Homecoming Dance
October 24, 2009

On a beautiful night in October, set with a full moon and the Sacramento skyline glowing, students gathered on campus to celebrate the tradition known as Homecoming. The school quickly filled up with over a thousand students, all dressed to impress. While freshmen were wide eyed and eager to experience their first high school Homecoming, the seniors were ready to dance the night away and took over the dance floor. Excited to celebrate his last homecoming, senior Ryan Kinlock exclaimed, "This was the perfect way to start my last year here!"

Students rushed to check away their bags and take their pictures, because everyone knows three hours of dancing just is never enough time. The gym was packed with students. During the slow dances all students left room for the Holy Spirit, and the popular dance songs proved that Christian Brothers can break it down, old school. By the end of the night all awkwardness between dates seemed to be nonexistent, and students with their hands up in the air consumed the dance floor. Homecoming was a major success.

There's no stopping us on the dance floor.

Senior Snow Day

We've Been Dreaming of a White Christmas

Seniors Carly Ayres and Jessica Shakely enjoy the snow in Sacramento, remembering white Christmas mornings of old times.

Seniors Chis Kunz and Steven Fenaroli engage in some classic Greco-Roman wrestling on the snow ridden grounds of Christian Brothers High

The 1st Annual Snow War begins when a senior baseball player throws a two seam fastball at a poor freshman. Don't worry freshmen, it will be your turn soon.

The select group of snow retrieving seniors poses for a photo on top of their man-made winter wonderland.

 baby! We prayed so hard and God not only answered our prayers but gave us the most beautiful and unique human being ever! Our families all agreed, especially your grandparents, that with your red hair and green eyes you are especially blessed. It has been a wonder and a joy, a comedy and sometimes even a challenge but always a loving experience to help and watch you grow into a lovely intelligent and witty woman.
 We love and adore you and are so incredibly proud of you that it's overwhelming to us.
 Now is when your life really gets fun and adventurous!
 We can't wait to read and share in these next chapters in your life Alex!

 ALWAYS!

Kayla White

We like to recall that your first words after mama and dada were
 'thank you' and 'please.'
 As you leave the security of your home and venture into the unknown of college and adulthood know that we are incredibly proud of you and love
 you!
 Dad, Mom, Jared, Brendon and Melissa

Matthew Wilson

Dear Rachael - We are so very proud of you. In your 17 years you have conquered challenges most will never face. Surely you can look forward to a long life of happiness and nachos on the beach. We love you - Mom, Dad, and Ryan

Rachael Wilson

Julian - Being a part of your life has made us more than proud. Our dapper 'little man' had style from the beginning. Little did we know that this stylishness would become your hallmark, and we would just be spectators at this early dress rehearsal towards your adulthood. We love you - Mom, Dad and Courtney

Julian Winters

Jonathan - We are so proud of you! It has been a joy watching you grow, learn, and play! Enjoy college and know that we are always there for you!
Love - Mom & Dad

Congratulations on a job well done!
Enjoy and share your wonderful and warm enthusiasm for life.
Keep setting goals for yourself, your determination will take you anywhere you want to go and
wherever you go,
you have all our love, always!
Dad, Nicole,
Evan & Julia

Branden Brousseau

Nico-I hope these pictures don't embarrass you. You were a cute bumble bee and are now a smart, interesting and funny young man. I hope you will have fond memories of your high school years.
Love-Mom

Nico Chavez

Congratulations

Our Songs

Should I give up,
Or should I just keep
chasing perfection?
Even if it leads nowhere,
Or would it be a waste?
Even if I know my place should I leave it there?
Should I give up,
Or should I just keep
chasing perfection?
Even if it leads nowhere...

Oh, how my problems
Thought, tonight
I'll be on the outside
Think back on the past
But the pain is gone
I'm...
I'm...
I'm...

Something in the way
she moves Attracts me like no
other lover
Something in the way
she kisses me
I don't want to leave her now, I'm... I believe in love

I'll be up to the sky
up up and away
but they got judge me anyway so whatever
I'll be up to the sky
up up and away
but they got judge me anyway so whatever

We only got 86,400 seconds in a day to turn it all around or throw it all away
We gotta tell 'em
that we love 'em
While we got the chance to say Gotta live like we're dying

IMMA BE, IMMA
BE - IMMA
IMMA IMMA BE IMMA BE, IMMA
BE - IMMA
IMMA IMMA BE

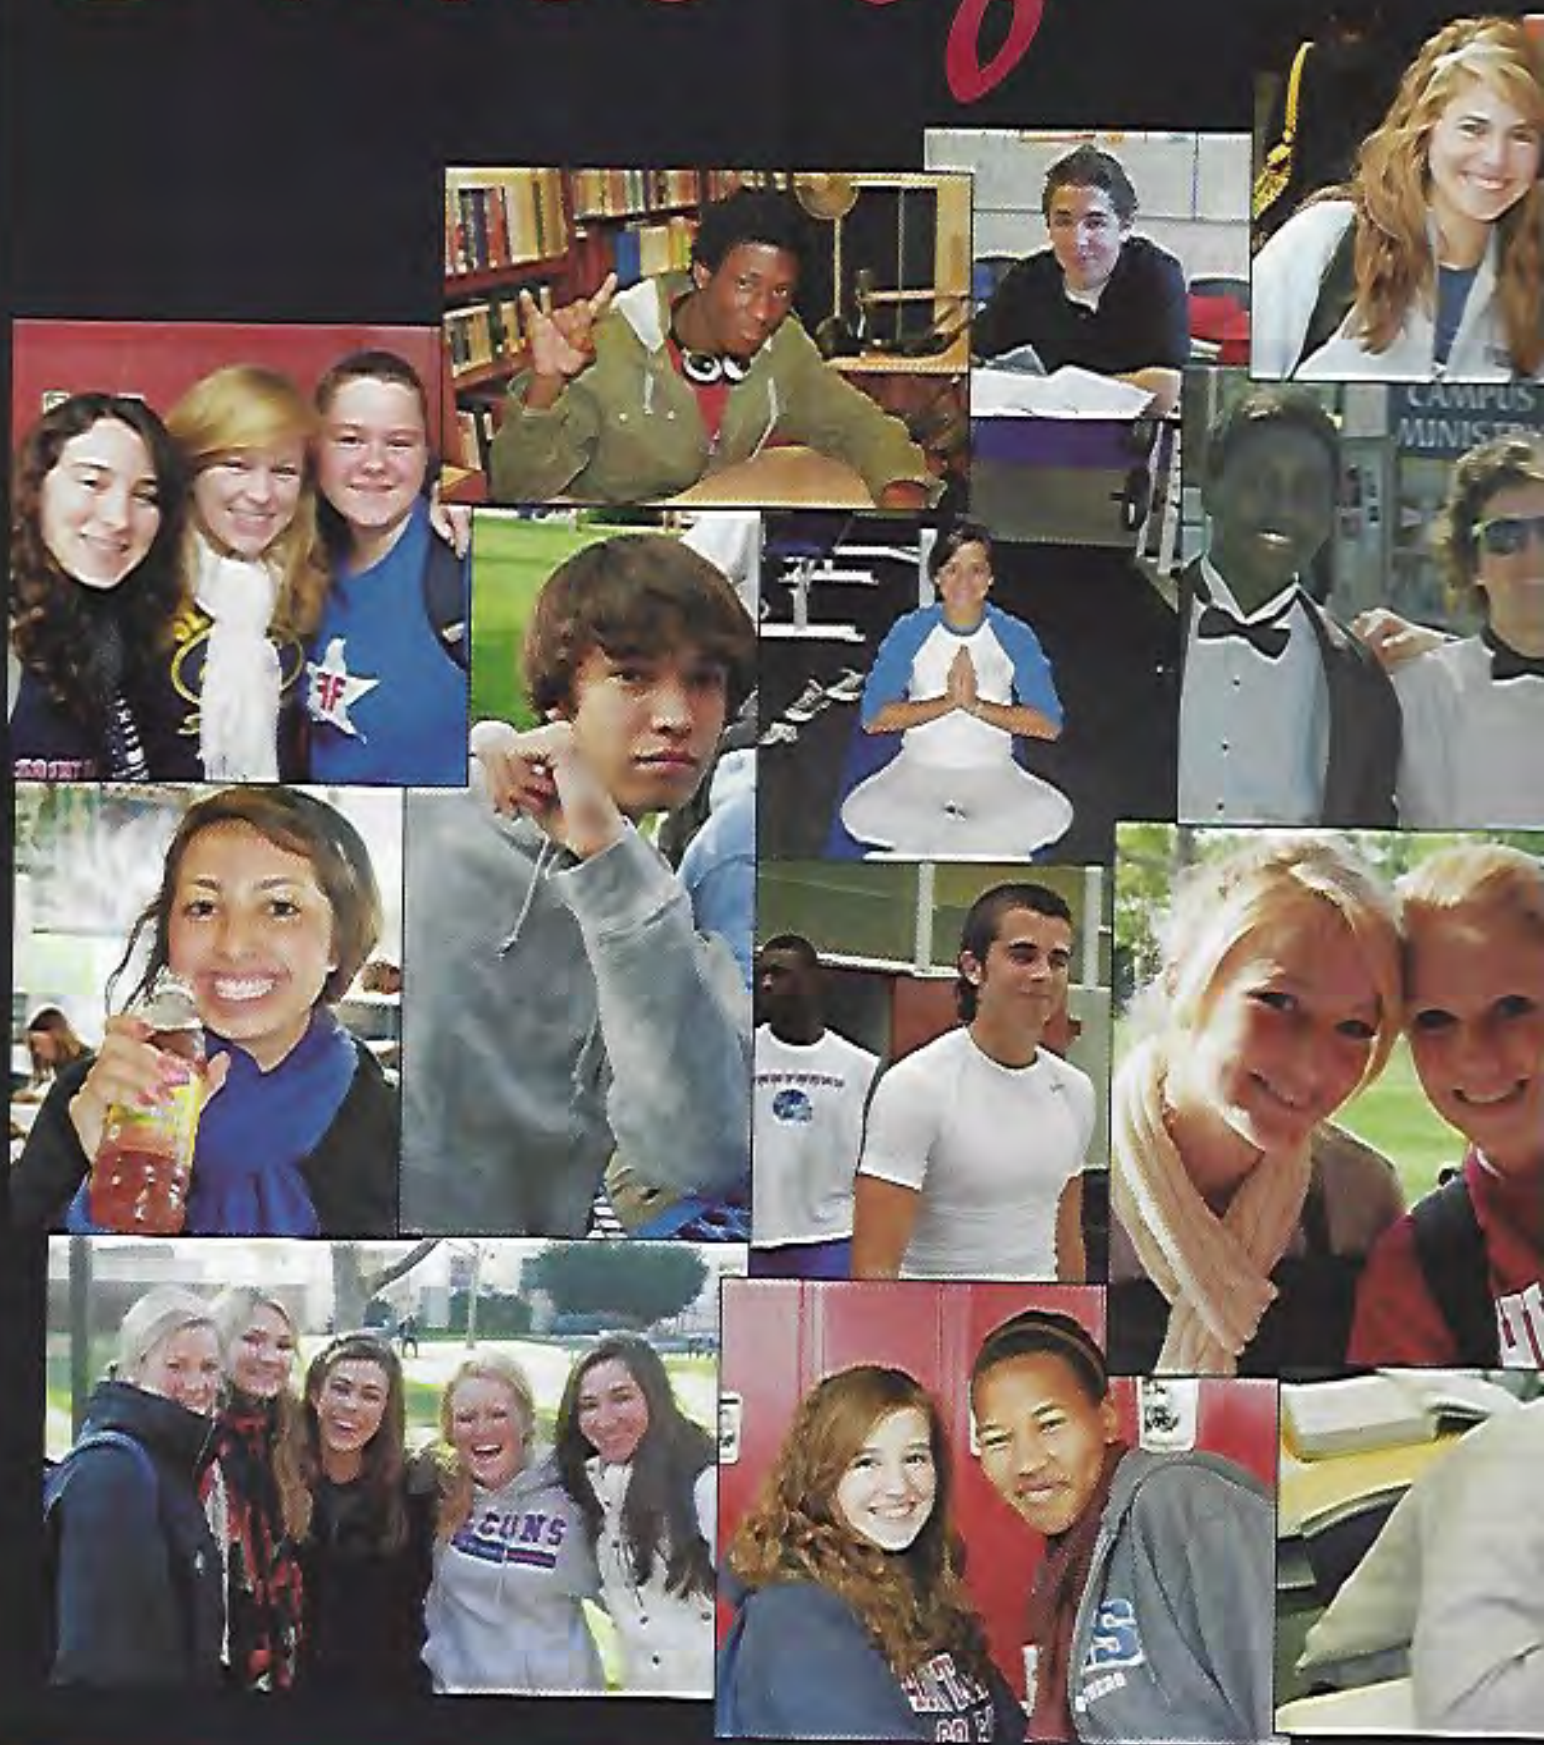

Re ya, ah ah ah
Roma, roma-ma
CaCa, oh la-la
Want your bad romance
I want your love and
I want your revenge
You and me could write a bad romance

But she wears short skirts, I wear T-shirts Shes cheer captain and I'm on the bleachers Dreaming about the day
When you wake up and find what you're looking for has been here the whole time

So many adventures couldn't happen today
So many songs
we forgot to play
So many dreams are swinging out of the blue
We let them come true Forever young, I want to be forever young Do you really want to live forever, forever and ever

Time grabs you by the wrist directs you where to go So make the best of this test
and don't ask why
It's not a question
But a lesson learned in time It's something unpredictable
But in the end is right
I hope you had the time of your life

Fifteen

Made Famous by Taylor Swift

You take a deep breath
And you walk through the doors
It's the mornin' of your very first day
You say hi to your friends you ain't seen in a while
And try to stay out of everybody's way

Cuz when you're fifteen, somebody
tells you they love you
You're gonna believe them
And when you're fifteen
Feelin' like there's nothin' to figure out

And then you're on your very first date, And he's got a car
And you're feelin like flyin
And you're momma's waitin up
And you're thinkin he's the one And you're dancin around the room
when the night ends
When the night ends

Cuz when you're fifteen, somebody
tells you they love you
You're gonna believe them
And when you're fifteen
And your first kiss makes your head spin around

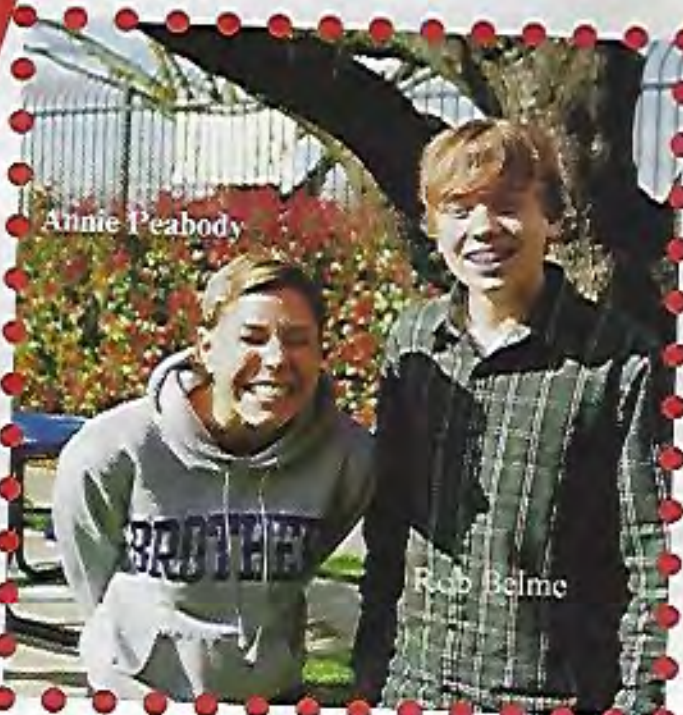

It's your freshman year
And you're gonna be here for the next 4 years
In this town
Hopin' one of those Senior boys Will wink at you and say 'I haven't seen you around before'

6. "Graduation!" (Ms. Chiapa)
7. "Drama, I was a theater nerd." (Ms. Shackel)
8. "A safe place to be" (Mr. McClure)
9. "My friends." (Mr. Elberson)
10. "Hanging out with my friends." (Ms. Bowers)

Quality Education Begins With Reading

"We read Shakespeare, Steinbeck, Poe, Homer, and many other classics throughout our school career. We also learn how to analyze and interpret literature, as well as how to write quality essays."

"Stories are for eternity, when memory is erased, when there is nothing to remember but the story."

S C H O L A R S

Students on the Scholar Path take a rigorous academic curriculum and maintain at least a 3.5 GPA. A Scholar esteems academics, is self-disciplined, exhibits leadership skills, and demonstrates service to others. These students are rewarded with enrichment, retreat, field trip, and travel opportunities.

Let's Hit The Club!

AP CLASSES

To maximize the likelihood of successfully completing these courses, students must evidence strong academic skills, high test scores, consistency of performance and self discipline.

AP classes are designed to prepare students for the AP exam. Students who do well on the AP exam may qualify for college credit upon entrance at participating colleges.

Our cheerleaders rev up the crowd with their impressive stunts

HOLY BOWL

Our Varsity Falcons dominated Jesuit in a decisive win, with a final score of 21-6. This was the first varsity victory since 2001 and our boys and their coaches could not be happier about finally ending our seven game losing streak.

Team tell you right now that we did it for the alumni, for all the people thinking about coming to Christian Brothers, and for all those people sitting in the stands. We also did it for our team, for coming out with pride and ready to play.

Michael 'Buddy' Lahey, Senior and Varsity Team Captain

Our JV fought hard against the Marauders as well but unfortunately, came up short with a final score of 20-35. However, our Fresh ended up on top with a final score of 24-7 in their first ever Holy Bowl, showing great potential for the years to come. Great job to all of our teams! This year was definitely OUR YEAR.

XXXXIX

The Falcon Force, led by our student body president, Andrew Florita, represented Christian Brothers in a manner unparalleled to any generation of Christian Brother's students. The crowd cheered loud and proud for our boys, intimidating Jesuit's Galley Crew with 'the rollercoaster' and many more invigorating cheers. As the Varsity game drew to a close, our sea of blue stormed the field with paramount excitement, sharing in the team's joy. Thanks for the support and keep it up!
WE BLEED RED AND BLUE.

WE LOVE YOU BEN AND STEPHANIE - NAKED BAPTISM TIME

February 2010

Valentine's Day

*Love, Love, Love,
Love, Love, Love,
Love, Love, Love.*

All you need is Love

There's nothing you can do that can't be done.
Nothing you can sing that can't be sung.
Nothing you can say
but you can learn how to play the game It's easy.

There's nothing you can make that can't be made.
No one you can save that can't be saved.
Nothing you can do
but you can learn how to be you in time - It's easy.

Looks like young love. You better watch out ladies. Christopher Wallace is no longer single, XOXO

I LOVE US

Best friends can have a great Valentine's day together as well! You go boys!

Presenting a true Italian deli and gourmet meat market, Sampino's brings back a slice of the old life to the Midtown-Downtown core. On 16th and F Streets, inside the shopping strip, the Sampino family has revitalized the largest corner with the legend of a true Sacramento butcher, Bill Sampino. After working as a meat-cutter/meat department manager for Corti Brothers and then managing the meat department at David Berkley (1971-2005), demonstrating meat-cutting techniques for Biba Caggiano (before she wrote her first cookbook), teaching at William Glen, and consultant to Davis Natural Foods Co-op, Bill, his son Michael, and daughter-in-law Gaby have struck out on their own to offer something new to the marketplace - The Affordable Gourmet!

SLIPPERY SLOPE
Nearly 16 million Americans lost their jobs in the wake of the recession. The increased wave of lay-offs put the national unemployment rate at 10.2%, the highest in over 26 years. Although the economy began to rebound from the worst recession in 70 years, employers continued to be wary.

The Statue of Liberty can have up to 15,000 visitors per day.

BALLOON HOAX

Millions watched as a large metallic balloon, said to be carrying a 6-year-old boy, soared through the air in Colorado. When it landed and "balloon boy" Falcon Heene was not inside, the world was relieved to learn he had been hiding in the attic the entire time. Three days later, after a telling interview, the whole spectacle was deemed a hoax in the parents' pursuit of fame and fortune. The parents pled guilty to criminal charges and received jail time.

FORT HOOD TRAGEDY

On November 5, 2009, Fort Hood, America's largest military base, transformed from a place where soldiers prepare for war to an actual battlefield. Major Michael Blake Hassan, a licensed military psychiatrist, opened fire in the processing center where soldiers report before deployment. Twelve soldiers and one civilian lost their lives, while 30 others were injured, including Hassan. In the past, Hassan had been openly critical about the war on terror.

LIBERTY REOPENS

On July 4th one of the nation's most recognizable symbols of freedom, the Statue of Liberty, reopened its crown to visitors. After the September 11th attacks, the monument was closed to all visitors until 2004 when the base and lower observation decks were reopened. Guests will be allowed to make the 168 stair climb to the top for the next two years, when the crown will close again for safety work.

CLUNKERS MAKE SOME NOISE

For nearly a month in the summer of 2009 America was consumed by CARS (Car Allowance Rebate System), commonly known as Cash for Clunkers. The government program was designed to encourage drivers to trade in old gas guzzlers in favor of new, fuel efficient vehicles. With an incentive of up to $4,500, the program was wildly successful and nearly 700,000 cars were traded in.

A MUSIC ICON REMEMBERED

Legendary performer Michael Jackson passed away suddenly at the age of 50. As news spread of his death, the internet suffered a significant slowdown as people worldwide conducted simultaneous searches. Jackson was also nominated for five American Music Awards in 2009, including Artist of the Year, after his music saw a tremendous surge in sales and airplay. As a final tribute, Sony Pictures released This Is It. The never-before-seen footage of Jackson rehearsing for his final 50 shows was a massive success, making millions.

ALL A BUZZ

Kavya Shivashankar, a 13-year-old from Kansas, won the Scripps National Spelling Bee. A four-time competitor and aspiring neurosurgeon, Kavya won the trophy and more than $40,000 in cash and prizes with her correct spelling of "lambdoid" — many knew it or indifferent to judges in public.

NUCLEAR TEST

North Korea conducted a series of rocket and missile tests, including an underground nuclear bomb test in an attempt to lure the U.S. into talks to loosen sanctions. The international community was outraged, stating that the test was in clear violation of international law. In 2008, North Korea agreed to suspend its nuclear testing in exchange for economic stimulus, but the deal fell through after it removed inspectors from the country.

CATASTROPHIC QUAKE

The island nation of Haiti was struck by a devastating 7.0 magnitude earthquake so strong it could be felt nearly 200 miles away. The damaged capital city left millions seeking shelter and medical attention and Haiti's government officials estimated over 131,000 people lost their lives. Humanitarian organizations such as the Red Cross set up aid and relief efforts while streaming donations by allowing individuals to text message pledges. Within days, over $355 million in donations had been raised through the combined efforts of companies, charities and individuals.

OPRAH MOVES ON

Popular syndicated talk show host and business tycoon Oprah Winfrey announced she would end The Oprah Winfrey Show in late summer 2011. The news came as a shock to fans that have elevated her status to nothing short of an icon since the show's inception in 1986. Early speculation indicated she may start a new show on her own Oprah Winfrey Network in 2011. The show currently draws about 7 million viewers a day.

IRANIAN ELECTION PROTESTS

Iran's presidential election drew international attention when disputes over the winner sparked two weeks of protests. Reformist activists claimed Mahmoud Ahmadinejad's landslide win was a fraud (after miscounting of the ballots). The protests resulted in 20 fatalities, numerous arrests and trials for nearly 100 demonstrators facing charges such as attacking government property, violence toward security forces and creating panic in public.

H1N1 FLU OUTBREAK

In the spring of 2009, H1N1 emerged with the first reported cases in Mexico. The virus reached the United States in April and officials worried the flu would spread rapidly, causing a global pandemic and fear that the unpredictable flu virus could mutate into a more dangerous strain. In the fall, President Obama declared it a federal emergency, enabling the government to provide more aid to the states. In the U.S., plans, millions of people were infected and thousands lost their lives. When a vaccine became available in the fall, thousands flooded phone lines and clinics around the country, as the demand greatly outnumbered the first supply.

SONIA SUPREME

With a vote of 68-31, Sonia Sotomayor became the first Hispanic person to become a Supreme Court Justice and just the third woman of all time. Sotomayor was appointed to the Supreme Court with 27 years of federal experience, having tried over 3,600 cases.

TOYOTA TROUBLES

Automobile giant Toyota recalled eight of its models after learning of a problem with its acceleration mechanisms that caused some gas pedals to stick and vehicles to accelerate without warning. Though the company said the problem is "rare and infrequent," it decided to recall about 4.2 million vehicles worldwide and brought U.S. sales and production to a halt. The company tried to remedy the situation and ease the nerves of uncertain drivers by sending new parts to dealers to fix the faulty pedals.

HEALTH CARE HURDLES

In groundbreaking sessions of Congress, both the House and Senate passed bills for health care reform after months of debate. The next step was to merge the nearly $1 trillion proposed plans for a final vote. If passed, the bill would become the largest federal health care expansion in forty years since the introduction of Medicare and Medicaid. The goal of the bill is to bring extended insurance coverage to an additional 30 million Americans.

ARES BLASTS OFF

Forty years after putting the first man on the moon, NASA is once again elevating its space program with the new Ares I-X Rocket. The streamline rocket's simpler design is cheaper and up to 10 times safer than its shuttle predecessors. Despite a successful first test in late October, officials say that the 1-X may not carry astronauts until 2017.

SURPRISE PRIZE

A surprise to many, the Norwegian Nobel Committee honored President Barack Obama with the 2009 Nobel Peace Prize, just eight months into his tenure. The committee explained it was Obama's "extraordinary efforts to strengthen international diplomacy and cooperation between peoples" that brought his name to the top of the nominees list. Upon learning the news, the president remarked that he was humbled by the decision.

SHIFTING FRONTLINES

President Obama announced the deployment of 30,000 additional American troops to Afghanistan starting in early 2010, bringing the total U.S. presence to about 100,000 troops. The intended strategy was to combat the growing momentum of the Taliban in the region and to provide training for Afghan security forces. Plans to begin withdrawing troops were set for 2011.

DUBAI IN THE SKY

Marking a stunning architectural achievement, the Burj Khalifa in Dubai opened, becoming the tallest skyscraper in the world. The lowering needle-shaped structure stretches nearly 2,700 feet into the air. The building has 160 stories which include apartments, office space and a hotel designed by Giorgio Armani. The eye-catching main attraction of a new shopping district, the Burj Khalifa reportedly cost $1.5 billion to build.

FOUND 18 YEARS LATER

The discovery of Jaycee Dugard 18 years after her disappearance renewed hope for families of missing children. When Dugard was 11 years old she was abducted by Philip Garrido while walking to her school bus. Jaycee was held captive in Garrido's backyard. Both Garrido and his wife face multiple charges, including kidnapping and false imprisonment. Jaycee has since reunited with her family.

Headline News

MAD FOR iPad

Apple unveiled its highly anticipated iPad this year to mixed reviews. Many Apple devotees were excited about the tablet with its nearly 10-inch touch screen and 3G connection, while others were skeptical about the nominal data plan. As part of the iPad, Apple also released the iBook, an application that allows users to see books on a shelf, change fonts, and touch the screen to turn pages.

The Sweetharts® brand is 145 years old.

BE MINE

Sweetharts®, the popular Valentine's Day treat, added a new phrase to its line of wedding candy love messages. Teaming up with the social network, Twitter, the candy company started stamping "Tweet Me" on its heart-shaped candies. Sweetharts also plans to introduce a new iPhone app that would allow users to send electronic versions of the candy with personalized messages to friends' Twitter pages.

PALIN RESIGNS

Alaskan Governor and 2008 Republican Vice Presidential candidate Sarah Palin resigned from office, saying that Leeless of Governor Sean Parnell would "fight even harder" for Alaskans. Palin added that her decision was made to protect her family from further criticism and would also allow her to advocate for causes such as energy independence and national security. In January 2010, it was announced that Palin would join Fox News as a contributor.

ELECTRONIC TEXT BOOKS

College students caught a break this year—with free text books. Flat World Knowledge allowed 40,000 students at over 400 colleges and universities to access their course materials online, for free, saving students nearly $3 million in the fall semester alone. With other options like print on demand and integrated audio and video, the company hopes to expand its offerings to other schools throughout the country.

GOODBYE GOOD MORNING AMERICA

In a tearful farewell, Diane Sawyer said "goodbye" to Good Morning America and "hello" to ABC's World News Afternoon. After more than 10 years on the weekday morning show, Sawyer replaced the retiring Charles Oleson as the anchor of the nightly news program. Sawyer's replacement was George Stephanopoulos, former President Clinton staff member and moderator of This Week on ABC.

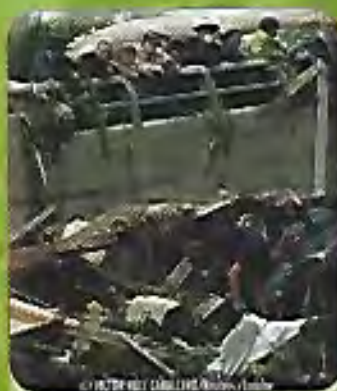

FALL OF THE WALL REMEMBERED

Twenty years ago the Berlin Wall fell, marking the end of the Cold War and the divide between East and West Germany. To celebrate the anniversary, thousands of German citizens celebrated as 1,000 towers, all 8 feet tall, were toppled to symbolize the destruction of the dividing wall. The celebration was overseen by current German Chancellor Angela Merkel and former Russian leader Mikhail Gorbachev, who many hold responsible for reforming the former Soviet Union.

FRIGHTENING FLIGHT

On Christmas Day 2009, a Nigerian man attempted to blow up a flight carrying nearly 300 passengers from Amsterdam to Detroit, Michigan. Umar Farouk Abdulmutallab had a bomb sewn into his undergarments and tried unsuccessfully to detonate the device as the plane made its final descent. Stringent security precautions were put into effect and President Obama ordered a thorough review of safety regulations. Al Qaeda later claimed responsibility for the terrorist act.

LINKING LANGUAGES

Historically, URLs have been constructed with Latin-based characters like 1, 2, 3 and A, B, C. Now, after approval by the International Corporation for Assigned Names and Numbers (ICANN), domain names will appear with other characters from Arabic and Chinese languages. The chairman of ICANN, Peter Dengate Thrush said, "The coming introduction of non-Latin characters represents the biggest technical change to the Internet since it was created four decades ago."

NYC FLYOVER

Workers in Manhattan, New York were panicked as a Boeing 747 and an B-74 aircraft circled the Statue of Liberty, causing many to fear a repeat of the 9/11 attacks. It was later discovered that the planes were official government aircraft conducting a photo shoot. The official who approved the fly-over later resigned.

ON SHAKY GROUND

The South American country of Chile was the target of an 8.8 magnitude earthquake that destroyed many villages in its path. The next day the same south-central region of the country was struck again by a tsunami that created waves over 18 feet high. Approximately 800 people lost their lives and the destruction between the two natural disasters brought widespread shortages in food.

IRANIAN ELECTION PROTESTS

Iran's presidential election drew international attention when disputes over the winner sparked two weeks of protests. Reformist activists claimed Mahmoud Ahmadinejad's landslide win was a fraudulent misreading of the ballots. The protests resulted in 20 fatalities, numerous arrests and trials for nearly 100 demonstrators facing charges such as attacking government property, violence toward security forces and creating panic in public.

HOUSE PARTY CRASHED

Virginia couple Terri and Michele Solari, crashed the first state dinner held by the Obama's. Passing two security check-points, the couple mingled with Vice President Joe Biden and Chief of Staff Rahm Emanuel before exiting two hours later. The breach of security caused a full investigation by the Secret Service. Months later, speculation turned to White House social secretary Desiree Rogers who was criticized for not keeping a checklist of attendees as they entered the event. Rogers later resigned.

GOOGLE CHINA

After a sophisticated cyber attack rooted in China, Google announced it would no longer censor search results on Google.cn, the Chinese version of the popular search engine. The Chinese government requires censorship of search results and websites to prevent security and state secrets from being jeopardized. China has the largest population of internet users in the world.

FDA TAKES ON TOBACCO

The Family Smoking Prevention and Tobacco Control Act gave the FDA more power to control the tobacco industry. Under the new legislation, tobacco companies were no longer allowed to use words like "mild" or "low tar" and were also prohibited from selling candy or fruit flavored cigarettes.

Tobacco related illnesses account for more than $100 billion in health care costs annually.

LATE NIGHT SHUFFLE

After 17 years, Night Show host Jay Leno passed the torch to fellow NBC late-night personality Conan O'Brien—but not for long. The Night Show lost millions of viewers and Leno's now self-titled primetime show was deemed a flop. Just seven months after giving O'Brien the Night Show, NBC reversed course, returning Leno to his former seat. As part of the deal, NBC agreed to pay Conan $23 million, with $12 million going to his staff in severance. O'Brien hosted his last show on January 22nd, while Leno returned to The Tonight Show on March 1st.

AIR FRANCE

An Air France Airbus Flight AF 447 flying from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil to Paris, France crashed into the Atlantic Ocean. None of the 228 people on board survived. Despite initial reports, the plane hit the water vertically, instead of breaking apart in mid-air. The crash was the worst in Air France's 75-year history.

DANGERS OF FAST FOOD

For two years, John Morley, a 50-year-old North Carolina man, complained of severe coughing, pneumonia, and vomiting. When doctors used a tiny camera to investigate his lungs they were shocked to find the cause—a piece of plastic. The plastic was removed and traced back to a spoon from fast-food chain Wendy's after doctors recognized the company's logo.

THE NEXT AMERICAN IDOL JUDGE

After eight seasons, American Idol judge Paula Abdul left the show. Emmy award-winning talk show host and comedian Ellen DeGeneres filled the seat and began judging duties when the show returned for its ninth season. Shortly after the show's return another Idol judge, Simon Cowell announced his intended split at the end of the season. It was reported that Cowell planned to develop a new talent show series based on the popular U.K. series, The X Factor.

PIRATES HOLD CAPTIVE

After five days of being held hostage on the dangerous seas off the coast of Somalia, Captain Richard Phillips was rescued from his pirate captives. In a tired moment, the pirates let down their guards long enough for U.S. Navy SEAL marines to take their shots, ending the lives of all three pirates. Days earlier, Phillips offered himself as a captive to the pirates in order to prevent them from seizing his vessel, the Maersk Alabama, ultimately protecting his fellow crewmen.

Science & Discoveries

AERODYNAMIC SEEDS

"Helicopter seeds," the seeds from maple trees, have provided hours of fun for children but researchers were stumped as to what made the seeds hover. A team of Dutch and American scientists discovered the answer: When a maple seed swirls, a torus-like vortex lowers the air pressure around the seed, sucking the wings upward to oppose gravity—insects, bats, and hummingbirds employ the same technique.

IN HOT WATER

Ocean temperatures around the world measured 1 degree higher than normal between June and August, averaging 62.5°, according to the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration. August saw the warmest temps on record since 1880, when record keeping began. Though climate change is listed as a factor, meteorologists say the warming is also due in part to a natural El Niño system. Ocean heat puts coral reefs in harm's way and also contributes to making Arctic sea ice a real hurricane strength.

A FARMER'S FRIEND

Even plants have joined in the text-messaging crowd. Through SmartCrop™ infrared thermometers planted in soil, plants can "tell" farmers when they are hot or thirsty. Most crops have an ideal temperature for growth and these thermometers allow farmers to be notified by text message if a plant has risen above the ideal temp.

GROWTH SPURT

The bristlecone pine is the world's longest-lived tree, sustaining ages up to 4,800 years. Recently, researchers found that these ancient trees are growing at a much faster rate than ever before as evident by its widening rings. The growth is presumably due to the increase in temperature in their high-altitude climate over the past 50 years.

POO POWER PAYOFF

In response to rising energy costs year-after-year, Shawn Saylor tapped to an unlikely renewable source to power his family's dairy farm. Using the manure from 600 cows, Saylor used a process known as anaerobic digestion to generate energy. Saylor explained that this method produces a savings of about $200,000 per year with the ability to sell left over energy back to the power company.

TINY T-REX

History's fearsome Tyrannosaurus Rex may have had miniature ancestors. A newly discovered ancient creature known as "Raptorax" closely resembles its massive relative, at only a fraction of the size. Experts report it may have weighed only 150 pounds compared to T-Rex's 15,000 pounds. Raptorax would have existed 60 million years before T-Rex, and despite its size, would have hunted an extremely powerful bite.

LET'S GO FLY A KITE

Scientists from the University of California and the Carnegie Institution have discovered a way to create sustainable energy—through kites. High altitude winds contain a vast amount of energy. By releasing kite-like wind turbines miles above the planet and tethering them to the ground, researchers believe they could create enough energy to supply electricity worldwide.

COOLING SUN

Scientists have discovered that the sun is at its dimmest in over 100 years. Typically, the sun undergoes 11 year cycles, culminating in the eruption of solar flares and planet-sized debris. After 2003 the sun was expected to become increasingly hotter, but instead it was at a 50-year low for solar pressure and a 100-year low for sunspot activity. Although dimming of the sun has resulted in decreased temperatures in the past, the onset of global warming has likely counteracted this phenomenon.

COLOSSAL SEA MONSTER

The fossilized skull of an ancient sea monster called a plesiosaur was discovered along the Jurassic Coast of England. The skull—dating back 150 million years—measured nearly eight feet. Scientists believe the creature's full size was up to 52 feet long, making it the biggest plesiosaur ever found. The dangerous sea predator could have eaten a T-Rex for breakfast!

SOLAR ENERGY MAKEOVER

Developers have found two ways to make solar power panels more appealing to the average homeowner: first, underground panels use fiber optic cables to capture and distribute sun energy, instead of heavy panels. The second option is to incorporate shingle-like solar panels that have a thin copper film covering to absorb light energy into the roof. The Powerhouse™ Solar Shingle is expected to be less expensive and easier to install than full-size panels.

CARBON CAPTURE

Professor Klaus Lackner of Columbia University has created a "synthetic tree" able to capture destructive carbon dioxide 1,000 times better than real trees. When the wind blows through the "leaves", carbon is trapped and converted to a liquid form. One unit could remove up to a ton of carbon dioxide from the atmosphere a day—the equivalent of 20 cars.

CAT EARNS DIPLOMA

Oreo has always been a smart cat but did she really earn a diploma? Better Business Bureau Georgia president and CEO, Kevin Collins, enrolled his cat Oreo into Jefferson High School Online as part of an investigation into online diploma mills. After a test and $200 fee, Oreo was the proud recipient of her high school diploma, though Collins admits he may have helped her answer the questions.

LITTLE FASHIONISTA

While most 13-year-olds are consumed by algebra, Jovi Gevison had a different focus: high fashion. The teenager from the suburbs of Chicago shut to fame when her blog, Style Rookie, was discovered by two big name designers. Soon she was seated in the exclusive front row at several New York fashion Week shows, impressing the industry with her poise and sharp eye.

IT'S A BIRD, IT'S A PLANE

Japanese engineer Takao Joda captured the Guinness World Record for longest flight by a paper airplane. The plane, measuring 10 cm long and crafted from a regular sheet of folded paper stayed in the air for an astonishing 27.3 seconds. Joda now has his eyes on an even greater prize—launching a paper airplane from space!

LOOKING GOOD!

No ordinary doll, Barbie has held over 700 jobs including three runs at the presidency. This year the iconic children's toy celebrated her 50th birthday... and looks better than ever! Since her introduction in 1959, over one billion Barbie dolls have been sold worldwide with no signs of stopping. 100 million dolls were sold in the past year alone.

Americans eat an estimated 20 billion hot dogs each year. That's nearly 70 hot dogs per person!

HOT DOG ACE

After setting an astonishing 68 hot dogs in 10 minutes, Joey Chestnut retained his title in the annual Nathan's Famous Fourth of July International Hot Dog Eating Contest, held at Coney Island in New York. Chestnut edged out long-time rival Takeru Kobayashi by three and a half franks to take the title for the third straight year.

YES CAPTAIN!

A federal judge dismissed a lawsuit filed by a consumer claiming to have been deceived by the cereal, Cap'n Crunch. After learning that Crunchberries were not real fruit and indeed sugar, the consumer sued, seeking damages for false nutritional messaging.

LOST AND FOUND

Sixty-three years after losing his wallet at a high school basketball game, Bill Fulton received a surprising knock on the door. Remarkably, his wallet, which still included his social security card, was returned after being recovered during the gym's renovation. Having sent his children through the same school, it's likely Bill came within feet of the missing wallet several times since his 1946 disappearance.

Say What?!

The odds of winning the lottery twice are nearly 1 in 50 trillion.

CUPCAKE FOR THE CURE

The world's largest cupcake record was made eight times over by a mammoth 224-pound triple vanilla cupcake containing an estimated 2 million calories. The party took over 12 hours to bake and included 800 eggs and 200 pounds each of sugar and flour. The cupcake was served to raise money for the Susan G. Komen for the Cure breast cancer organization.

SKINNY SCARE

Despite being a popular fashion trend for years, skinny jeans could be causing nerve damage. Doctors reported seeing an increase of young women complaining of tingling or numbness in the upper legs, supposedly caused by the trendy pants. Diagnosed as a form of nerve damage, moraic neuropathy is usually not permanent and the effects can be reversed by trading in the tight-fitting jeans for a looser alternative.

TERRIFYING TOILET TALES

Japanese author Koji Suzuki penned a horror story like the one that inspired Hollywood movie, The Ring, created a story to be printed on rolls of toilet paper. The nine-chapter story is set in a public restroom and can be read in just a few minutes. At approximately three feet long, each roll contains several copies, each can be read in one sitting.

FASTEST TEXTER

Kate Moore, 15, amazed onlookers as she won the title of National Texting Champion, beating out more than 250,000 participants to win the grand prize of $50,000. Moore, who averages 14,000 texts a month, completed the winning phrase "Zippity Dooz Dah Zippity Ayy ... My oh MY, what a wonderful day! Plenty of sunshine Comin' my way Zippity Dooz Dah Zippity Ayy! Wonderful feeling. Wonderful day!" with no errors in less than 60 seconds.

DAILY DOUBLE

Sean Sanders, an unemployed mortgage worker played the odds and won... twice! After winning $1,400 in the California Lottery, he checked his Mega Millions lottery ticket and realized he'd won an additional $141,519. Sanders reported that he plans to pay off his bills and invest what remains.

WHATEVER!

In a survey conducted by the Moris Institute for Public Opinion, "whatever" was found to be the most annoying word in America. With 47% of the vote, the popular word of disdain beat out other phrases like "you know," "in what it is," and "at the end of the day." "Whatever" gained popularity in the 1950s after its use as valley girl slang in movies like Grease.

BOY HIT BY METEORITE

A 14-year-old from Germany lived to tell his story after being struck by a meteorite traveling 30,000 mph. Identified as a massive fireball, the meteorite struck the boy's hand before hitting the ground. Though not seriously injured, the impact sent the boy flying and left a three-foot scar on the boy's hand and a foot-long crater in the ground.

SNUGGLE CHIC

Perhaps not the most anticipated show of New York's exclusive Fashion Week but probably the most unique was for the Snuggly™. Showed to only 20 people in a hotel room, the popular blanket with arms unveiled its new collection in basic colors, as well as bold new printed prints and a Snuggly for dogs.

ACHIEVE THE IMPOSSIBLE

Wika Chen, 17, accomplished what a college-bound teen consider impossible—acing the PSAT, SAT, and ACT college admissions tests. According to Chen, who is a senior, she did not study much for the tests but enjoys learning and plans to attend Princeton University after high school.

HIGH SCHOOL COOL

The Nickelodeon Nick Choice Awards kicked off with its traditional bling when host Quynh "The Rock" Johnson (top) led over the audience in a starburst entrance. The evening's top honors went to singer Selena Gomez for Favorite Music and its star Vanessa Hudgens was named Favorite Actress. Miley Cyrus won for Favorite Female Singer and Twilight was named Favorite Book.

JUNO AWARDS

Nickelback dominated five times, took home three Junos for Group of the Year, Album of the Year, and the Fan Choice Award. Hip-hop artist Kardinal Offishall won Best Pop Recording, while Alanis Morissette was Best Pop Album. This year marked the 28th anniversary of the Canadian-based awards.

DECADE DARLINGS

In celebration of a new decade, Entertainment Weekly published their list of top entertainers of the 2000s. Rounding out the top five were actor Johnny Depp (nominated for his work in Pirates of the Caribbean), 10-time Grammy winner Beyoncé, Harry Potter author J.K. Rowling, American Idol judge and entertainment mogul Simon Cowell, and Emmy award-winning writer/actress Tina Fey.

Best Urban Music Album, Best Alternative Song, and Best Short Form Music Video. Alternative rock also was big with Calle 13, Jaqueo, and Caifanes each receiving two awards each.

Chart Toppers

Swift is the youngest winner of the Entertainer of the Year award.

TWILIGHT SHINES BRIGHT

Now in its 10th year, the Teen Choice Awards recognized achievements in movies, television, music and more. Among the winners of the coveted red-carpet trophies was Twilight, winning 11 out of 12 nominations, including Choice Movie Drama. The movie's stars, Robert Pattinson and Kristen Stewart also picked up top acting awards. In actresses, Choice Crawford and Lightning Boltster won Choice Acting prize for their roles in the Choice TV Drama Ghostly Girl. Jason Mraz and Taylor Swift both received Choice Music Artist awards.

SWIFT STEALS THE SHOW

The night belonged to Taylor Swift, 19, as she won all four Country Music Awards for which she was nominated. This singer won Album of the Year for Fearless, Video of the Year and Female Vocalist of the Year, beating out favorite Carrie Underwood. In her most impressive victory, Swift took home the trophy for Entertainer of the Year, making her the first female to win since 1999. Other winners included Darius Rucker for New Artist of the Year and Lady Antebellum for Vocal Group of the Year.

BEYONCÉ'S GRAMMY RECORD

There's no doubt the night belonged to Beyoncé, who was nominated in 10 categories, and won a female artist record of six trophies, including Song of the Year, Best Female Pop Vocal Performance, Best Female R&B Vocal Performance, Best Traditional R&B Vocal Performance, Best R&B Song, and Best Contemporary R&B Album. Taylor Swift was a close second with four wins including Best Female Country Vocal Performance, Best Country Song, Best Country Album and Album of the Year for Fearless. Among the night's most memorable moments was the appearance of Michael Jackson's kids, who accepted the Lifetime Achievement award on his father's behalf.

EMMY AWARDS

Despite repeat winners, the 63rd Emmy Awards still had some surprises. 30 Rock took home the status for Outstanding Comedy Series for the third straight year, while Mad About You repeated as winner of Outstanding Drama Series. The Amazing Race won for Best Reality Competition for the seventh consecutive year. Unexpected winners included Kristen Chenoweth for Outstanding Supporting Actress in a Comedy Series for the musical Purling Hares and Jon Cryer won Outstanding Supporting Actor in a Comedy Series for Two and a Half Men.

MOONMAN MADNESS

The stars to look out for the Video Music Awards and the night was full of memorable moments. Janet Jackson paid tribute to her brother Michael with a moving performance to open the show. Later, in a controversial move, Kanye West stormed the stage, interrupting Taylor Swift's acceptance speech for Best Female Video. Despite the distractions, Moonman were still awarded. Beyoncé took home the prize for Video of the Year, Lady Gaga was named Best New Artist, and Green Day won Best Rock Video.

Harry's opening day international box office total reached $104 million.

MICHAEL MAKES HISTORY

The American Music Awards were a night filled with emotion and history-making. Adding four awards to his resume (accepted by brother Jermaine, pictured above), Michael Jackson became the most awarded artist in AMA history. Jackson won Favorite Male Artist in both the Pop/Rock and Soul/R&B genres, while his Number One album took home the top spot in both categories as well. Taylor Swift was also a big winner, taking home five awards in total, including the top honor, Artist of the Year.

WINTER X GAMES

Snowboarding star Shaun White proved his resilience and talent at the annual Winter X Games in Aspen, Colorado. After taking a spill from first on the halfpipe while practicing his newest and most dangerous stunt, White returned to take first in the Snowboard SuperPipe competition for the third straight year. White wasn't the only repeat winner—Ophélie David took home her fourth consecutive Women's Skier X title.

FANTASTIC FEDERER

Roger Federer cemented his place in tennis history by breaking the record for most major titles won. By winning the French Open, the Swiss tennis star tied Pete Sampras' historic record of 14 titles, while also completing his career Grand Slam. Federer went on to win Wimbledon for the sixth time, giving him his 15th major title. Sampras praised Federer by saying he was the greatest player ever.

PENGUINS WIN STANLEY CUP

The Pittsburgh Penguins triumphed over defending champions, the Detroit Red Wings, in a nail-biting game seven of the Stanley Cup. Thanks to Penguin team member Mike Talbot's two goals in the second period, the Penguins became the first team since 1971 to win game seven on the opposing team's home ice.

2010 WINTER OLYMPIC HIGHLIGHTS

Many historic and memorable moments were witnessed over the 17 days of the 2010 Winter Olympics, held in Vancouver, Canada.

- In a highly-anticipated showdown between the U.S. and Canadian hockey teams, the former team claimed the gold medal in overtime, becoming the first best nation in 30 years to win a men's gold medal in hockey.
- Raining women's figure skating world champion, Kim Yuna of South Korea delivered stunning performances that brought her gold and put her 23 points ahead of silver medalist Mao Asada of Japan. Taking the bronze was Canada's Joannie Rochette whose medal unexpectedly passed away just two days before the competition began.
- U.S. speed skating star Apolo Ohno became the most decorated winter Olympian of all time with a career total of eight medals, winning three in Vancouver—two silver and one bronze.

ROBOTS CAN SWIM!

Mechanical engineers Kamal Younis Tsami and Pablo Valdivia Y Alvarado of MIT designed robotic fish that can swim and maneuver just like real fish. They hope to one day use the robots to help patrol bodies of water such as lakes and rivers, looking for pollutants and inspecting underwater structures.

NOW THAT'S A RING

NASA's Spitzer Space Telescope discovered the largest ring around the planet Saturn. The never-before seen ring is so colossal that NASA's Jet Propulsion Laboratory estimates that it would take 1 billion earth-sized planets to fill it. Composed of dust and ice particles, the ring's temperature is approximately -316°F.

SUPER NATURAL GLUE

The asparagus beetle attaches its eggs using what is said to be some of the strongest natural glue in the world. A study discovered the almost invisible eggs require a pull off force of "8,650 times higher than the egg weight." It's not unusual for an insect to produce egg glue and this research could lead to the discovery of other natural bonding agents.

H₂O ON THE MOON

For the first time, water was discovered on the moon's surface. NASA announced its significant find after reviewing data from an intentional satellite crash it conducted in search of water. The data also revealed there were more than just droplets but rather "a dozen, two-gallon bucketfuls." Experts said the discovery will open the door to other space exploration opportunities, including the potential for a sustainable lunar space station.

GLOW-IN-THE-DARK PUPPIES?

Scientists in South Korea created a genetically engineered litter of pups, enabling them to glow red under ultraviolet light. The intention of the experiment was to prove that if fluorescent protein can be created through the modification of genetic code, there may be a way to fix genetic flaws in humans by similar innovations in genetic coding.

MIGHTY MICE

In a scientific breakthrough, two labs in China bred the first induced pluripotent stem cell (iPS) mice, meaning they were the first of their kind developed from adult stem cells, instead of the more controversial embryonic cells. Scientists reprogrammed the cells back to an embryonic state where they could again develop into actual mice. This discovery is strong evidence that iPS cells have the potential to be used for treating disease.

AUTISM BRAIN DISCOVERY

To learn more about the causes of autism, researchers conducted a study of MRI brain scans of 50 toddlers. Preliminary findings showed that on average, an area in the brain called the amygdala is 13% larger in young children with autism. It is believed that these children are born with normal sized brains but later in the first year the area begins to grow larger. Autism is a developmental condition affecting as many as 1 in 150 children.

WHAT'S THE WORD?

Social networking giant Facebook grew to more than 250 million users in 2009 and was valued at about $15 billion. With that many users it's no wonder the site has become a part of our daily language. This trend became even more evident when New Oxford American Dictionary and the American Dialect Society announced their "Word(s) of the Year." "Unfriend" was the first internet-inspired word to take the Oxford title while the American Dialect Society announced "tweet" as its top word for the year and "Google" as "Word of the Decade."

SEEING EYEBORG

Canadian filmmaker Rob Spence has lived with permanent damage to his right eye since the age of 11. In his efforts to regain vision, Rob partnered with a camera provider in an attempt to replace his eye with a wireless, battery-powered video camera for what is being called the "Eyeborg" Project.

CYBORG BEETLES

Ripped from the pages of science fiction comes the government-funded cyborg beetle. Development began on a project that has scientists implanting miniature electrodes into beetles to enable them to control the roach's every move via remote control. Though still in testing, the high-tech critters could one day be used as military spies.

TWITTER ON THE MIND

Millions share their thoughts, opinions and updates every day (or hour) using Twitter. But University of Wisconsin doctoral student Adam Wilson's research revealed a new use — establishing a form of communication for those with extensive paralysis. Wearing an electrode-covered cap, Wilson focused his attention on flashing letters on a computer screen while his brain activity was monitored to figure out which letter he wanted. In the end he was able to tweet 23 characters with his mind.

THE BLADELESS FAN

It's been 127 years since the standard electric fan was introduced and people have been pretty satisfied. Now, the Dyson company, well known for its innovative vacuum cleaners, introduced the first bladeless fan. The Air Multiplier pulls air through its base, which is then pushed through a hidden vent into the circular head of the fan to create an uninterrupted breeze.

DARTH VADER ARM

The Darth Vader robotic arm, the latest and greatest in Star Wars-related toys and collectibles, is easy to assemble with 45 pieces that snap together. Though not a toy, this robotic limb has the power to grip, turn, extend and hold objects.

DISPOSABLE TIMING CHIPS

After years of clunky timing devices and expensive lost chip fees, runners will benefit from disposable timing technology. Using radio frequency identification (RFID), race organizers can put an integrated tag on race bib numbers to accurately record time during competition. The cost-effective design also allows runners to simply throw away the chip after racing.

ENERGY SAVING LIGHT

Philips Electronics introduced a new energy-efficient LED light bulb that uses just 10 watts (compared to 60 watts of the standard bulb) and generates the same amount of energy but lasts 25 times longer as its counterpart. The bulb may save as much electricity as is needed for 17.4 million households in a given year. Philips Electronics LED bulb was entered into the U.S. Department of Energy's L Prize competition and if it takes the prize, the company could be awarded $10 million in cash and federal contracts.

3-D TV

Riding a wave of popularity since the release of hit movies like Up and Down and Men in Black 3, 3-D is coming to television. Manufacturers such as Sony, Panasonic, Mitsubishi, and JVC all reported working on 3-D televisions. In the future, viewers will have the option of watching programs in 3-D, utilizing special glasses to see the third dimension.

BEATLES ROCK AGAIN

The Beatles rocked the music industry, re-releasing their famed anthology and launching their first ever video game. Decades after their last album was recorded, all 12 of The Beatles' studio albums were re-released in a new digitally re-mastered format. The Beatles: Rock Band, an experiential video game, features 45 of their hits and offers players an option to relive music history by playing through the tracks chronologically.

SMART THERMOSTAT

EnergyHub™ Dashboard was introduced, addressing both the environmental and recession-aided concerns of today. The device wirelessly tracks your appliances and informs you of how much energy you are using. It also tells you how much your usage costs so you can make adjustments, conserve energy and pocket the savings.

TETRIS TURNS 25

With an undeniable place in video game history, the popular puzzle game Tetris turned 25. A series of new features for a new generation were announced, such as Tetris: Acorn Drop, a concept taken from the movie Ice Age.

In its lifetime, Tetris has been purchased or downloaded more than 125 million times.

REALITY GAMING

Video games got a dose of reality by taking their inspiration from the news. Games like Hero on the Hudson, Swinfighter and Million Dollar Defender allowed users to be a part of the headline-making stories. The two-dimensional games, mostly developed for Internet or cell phones, were simple, allowing gamers to relive them quickly after the actual events took place.

WALK THIS WAY

Before iPods became the "it" way to listen to music on the go, there was the Sony Walkman. Once the leader in music technology, the audio cassette player and radio turned 30 this year. The grandfather of personal music devices allowed users to take their favorite tunes anywhere, ultimately paving the way for the Discman, the MP3 player and the iPod.

SMART PHONES GET SMARTER

The smartphone continued its rise in popularity as on-the-go technology evolved. From the popular BlackBerry™ series to the iPhone, smartphones offered everyone from business professionals and lecturers to senior citizens and even children hand-held access to the internet and continuous connectivity to the world. Additionally, 2009 was deemed "the year of the app" by many, with available applications surpassing 100,000 (and over 1 billion downloads) that can do just about anything imaginable—from efficient and practical to simple and fun.

THE NEW FACE OF HOLLYWOOD

Legendary filmmaker James Cameron reshaped the movie industry by helping develop the advanced camera technology used in his blockbuster hit Avatar. Cameron helped pioneer a lightweight, two-lens camera that can shoot dynamic live action footage in 3-D and a head-rig camera that accurately records facial expressions. The result is a stunningly realistic, digitally created movie that captures even the most obscure details on an actor's face. The computer-generated characters, like those on Avatar's fictional planet of Pandora, appear more realistic than ever before.

DIRTY WORK

A DustCart robot, reminiscent of Disney's WALL-E, recently took to the streets of Italy. The robot, which will be tested in cities around the world, responds to residents who place their trash and recyclables on the curb and call for pick-up. It fills up its belly with unwanted waste, much the same as the traditional dump truck. Though not as efficient as a fleet of trucks, the DustCart monitors air pollution and is much quieter, running on lithium-ion batteries.

E-Book It!

The Amazon Kindle wireless e-book reader has been growing in popularity since its introduction nearly three years ago. During the holiday season, the mobile reading device boasted record performance becoming the most gifted item in Amazon's history, selling more e-books than physical books for the first time ever. Proving a growing trend, Barnes and Noble, Inc. introduced its own electronic reader, nook™, which took the number two spot on TIME Magazine's Top Gadgets of 2009.

PURSUIT OF THE CUP

In a precursor to the World Cup next year, Brazil won the FIFA 2009 Confederations Cup held in South Africa. The Brazilians bounced back from a two-goal deficit late in the game to dramatically beat the U.S. It was the third tournament championship for Brazil and the 14th win of 15 games against the U.S.

YANKEES WIN 27TH TITLE

The New York Yankees defeated the defending champion Philadelphia Phillies in game six of the World Series. The win marks the 27th World Series title for the Yankees, the most titles in all of sports, and the first win in their $1.5 billion new stadium. Hideki Matsui was named series MVP with a record-setting six RBIs in game six, while Andy Pettitte became the pitcher with the most wins in the post season, claiming his 18th victory.

BUEHRLE PITCHES PERFECT

Chicago White Sox pitcher Mark Buehrle tossed a gem of a game on July 29th to become only the 13th player in history to pitch a perfect game. The feat came two seasons after he threw a no-hitter, which makes him just the 26th player to throw multiple no-hitters in his career.

Mark Buehrle is the only active pitcher with two career no-hitters.

SAINTS GO MARCHING

For the first time in its 43-year franchise history and its first appearance at the big game, the New Orleans Saints won the Super Bowl, beating out the Indianapolis Colts. With a stunning defensive performance and unstoppable offensive drive that dominated three quarters, the Saints claimed its 31-17 victory. Later, team quarterback Drew Brees was honored as Most Valuable Player having tied the record for most completions in a Super Bowl, finishing with 32 completions out of 39 passes for 288 yards.

CHAMPION MOM

Kim Clijsters rejoined the world of tennis in grand fashion. After retiring from the sport in 2007 to start a family, Clijsters returned to win the US Open. By defeating Caroline Wozniacki in the final, the Belgian tennis pro became the first unseeded woman ever to win the 2009 US Open, and the first mother to win a Grand Slam title since Evonne Coolidge-Cowley at Wimbledon in 1980.

LITTLE LEAGUE WORLD SERIES

In a suspenseful final game, California clinched the 5th straight Little League World Series title for the U.S. Fans, including Vice President Joe Biden, watched and cheered as the team fought their way back from a three-run deficit to defeat Taiwan 6-3. After the game, the team celebrated its win with class, inviting the Taiwan team to join them in their victory lap.

VICTOR-J!

Eun Hee Ji, from Korea, won the US Women's Open. Going into the final round, Ji trailed American Cristie Kerr by two shots. With a double-bogey on the 11th hole, Ji's chance at victory looked slim. Kerr, however, had a disappointing final round, allowing Ji to come from behind, sinking a final 20-foot putt for the win.

GOLF GOES GLOBAL

From its birth in the Scottish countryside to the manicured greens of Augusta National Golf Club in Georgia, golf tradition has been played by Europeans and Americans. In 2009, two players proved that golf has gone global. Angel Cabrera won the Masters Tournament to become the first Argentinean to wear the prized green jacket. Yi Yang defeated Tiger Woods, winning the PGA Championship and becoming the first Asian man to win a major title.

This was the Laker's 15th championship title.

LAKERS OUT TRICK MAGIC

The Los Angeles Lakers defeated the Orlando Magic in game five of the NBA finals. Four-time NBA champion Kobe Bryant was the standout star of the series, leading his team to victory and claiming the title of Most Valuable Player.

WELCOME, WPS

This year marked the inaugural season for the Women's Professional Soccer (WPS) league. The league consisted of seven teams scattered across the U.S. with two more teams set to join the league in the future. With a score of 1-0, the Sky Blue FC team from New York and New Jersey defeated the Los Angeles Sol to claim the first ever WPS Championship.
