Publicity Chapter
Plans To Increase
School Library Stock

During February, officially set aside as the month of the Catholic Press, the Publicity chapter of the Catholic Action Council in conjunction with the other chapters, is sponsoring a book drive to help increase the number and quality of the books in the school library.

Chapter Head Addresses Students

"We are sure," stated Francis Duffy, head of the group, "that our fellow students will take this opportunity to relieve the shelves at home of books long unused and which might be of some value on the shelves of a library. Most of us have several books which we either have not read or never intend to read, but which others might find interesting. Help the Church, keep the Catholic
