

1977 LA SALLE CLUB 26TH ANNUAL BASEBALL HALL OFF
FAME

BILL AVILA

EARL EBERTAIN

ALEX KAMPOURIS

PETER MITCHELL      CB

DR. ALFRED OLIVER

MIKE PAGE

DAVE RODERICK

JOE SMITH

Bill Avila, just turned 65, has been active in baseball since he was a teenager at Sacramento High School under Coach Ed Combatalade. Avila gave up active participation in the diamond sport early in his career to coach and manage young players.

In this particular field, Avila has been singularly successful since the timex of the Police Juniors in the early 30th to the championship clubs of Al's Clóthiers.

Additionally, Avila has been identified with Legion ball. His biggie was the Mahnart Legion club in 1935 which almost went all the way to a National Championship.

Avila was instrumental in the formation of the County League after World War 11. He even had a hand in heading up with Rural League which was in direct competition of the County League in the 50's and 60'.

Avila entered the professional field by accepting a job as the general manager of the Anaheim team, a farm club of the Solons. Later Avila came back to scout for the Solons and more recently joining the Phillies as a regional scout. Avila is considered to be a very talented ivory hunter. Among his discoveries are Larry Bowa and more recently Randy Lerch. Both are with the Phillies. Avila is also a member of the La Salle Hall of Fame Committee, but he was not embarrassed when he was nominated for a Hall of Fame Spot.

DR. ALFRED A OLIVER

Solons "B"

Another if the Hall of Fame candidates who is scouting the local area for baseball talent is Dr. Alfred A. Oliver. "Doc" as he is affectionately known by his close friends, has been active in the Land Park Pony-Colt League since the inception of the league in 1956. He has also been identified in the winter league ~~xxx~~ during the same period. In both leagues Doc's teams were perennial/w<sup>pennant</sup> winners. In the Soy's winter league his young Dodgers have won the title in seven out of the last 10 years.

MIKE PAGE

MIKE PAGE, WHO WILL BE 80 YEARS OF AGE IN JULY, WAS BORN IN MISSOURI. HE PLAYED HIS HIGH SCHOOL BALL IN KIRKWOOD, MISSOURI, BEFORE MOVING TO SACRAMENTO IN 1914. PAGE IMMEDIATELY BEGAN PLAYING ON THE LOCAL BUSH FRONT UPON HIS ARRIVAL. THE FIRST CLUB WITH WHOM PAGE WAS ASSOCIATED WAS THE POWERHOUSE CHRISTIAN BROTHERS RED SOX.

PAGE PLAYED LEFT FIELD, SECOND BASE AND SHORT STOP, BUT CHIEFLY HE WAS A THIRD SACKER.

JUST WHEN HE BEGAN TO SHOW CONSIDERABLE PROMISE IN BASEBALL HE HAD TO WAIT UNTIL HIS ARMY COMMITMENTS WERE OVER. HE SERVED 19 MONTHS OVERSEAS IN WORLD WAR I. WHEN HE RETURNED IN 1919, HE BEGAN TO PERFORM IN SACRAMENTO WINTER LEAGUE, PLAYING WITH KIMBALL-UPSONS, MARSTON-NEWBERT, HEESEMANS, CLARK-LOBNER AND THOMSON DIGGS. IN THE SPRING LEAGUE HE WAS ALWAYS ASSOCIATED WITH THE RED SOX. HE DID PLAY SOME WITH YOUNG MEN'S INSTITUTE UNDER FREDDIE MURPHY.

PAGE ALSO PLAYED WITH SEVERAL OUT OF TOWN CLUBS, NAMELY, VACAVILLE, LINCOLN, AND WEED. HE HUNG UP HIS SPIKES IN 1928.

MIKE WAS MARRIED TO MARY EGAN IN 1920 AND THEY ARE THE PARENTS OF TWO BOYS, BOTH GOLFERS AND GOOD ONES. THEY ARE PENDLETON AND BRYANT.

The Autobiography of Marshall Alexander Page

BETTER KNOWN
AS } M. A. "Mike" Page

Born: July 18, 1897.

Birthplace: Ferguson, Missouri.

Father: Lindley Page

Mother: Leila Gale

Family: 2 Sisters - 3 Brothers.

Came to Sacramento (after 5 previous trips) on August 1, 1914.

Played baseball for the Kirkwood High School and the Town team of Kirkwood, Mo. - 1912, 1913 and 1914.

On or about August 7, 1914 I signed up to play with the Christian Brothers College "Red Sox" team at 12th & S.
Brother Edmunds was the Manager - and Huck X Ford, now departed was the Captain - We used to practice at 13th & R Streets - My first game with CBC was on a Saturday afternoon at Outside Park. While with CBC I played outfield, 2nd Base - Short stop but chiefly 3rd Base. I think the news media of those days will reveal I held my own as a fielder, had an excellent arm and was an average hitter.

From 1914 to 1928, excepting from August 1917 thru September 1919 - Army Days - World War I - Had 19 months of overseas service. Played Winter League - Spring League and Summer League ball. I played Winter League with Humboldt - El Paso Marston - Newport - Heesebaum - Clark - Turner and Thompson - Jiggs Co. During the spring I played with the CBC "Red Sox" and the Young Men's Association the latter under the local and dedicated baseball "nut" & banker, Fred Klump.

Some of the old timers I played with were Hugh Duffey, Mick Doyle, Willie Shick, Jim D'Arcy, Tom Kelly, Tom Allen, Jim Gorman, Pete Scott, Jay Cummings - the Gellesper Bros at Arbuckle - Jim O'Connell, Earl McNeely, Eddie Gross <sup>and</sup> of course all of the old Henry & O'Neil class. I played Sunday am pro ball with Tommys Hank at Louisville <sup>and</sup> Bill Griffith at Louisville - I even went to Wood on 4th July with a pickup team under Fred Murphy's management. We played a team of Northwestern League All Stars. That's where I met our long departed friend and a real contribution to any sport - Charles Lawan - I hung up the old glove, bat <sup>and</sup> shoes in 1928 since I found out I couldn't move around as fast as I use to - the break was coming in short pants <sup>and</sup> I also had assumed family obligations so I took up golf as a pastime.

Yes - Married October 28, 1920 to Mary Margaret "Egan" We have 2 sons - Juddison E. <sup>and</sup> Boyant A. Both boys went to DePaul H. & DePaul City College - They did not take to hard ball like their old dad but both were above average as golfers <sup>and</sup> football players - The boys are now married - domesticity <sup>and</sup> have given Mary & I a lot of pleasure during the past 25 years with 5 grandchildren 3 grandsons <sup>and</sup> 2 granddaughters.

Thus ends a mediocre baseball career but one I love <sup>and</sup> enjoy looking back upon

Old Mike Page

DAVE RODRICK

FOR THE FIRST TIME IN ITS 25 YEARS OF EXISTENCE THE LA SALLE HALL OF FAME COMMITTEE CHOSE A ROSEVILLE OLD TIMER. HE IS DAVE RODRICK, NOW 70 YEARS OF AGE, WHO WAS A CRAFTY SOUTH PAW DURING HIS 30 YEAR CAREER.

RODRICK SHOWED REAL PROMISE AS A PITCHER WHEN HE WAS ONLY 16 YEARS OF AGE, BEGINNING HIS CAREER IN THE OLD PLACER-NEVADA LEAGUE. AT THE AGE OF 21 HE WAS CONSIDERED GOOD ENOUGH TO RECEIVE A TRYOUT WITH THE SAN FRANCISCO SEALS WHEN THEY TRAINED IN MONTEREY. DAVE DID NOT MAKE IT IN FAST COMPANY, BUT HIS SERVICES WERE VERY MUCH IN DEMAND BY ALL THE CLUBS IN THE SEMI-PRO RANKS.

ALTHOUGH MOST OF HIS CAREER WAS SPENT IN THE PLACER NEVADA LEAGUE HE DID PERFORM IN THE SACRAMENTO VALLEY LEAGUE, PLAYING WITH ROSEVILLE, YUBA CITY AND WOODLAND. HE SPENT THE BALANCE OF HIS CAREER PITCHING FOR WOLF AND ROYER IN THE P-N LEAGUE BEFORE RETIRING FROM ACTIVE PLAYING IN 1958 WHEN HE WAS 50 YEARS OF AGE.

ONE OF RODRICK'S GREAT PITCHING ACHIEVEMENTS CAME WHEN HE WAS 39 YEARS OF AGE BACK IN 1946. HE WAS CHOSEN TO PITCH FOR THE CARMICHAEL FIREMEN WHEN THEY WENT TO WICHITA TO COMPETE IN THE NATIONAL SEMI-PRO TOURNAMENT. DAVE MADE A SIGNIFICANT CONTRIBUTION IN PITCHING THE CLUB TO AN INTERNATIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP. HIS SON, LT. GENE RODRICK, PLACER COUNTY SHERIFF'S DEPARTMENT, ALSO A PITCHER, WAS A MEMBER OF THE SAME CLUB WITH HIS DAD BACK IN 1958. DAVE RETIRED FROM THE PG&E AFTER WORKING FOR THAT ORGANIZATION FOR 43 YEARS.

OLIVER

Oliver is a practicing podiatrist in Sacramento, a profession he has been engaged in for the past 40 years. Many of his close, personal friends are not aware that he was initially a pharmacist, right after he graduated from high school. Oliver later conducted a refresher course for those aspiring to take the pharmacy examination. His many graduates are part of the community this very day.

Oliver is currently a scout for the Los Angeles Dodgers working under the direction of his cousin, Ronnie King. Doc is proud of his discovery, Jerry Royster, who is currently the third ~~XXXXX~~ <sup>sacker</sup> for the Atlanta Braves.

ALEX KAMPOURIS

Kampouris, a native of Sacramento, was grabbed right out of Sacramento High School by the Sacramento Solons. He was destined to become an exceptional second sacker ~~XXXXXXXXXXXX~~ when he was but 16 years of age and a regular on the Eastern Outfitters in the Sacramento Winter ~~LA~~ League.

The local fans did not savor the greatness of K Kampouris for too long as he was grabbed off by the Cincinnati Reds after he played but two years at the local ball orchard.

Alex did not bring much of a ~~XXXX~~ sum to Lew Moreing, Solon owner, as 1933 was the year of the great depression. On today's market the flashy Greek would attract $200,000 from any big league ball club.

His overall record in 1933 which ~~XXXXXXXXXX~~ prompted a bid from a big league ball club was phenomenal.

Here is his record: Batted .300; scored over 100 runs; collected 200 hits; hit 40 doubles; led the club in triples with 11. That is not all. He hit 18 home runs; led the club in total bases with 366. He batted in 123 runs to lead the club in that department. Alex also led the club in stolen bases with 47. He joined the Reds in 1934.

JOE SMITH

ANOTHER ONE OF THE HALL OF FAME IS JOE SMITH, WHO ALSO SERVED IN FRANCE DURING WORLD WAR I. WHILE IN THE BATTLE ZONE, SMITH FILLED IN AS A CATCHER FOR A TOURING ALL-STAR TEAM, WHO HAD LOST THEIR RECEIVER WHO SUFFERED A BROKEN LEG. SMITH DID THE CATCHING FOR THE BALANCE OF THE TOUR. THE PITCHER FOR THE ALL-STARS WAS THE IMMORTAL GROVER CLEVELAND ALEXANDER. SMITH MOVED TO SACRAMENTO FROM CANTON, OHIO IN 1940 AND IMMEDIATELY BECAME A PART OF THE LOCAL BASEBALL SETUP.

HE BECAME PLAYER, MANAGER FOR THE SOUTHERN PACIFIC CLUB IN 1942.

THE FOLLOWING YEAR HE FORMED THE MCCLELLAN AIR DEPOT CLUB, WHO BECAME CHAMPIONS IN THE AMERICAN DIVISION OF THE SACRAMENTO WINTER LEAGUE. SMITH DEVELOPED PITCHER FRED EHRMANN, WHO WAS GRABBED UP BY THE SAN FRANCISCO SEALS.

SMITH ORGANIZED THE KLUMPPS CLUB IN 1944 AND PROMPTLY LED THEM TO A PENNANT THAT YEAR AND AGAIN IN 1945. IN 1946, HE ENTERED THE CLUB IN THE NEWLY FORMED SUPERIOR CALIFORNIA LEAGUE.

HE LATER MANAGED KLUMPPS RIO LINDA CLUB AND THEN FOR A 6 YEAR PERIOD, HE MANAGED MONTE CARLO IN THE WINTER LEAGUE. IN 1951 HE COACHED GLENN'S MARKET CLUB AND THEN LATER LED THE OASIS CLUB OLD TIMERS. HE WAS ALSO IDENTIFIED WITH DALE'S TIRE SHOP, CANNERY UNION AND MATTS FATHERS AND SONS CLUB. HE RETIRED AT THE END OF THE 1961 SEASON.

SMITH ALSO UMPIRED FOR SEVERAL YEARS IN THE AMERICAN A DIVISION.

KAMPOURIS

Alex played with the Reds 1934 to 1938 and then was sold to the New York Giants. He finished the 1939 season with the Giants and then was sold to the Newark club of the International League. Here again, in the minors, Alex came into his own. He collected 46 home runs in 1940, hitting home runs in every park.

In Syracuse he hit homers over the left field, center field and right field walls, an accomplishment seldom duplicated by a visiting player. With that kind of a record, they were bidding for Alex's services. This time a bid of $40,000 from the Brooklyn Dodgers brought Alex back to the majors. Alex played parts of the 1941, 1942 and 1943 seasons with the Dodgers, along with Dolph Camilli, who was the most popular ball players on the Dodger ball club. The following year he was sold to the Washington Senators, before he entered the service.

After the War Alex came back to the Solons to conclude his career where it all started. Alex later joined the County Marshal's office, retiring from that position three years ago.

PETER MITCHELL

After many years of dedication to the Christian Brothers cause, the Hall of Fame Committee, unanimously voted Peter Mitchell into the La Salle Hall of Fame.

Mitchell was no terror on the baseball diamond. He was not a ramming fullback on the football squad, but he had other attributes which made him a big leaguer.

Graduating from the Christian Brothers High School, then located at 12th and Kay Street, Peter attended college at St. ~~xxxxxxx~~ Marys which was then located on Broadway in Oakland. ~~xxxxxxx~~ After his graduation he came back to teach part time at the local high school. Additionally he became the first football coach at the school. His knowledge of the sport was acquired by Peter when ~~he~~ saw Slip Madigan in action at St. Marys.

MITCHELL

Mitchell ~~xxxx~~ entered the automotive business in the early 20's but his forensic skills aroused the local constituency to a point that he was elected to the local city council. He served in that post from 1939 to 1949.

At that point he was named as Commissioner of the California Employment Commission, serving on a full time basis. Later he was appointed to the Public Utility Commission. He served with distinction for a period of 20 years. He was reappointed to that post by Governor Goodwin J. Knight and then by Governor Edmund G. Brown. Commissioner Mitchell is the first commissioner in the history of the Public ~~Utility~~ Utility Commission to be appointed by three different Governors.
Governor Earl Warren

In November, 1953, His Holiness, Pope Pius the 12th, conferred the honor of Knight Commander of the Order, Knighthood of Saint Gregory the Great.

~~xxx~~ Peter ~~xxxxxx~~ has a ~~xxxxxxxx~~ brother, Brendan Mitchell, who is Catholic a/priest and a sister, Sister Mary Peter, who is a nun, with the Sisters of Mercy order.

Mitchell now lives in retirement in San Rafael with his wife, Marie. He has two children, a daughter, Mary Louise, and a son, Peter E. Mitchell, Jr.

Behold the bushers

La Salle honors Roseville old timer

By VINCENT F. STANICH

FOR THE first time in its 25 years of existence the La Salle Hall of Fame Committee chose a Roseville old timer. He is Dave Rodrick, now 70 years of age, who was a crafty southpaw during his 30 year career. Rodrick and seven other old timers will be inducted into the La Salle Hall of Fame next Friday evening at the Christian Brothers High School. The festivities will get under way at 6:30 p.m. with dinner served at 7:30 p.m.

Rodrick showed real promise as a pitcher when he was only 16 years of age, beginning his career in the old Placer-Nevada League. At the age of 21 he was considered good enough to receive a tryout with the San Francisco Seals when they trained at Monterey. Dave did not make it in fast company, but his services were very much in demand by all of the clubs in the semi-pro ranks.

ALTHOUGH MOST of his career was spent in the Placer Nevada League he did perform in the Sacramento Valley League, playing with Roseville, Yuba City and Woodland. He spent the balance of his career pitching for Wolf & Royer in the P-N League before retiring from active playing in 1968 when he was 50 years of age.

One of Rodrick's great pitching achievements came when he was 39 years of age back in 1946. He was chosen to pitch for the Carmichael Firemen when they went to Wichita to compete in the National Semi-Pro Tournament. Dave made a significant contribution in pitching the club to an International Championship. His son, Lt. Gene Rodrick, Placer County Sheriff's Department, also a pitcher, was a member of the same club with his dad back in 1968. Dave retired from the PG&E after working for that organization for 43 years.

M. A. MIKE PAGE, who will be 80 years of age in July, was born in Missouri. He played his high school ball in Kirkwood, Missouri, before moving to Sacramento in 1914. Page immediately began playing on the local bush front upon his arrival. The first club with whom Page was associated was the powerhouse Christian Brothers Red Sox.

Page played left field, second base and shortstop, but chiefly he was a third sacker.

Just when he began to show considerable promise in baseball he had to wait until his army commitments were over. He served 19 months overseas in World War I. When he returned in 1919, he began to perform in the Sacramento Winter League, playing with Kimball-Upsons, Marston-Newbert, Heesemans, Clark-Lobner and Thomson Diggs. In the spring league he was always associated with the Red Sox. He did play some with the Young Men's Institute under Freddie Murphy.

Page also played with several out of town clubs, namely, Vacaville, Lincoln and Weed. He hung up the spikes in 1928.

Mike was married to Mary Egan in 1920 and they are the parents of two boys, both golfers and good ones. They are Pendleton and Bryant.

EARL EBERLEIN, like Page, served in World War I, which delayed his baseball career somewhat. He did not begin to assert himself until 1923 when he was identified with Rio Linda Woodman of the World Lodge. The team was entered in the Farm Bureau League and promptly won the championship.

Earl finally managed a club in the National Division of the Sacramento Winter League in 1930, when he led the Mapes-Mordocai club.

Earl was a playing manager for that same club when they won the Orange League, winning 14 successive games. His protege, Joe Marty, batted .462 with eight homers, four triples and seven doubles. Tom Plummer and "Lefty" Rambaund were the pitchers. After he retired from active competition in 1933, Earl organized the Haggin Grant Post team in Rio Linda coaching that club for 20 years except for the 2½ years he spent in the Navy during World War II.

Eberlein served as American League Junior Baseball Commissioner for two years.

ANOTHER ONE of the Hall of Fame candidates is Joe Smith, who also served in France during World War I. While in the battle zone, Smith filled in as a catcher for a touring all-star team, who had lost their receiver who suffered a broken leg. Smith did the catching for the balance of the tour. The pitcher for the all-stars was the immortal Grover Cleveland Alexander.

Smith moved to Sacramento from Canton, Ohio in 1940 and immediately became a part of the local baseball setup.

He became player, manager for the Southern Pacific club in 1942.

The following year he formed the McClellan Air Depot club, who became champions in the American Division of the Sacramento Winter League. Smith developed pitcher Floyd Ehrmann, who was grabbed up by the San Francisco Seals.

SMITH ORGANIZED the Klumpp club in 1944 and promptly led them to a pennant that year and again in 1945. In 1946, he entered the club in the newly formed Superior California League.

He later managed Klumpp's Rio Linda club and then for a six year period, he managed Monte Carlo in the Winter League. In 1951 he coached Glenn's Market club and then later led the Oasis Club Old Timers. He was also identified with Dale's Tire Shop, Cannery Union and Matts Fathers and Sons club. He retired at the end of the 1961 season.

Smith also umpired for several years in the American A Division.

The La Salle Old Timers Night is open to the public.

The four other old timers who will be inducted into the La Salle Hall of Fame on that evening are Alex Kampouris, Dr. Alfred A. Oliver, Bill Avila and Peter Mitchell.

Behold the bushers

La Salle honors Roseville old timer

By VINCENT F. STANICH

FOR THE first time in its 25 years of existence the La Salle Hall of Fame Committee chose a Roseville old timer. He is Dave Rodrick, now 70 years of age, who was a crafty southpaw during his 30 year career. Rodrick and seven other old-timers will be inducted into the La Salle Hall of Fame next Friday evening at the Christian Brothers High School. The festivities will get under way at 6:30 p.m. with dinner served at 7:00 p.m.

Rodrick showed real promise as a pitcher when he was only 16 years of age, beginning his career in the old Placer-Nevada League. At the age of 21 he was considered good enough to receive a tryout with the San Francisco Seals when they trained at Monterey. Dave did not make it in fast company, but his services were very much in demand by all of the clubs in the semi-pro ranks.

ALTHOUGH MOST of his career was spent in the Placer Nevada League he did perform in the Sacramento Valley League, playing with Roseville, Yuba City and Woodland. He spent the balance of his career pitching for Wolf & Hoyer in the P-N League before retiring from active playing in 1958 when he was 50 years of age.

One of Rodrick's great pitching achievements came when he was 39 years of age back in 1946. He was chosen to pitch for the Carmichael Firemen when they went to Wichita to compete in the National Semi-Pro Tournament. Dave made a significant contribution in pitching the club to an International Championship. His son, Lt. Gene Rodrick, Placer County Sheriff's Department, also a pitcher, was a member of the same club with his dad back in 1958. Dave retired from the PG&E after working for that organization for 43 years.

years of age in July, was born in Missouri. He played his high school ball in Kirkwood, Missouri, before moving to Sacramento in 1914. Page immediately began playing on the local bash front upon his arrival. The first club with whom Page was associated was the powerhouse Christian Brothers Red Sox.

Page played left field, second base and shortstop, but chiefly he was a third sacker.

Just when he began to show considerable promise in baseball he had to wait until his army commitments were over. He served 19 months overseas in World War I. When he returned in 1919, he began to perform in the Sacramento Winter League, playing with Kimball-Upsons, Marston-Newbert, Heesemans, Clark-Lebner and Thomson Diggs. In the spring league he was always associated with the Red Sox. He did play some with the Young Men's Institute under Freddie Murphy.

Page also played with several out of town clubs, namely, Vacaville, Lincoln and Weed. He hung up the spikes in 1928.

Mike was married to Mary Egan in 1900 and they are the parents of two boys, both golfers and good ones. They are Pendleton and Bryant.

EARL EBERLEIN, like Page, served in World War I, which delayed his baseball career somewhat. He did not begin to assert himself until 1923 when he was identified with Rio Linda Woodman of the World Lodge. The team was entered in the Farm Bureau League and promptly won the championship.

Earl finally managed a club in the National Division of the Sacramento Winter League in 1930, when he led the Mapes-Mordecai club.

Earl was a playing manager for that same club when they won the Orange League, winning 14 successive games. His partner, Leo Moore, batted .402 with eight homers, four triples and seven doubles. Tom Plummer and "Lefty" Rambaud were the pitchers. After he retired from active competition in 1933, Earl organized the Haggin Grant Post team in Rio Linda coaching that club for 20 years except for the 2 1/2 years he spent in the Navy during World War II.

Eberlein served as American League Junior Baseball Commissioner for two years.

ANOTHER ONE of the Hall of Fame candidates is Joe Smith, who also served in France during World War I. While in the battle zone, Smith filled in as a catcher for a touring all-star team, who had lost their receiver who suffered a broken leg. Smith did the catching for the balance of the tour. The pitcher for the all-stars was the immortal Grover Cleveland Alexander.

Smith moved to Sacramento from Canton, Ohio in 1910 and immediately became a part of the local baseball setup.

He became player, manager for the Southern Pacific club in 1911.

The following year he formed the McClellan Air Depot club, who became champions in the American Division of the Sacramento Winter League. Smith developed pitcher Floyd Khrmann, who was grabbed up by the San Francisco Seals.

SMITH ORGANIZED the Klumpke club in 1944 and promptly led them to a pennant that year and again in 1945. In 1946, he entered the club in the newly formed Superior California League.

He later managed Klumpke's Rio Linda club and then for a six year period, he managed Monte Carlo in the Winter League. In 1961 he coached Glenn's Market club and then later led the Oasis Club Old Timers. He was also identified with Dale's Tire Shop, Cannery Union and Matt's Fathers and Sons club. He retired at the end of the 1961 season.

Smith also umpired for several years in the American A Division.

The La Salle Old Timers Night is open to the public.

The four other old timers who will be inducted into the La Salle Hall of Fame on that evening are Alex Kampouris, Dr. Alfred A. Oliver, Bill Avila and Peter Mitchell.