, was named president of the student body at C.B.S. for the school year 1938-39. Boock garnered one hundred and twenty votes while his competitor for the key position, Don Viducich, received only sixty five.

A solid, hard-working fellow, Boock has gone through his three years here at Brothers with an enviable record and several notable achievements. A very capable, fluent speaker and writer, he has devoted his energies to debating and writing, particularly writing for the school publication. It was during his incumbency as editor of the C.B.S. News and developer