

YCS Convention, LA

YCS stood for Young Christian Students. Student members would have meetings once a week, have a time for reflection and find ways to influence other students to become better Christians. I think that CB had about 12 members. St. Francis, St. Joseph and CB all had chapters.

In August 1952, a convention was held at St. John's Military Academy in Los Angeles where we were staying. At lunchtime we sat together and ran into Brother Bertram, who had just left as principal in Sacramento and was now principal of Cathedral High School in LA.
