

Theme

Mr. Desmond Wins Assembly Seat
p. 7

Three Big Pages
of Sports
p. 10, 11, 12

Back Page
The Meaning of Life
p. 13

THE TALENT

Christian Brothers High School

April, 1996

Volume 119, Issue 5

Passionate

Performers Pull Off

Another Pleasing Play

Brigid Ryan

Staff Writer

Godspell, CB's latest musical, consisted of an outstanding cast with old as well as new faces. Actors returning to yet another musical included Patrice Bolton-Johnson, Miriam Boncato, Adrian Cole, Darren Davis, Karin Iniguez, Kimberly Irish, Clara Levers, Jill Marshall, and Jeff Williams. New faces included Shelly Huffman, James Snyder, and Steve Williams.

Dress Code Changes

Approved For '96 - '97 Year

Adam Nichols

News Editor

In an apparent change of heart and reversal of philosophy, the Christian Brothers High School Administration has abolished the school dress code. Citing numerous student complaints that the dress code is "stupid, tyrannical and dictatorial," the of the students, and the image of the school suffers."

The instant reaction among the students was one of mixed support. Said freshman Janey Dough, "I think our dress code at the present time is rather proper and quaint. Those filthy ruffians complaining about the code just don't have anything better to do with themselves." Junior John Dow,

Opinion
Patriots a rarity
in America
p. 3

Senior Pull-Out A section by and for seniors
middle section

Sports
Varsity girls' soccer
earns TOC spot
p. 6

THE TALION

Christian Brothers High School

May, 1996

Volume 119, Issue 6

La Salle, Art & Kondos

Adam Oren
Staff Writer

In the CB community, creativity has never stopped being a top priority. From colorfully decorated liturgies to bold senior walls, the art department has always been an important element on campus. Although CB student artwork is not always visible, many of the schools' best works were shown off at the annual La Salle Art Exhibition. This year's event was held on May 16

New Classes Abound for '97

Brigid Ryan
Staff Writer

As the end of yet another school year arrives, many of us are thinking how wonderful it will be to take our final step off campus while others are wondering, "What will change with the school and classes?" Well, here is the inside scoop on classes and the schedule for next year. This includes eight new classes, which will be added to the already existing ones.