C. B. S. NEWS

nnual Turkey Whist uesday Evening School Hall

VALUABLE PRIZES OFFERED PLAYERS

Tuesday evening, November the Brothers School will be athering place of a large all with the object of ng off with them a luscious y, or at least some prize ps less coveted. The occa-will be the Annual Turkey , held at the school before sgiving for the past four

Numerous Prizes

her Patrick, principal, stat-s week that a crowd of a nd persons is expected to e school auditorium during ening. There will be about izes and forty turkeys will

Senior Debater

Frosh Class B Top Honor Roll

E. Condon, S. Gilliam, J. Coyle Make Perfect Records

The Freshman class, following the example set last month, led the school in scholastic standing for the month of October. About one third of the first year men placed on the Honor Roll trailed by the Sophomores, Seniors and Juniors in the order listed.

Edward Condon of 4C, Stanley Gilliam of 2A, and James Coyle of 1C, took top honors in the whole school by achieving perfect ecords with all "A's."

The complete honor roll follows:

Senior A: James Boock, Robert Fouts, Dan Kelleher, Russell Knight, James McLaughlin, Marco Smolich, Thomas Moriarty.

Senior C: Edward Condon, James Cox, Eugene Duccini.

Junior A: Arthur Case, R. Cortopassi, Ellis Harlow, McClelland,

Catholic Action Council Is Established At Brothers High

GRAHAM LAHEY HEADS NEW ORGANIZATION

C. A. C. Leader

At a meeting on October 31, the C. B. S. Catholic Action Council was formed with Graham Lahey as president and Marco Smolich as secretary.

Purpose

The purpose of "Catholic Action," according to its founder and guiding spirit, the reigning Pope, Pius XI, is to make the laity workers in an apostolate in-to which the clergy would find it difficult to enter. It is a movement, however, directly un-der the authority of the hierarchy of the Church. The idea has al-ready, in its youth, had an amaz-ingly rapid growth; and this is