

All-Metro Baseball Team

Player of the Year: Eric Berger, senior, Woodcreek

Struck out 10 or more batters in 12 games, compiling a 9-2 record, 0.97 ERA and 177 strikeouts.

Coach of the Year: Dan Ariola, Davis

Coached the Blue Devils to the Sac-Joaquin Section Division I title with a 24-11 record.

Sacramento Bee/Bryan Patrick

FIRST TEAM

Pos.	Player	Year	School
P	Preston Guilmet	Junior	Oakmont
P	Zach Phillips	Senior	Galt
P	Matt Couch	Senior	Del Campo
P	Nick Nunez	Senior	Christian Brothers
P	Chipper Nicodemus	Junior	Woodcreek
C	Britton Barber	Senior	Bear River
INF	Vance Worley	Junior	McClatchy
INF	Kris Negron	Senior	Vanden
INF	Robert Abel	Sophomore	Woodland
INF	Kyle Prewitt	Senior	Placer
INF	Tyler Watterdam	Senior	Galt
OF	Alex Ross	Senior	Elk Grove
OF	Ryan Hankin	Junior	Laguna Creek
OF	O.J. Butler	Senior	Benicia
OF	Donnie Hume	Senior	Vacaville
DH	Tyler Bryan	Senior	Davis
DH	Mikey Weissler	Senior	Casa Roble
UTL	Ryan Stevens	Junior	Del Campo
UTL	Ethan Guevin	Junior	Davis

SECOND TEAM

Pos.	Player	Year	School
P	Nick Tavorano	Senior	Sheldon
P	Matt Hedrick	Senior	Center
P	Austen Fasino	Senior	West Campus
P	Myles Anderson	Senior	Bear River
P	Brian Parker	Senior	Davis
C	Kyle Bryant	Senior	El Camino
INF	Kasey Buber	Senior	Yuba City
INF	Jeff Kroeger	Senior	Sheldon
INF	Mike Engell	Senior	Arroyo
INF	Brian Devlin	Junior	Jesuit
INF	John Mitchell	Senior	West Campus
OF	Shawn Leeper	Senior	Rocklin
OF	Chuck Pierce	Senior	Union Mine
OF	Ryan Magill	Senior	Christian Brothers
OF	Michael Drake	Junior	Elk Grove
DH	Mark Hampton	Senior	Marysville
DH	Bobby Sunderland	Senior	Woodland
UTL	Chris Neshem	Senior	Rio Americano
UTL	Tyler Robertson	Sophomore	Bella Vista

Dan Ariola

Playing one of the toughest schedules in the Sacramento area, he coached the Blue Devils to the Sac-Joaquin Section Division I title.

Preston Guilmet

Had an 8-2 record and pitched a no-hitter, two one-hitters, struck out 122 and only walked three batters in 72 innings.

Zach Phillips

Only Sacramento-area high schooler to be drafted (23rd round by Texas), he was 8-3 with a 1.40 ERA and had 122 strikeouts.

Matt Couch

The Capital Athletic League MVP led Del Campo to 24-7 record and the league title with a 12-2 record, three saves and 0.94 ERA.

Nick Nunez

Was 7-1 with a 2.94 ERA in the regular season and threw back-to-back shutouts in the Sac-Joaquin Section Division II playoffs.

Chipper Nicodemus

While everyone watched Eric Berger, he quietly crafted an 8-0 record, 1.00 ERA and threw two shutouts for the league champions.

Britton Barber

Was second in the Sacramento area in hitting at .531 with 33 RBIs, 14 doubles and .558 on-base and .797 slugging percentages.

Vance Worley

This versatile underclassman hit 455, scored 23 runs and drove home 29 and was 7-1 with a 1.71 ERA on the mound for McClatchy.