WASH STATE

I guess you could say that life is like an open book that we are continuously writing. And now it is time for yet another chapter to come to a close. For some of us that chapter will end more easily than for others. Some will already be prepared to begin a new chapter and others will hold off. Some will be able to write and some will experience writers block, but no matter what happens or what we do, we can be guaranteed that our high school chapters will be the ones most remembered.

They will be about many different things. Our first kiss, our first date, our teachers, what our hopes and dreams were, but most importantly our friends: The ones we made, lost and kept. As friends we shared laughs, tears, problems, smiles and so much more. The friends we've made will always be a part of us and the memories will always be present. Never let go of your memories, high school friends are one of the most important one's you will ever have. If you think about it we grew to be who we are together ... "The better part of one's friendships"-Abe Lincoln.

Our four years are all over! Where did they go? We now have the future to look forward to. Our lives are once again beginning ... we are stepping out into the "Real" world.

Always keep your book open and continue to write new chapters. When it comes time to close, may it be all you hoped for.

All the best of luck and wishes to the class of NINETEEN HUNDRED AND NINETY-FIVE.

Ladies And Gentlemen...The Class Of 1995!

For most of us, starting another year of high school is nothing new. For freshmen, high school is a genuinely new experience that has a tremendous impact on one's future. Participating in the Night Run and Spirit Week opened to a tremendous bang for Fresh spirit. At once, this group of students made a permanent mark on the La Salle tradition and one can only imagine how much more they will leave behind them when they graduate in 1998.

Susie, Lexie, and April stop for a photo opportunity.

A trio of freshmen girls are gearing up for the upcoming school year.

Mr. O'Brien consoles senior Tin Vo about "The Colloge Decision."

Ms. Powers received her BA from Loyola Marymount in L.A., and her teaching credential from Regis University.

The summer of 1994 Ms. Powers spent riding her bicycle cross country with her husband. They started in St. Augustine, Florida and, ten weeks later, ended in Santa Cruz, CA.

"It was a chance and an experience of a lifetime, she says.

Ms. Vasquez has taught at numerous campuses in the San Juan Unified School District. She did undergraduate studies at Chicago Teacher's College and received her Masters from CSUS. She enjoys growing roses and sewing for her grandchildren. Ms. Vasquez dislikes messy and tacky things.

This has enabled her to become good at home decorating. She likes the students at CB. She says, "I find Christian Brothers students GREAT!"

Ms. Painter graduated from Fordham University with a B.A. in Philosophy and is working on a Masters in Theology. She likes to write poetry, reading, and traveling. She is also married to a CB alumni.

Ms. Crawley received her B.S. in Health Science from St. Mary's College. She likes working out, being outdoors, reading and keeping up with the latest in science. She also says, "I enjoy being at CB and getting to know the students."

Strike a pose, Sister Diana!

Mr. DiFilippo shows new teacher Dr. Perry the "The Ropes" at CB.

Senior Liturgy

Joaquin McPeck is playing the role of a Eucharistic minister.

Ryan Esposito performs his duty very carefully.

Kendall Crabtree and Justin Williams continue the tradition of carrying the Da La Salle banner and they are proud of it. You can tell.

The Senior Liturgy was held at the Cathedral of Blessed Sacrament, downtown on Oct. 11.

Here is what Senior Matt Werry had to say, "I loved it! Everyone got involved."

Jim Woolley commented, "The liturgy was great. All the High Schools who usually compete with each other came together for worship. It was wonderful."

Fiddler on the Roof is the long-running award-winning Broadway musical that has captured the hearts of millions. It has familiar songs such as "Sunrise, Sunset", "Matchmaker" and "If I Were a Rich Man".

Not only did the students learn facts about the play, but they all had to dig deep within themselves to come up with a wide range of emotions, to build family units and to stand together in adversity.

We had an extremely talented cast and technical crew. With the assistance of Brother Warren we have continued with the CB tradition of excellence. Ms. Wilson

Without the crew, there would be no play. They dedicate their time after school and on the weekends to prepare the stage. They worked hard on taking down the last set and are now beginning a new set for Fiddler on The Roof. They deserve recognition for all their hard work. The crew was Stephen Derweiler, Jon Hendryx and Scott Marshall.

New Teachers

These teachers joined the CB staff after our faculty pages had gone to print. We felt they should still be included.

Br. Kevin Slate, F.S.C.

Director of Campus Ministry; American Literature. Br. Kevin is a graduate of De La Salle in Concord, St. Mary's of California with a B.A. in English and Georgetown University with a Master's Degree in The School of Liberal Studies.

Mr. Santino Dal Porto

Chemistry. Mr. Dal Porto is a graduate of U.C. Davis with a B.S. degree in Biological Sciences. He has spent several years studying overseas, including three years in Rome and three years in Paris.

Br. Richard Orona

Senior Seminar and Developing Church. Br. Richard spent the last eight years doing Brothers' missionary work in Mexico and Guatemala. He attended the Brother's school in L.A., Cathedral High, where Mr. O'Brien taught him as a freshman.

Ross Hammond

Have you seen that one guy who always walks around school with a guitar? Well, he is Ross Hammond, and his band is called "The Sixth Degree". The band was formed by Ross, vocalist Karl Eichlin, drummer A.J. Fellos, and keyboardist Jeff Coleman. There are also two other band members who attend Jesuit. According to Ross, "They're pretty cool for Jesuit guys!"

Even though they are a new band, they do have experience. Ross, Karl and A.J. have performed in several shows, including the Cattle Club last October. The band's personal experience ranges from two to eight years. They have already made a positive impact on music critics, such as Ryan Esposto.

When asked what type of music they play, Ross replies, "I don't know what you'd call it. We've got slow stuff, fast stuff, groovy stuff, and weird stuff." Well, that does not say much, but you should still check them out. As for the future, Ross simply states, "We're gonna hit it big!" ... Good Luck to "The Sixth Degree"!

Brian Pastor

Brian Pastor is a student who definitely has an active lifestyle. Not only is he culturally aware, he enjoys helping others and is actively involved in the community.

Brian is proud of his heritage, and feels others should be as well. As President of the Halo-Halo club, he would like to have different cultural leaders represent their cultures in the club, such as Thai, Vietnamese, Chinese and Filipino.

Brian is the member of the Filipino Catholic Federation of America, a religious youth group spread throughout America. He also serves in retreats known as Recollections in Christianity. These retreats occur every three months. The purpose is for teenagers to get their minds off any stress or pressure that they have been experiencing. The staff's purpose is to talk to them when they need someone to talk to.

Brian is also a DJ. He says it is a huge investment, but to him, it is worth it. "People go to parties to have fun. If I make people happy while dancing, it's a natural high for myself," says Brian. To him, mixing music is an art-you have to have an ear for it. It is a talent that some are fortunate enough to be born with.

Holly Thompson

I have been ice skating for eight years since I was nine years old. My coach is Michele McGhee, and the rink where I usually practice is in Stockton.

During school, my basic schedule is: Monday and Wednesday mornings, I wake up at 3:30 a.m. and drive myself to the rink to skate for an hour and a half; Tuesdays and Fridays I skate after school in Stockton for about three hours. Sometimes I skate on the weekends, depending on my schedule. When there is no school, I usually skate about five hours a day in the mornings. In the summer, I spend a month in Sun Valley, Idaho, to train with different coaches.

Currently, I am working on my seventh test figures, Junior Free Style, and Pre Gold Ice Dancing tests. I have participated in numerous competitions, including qualifying competitions such as regionals and Sectionals. I have many medals, trophies and certificates.

I have been in many different ice shows in Stockton. My favorite skating event is the compulsory figures, which I am best at. These are the circles on the ice which are based mostly on control and body position. Freestyle and dance are my second favorites.

Skating has taken me as far east as Colorado and Utah. I have gone as far north as Idaho and Oregon, throughout all of California, and as far south as Phoenix, Arizona.

This sport takes tones of dedication and is hard sometimes, but I love it. I meet a lot of people and make a lot of friends.

Outside of skating, I do ballet once a week. I also go to Pilates twice a week for sports strengthening and flexibility for skating.

In my spare time, I like to do arts and paintings. I also like to hang with my friends and party!!

Wet And Wild Holy Bowl 1994

One word can describe this year's Holybowl wet. From the Frosh game to the end of the Varsity game, rain poured down upon Hughes Stadium, making the field muddy and slippery. But the Falcons didn't let measly rain stop sensational performances from the drill team, the cheerleaders, and the football players. The final score was Frosh: 0-20, J.V.: 6-24 and Varsity: 0-28.

Men's Varsity Volleyball

This year the Metro League decided to move Men's Volleyball from club status to that of a sanctioned sport. That means that every school in the Metro League had to come up with at least a Varsity team to participate in competitions against other schools in the League. Becoming a Metro League sport also meant that winning teams would go to play offs and players would receive letters. Coach David Dacong, who started the CB Men's Club team program five years ago, looked optimistically towards the season. Coach Dacong said, "We have a lot of good players with some good experience between them. They should do well in their first Metro season."

"This is our third year together for Pac, Ryan, Jim and myself. We should do good." Jarrod Willis

"We have a lot of good passing and strong hitters look out!" Jim Woolley

Mr. O'Brien, the boys' tennis team coach, has been coaching tennis for 25 years. He also enjoys playing the game himself. The team goals for the '95 season are: 1) to develop a team spirit of togetherness, 2) to have players develop their skills, and 3) to have them play "the inner game."

When Mr. O'Brien was asked how he expected his team to perform on the courts, he said, "We have a lot of inexperience on the team, but the team is eager and willing to work and we expect to do well in a very competitive league."
