Dear Graduates:

The class of 1965 has been singularly blessed to live in a time of crisis—social, political, and religious. In the years to come you will be living out the changes that are being initiated now. Your teachers hope that you will take a vital part in controlling the directions of these changes and that you will have acquired here at Bishop Armstrong High School a sense of what Christianity really is so that by a genuine Christian renewal the great issues of our times of social justice and political equality for all men will not be mere "issues" or "movements" but a way of life.

ADMINISTRATION

The Faculty, Graduates and Students of Bishop
Armstrong High School:

Bishop Armstrong High School, in nearly a decade of years of its existence, has been a major institution of this Diocese. The academic year 1964-65 holds special significance, marking the beginning of a new tradition with a four-year complement of students.

The Christian Brothers School and its traditions are deeply rooted in the Diocese of Sacramento. They are reflected in the lives of its numerous and distinguished alumni.

Our hope and prayer is these traditions will be preserved and add vigor and luster to the scholastic accomplishments at Bishop Armstrong High School.

My blessing and best wishes to the Faculty, Graduates and Students.

Yours sincerely in Christ,

+ Aiden J. Bell

WHERE THE BOYS ARE

An aerial, black and white photograph of a town built on a hillside. The most prominent feature is a large, white, angular structure, possibly a church or a modern building, with a dark roof. To its left is a traditional church with a bell tower. The town consists of several other buildings with dark roofs, interspersed with trees. The overall scene is captured from a high angle, looking down on the town.

Mr. Linton, with the help of Mr. Fontes, coached the Armstrong J.V.'s to a 5-4 winning season and a 5-3 record in the Metropolitan League.

Coaches Linton and Fontes re-install spirit during a half-time pep talk.

1st row: H. Enterios, J. Fraga, J. Collins, M. Rehm, D. Arend, D. Glanville, J. Fletcher, T. Johnston, A. Budmark.
 2nd row: M. Fleming, J. Smith, J. Simmons, M. Moitosa, E. Berringer, B. Horton, B. O'Connell, S. Mullhern, L. Ring, E. Avila, L. Cortez.

Brother Jerome
presides over distribution of CSF awards...

Brother Joseph compares notes with parents of B.A. student.

Parents enjoy "lunch period" during Open House.

Brother Colin explains the goals of Spanish class.

... while parents look on.

HOUSE

Student art attracts admirers in the Administration Hall.

Parents talk with Brother Claude.

Mr. Lineberger outlines P.E. program.

SENIOR RETREAT

Students have time to read and contemplate in the peaceful atmosphere of St. Helena's Retreat House deep in the Napa valley.

Father Healy, retreat chaplain, gives these students further insight during an evening discussion.

Meditation in the chapel provides students with the opportunity to make difficult decisions.

The lounge provides relaxation for reading and informal conferences.

Recreation breaks the tension that builds during a three-day retreat.

CHAPEL

The Brothers meditate early in the morning before Mass.

Damien Ford, sacristan, and Tom Cobb, assistant sacristan, prepare for daily Mass in the chapel.

Brother Lawrence, Brothers' sacristan, talks over Benediction procedure with Father Trainor.

The Chapel, newly completed in October 1964, stands available for student use.

UNITY WEEK

The representative from the five Catholic high schools discuss school relations during the Inter-School Council Meeting.

His Excellency Bishop Bell addresses the Student Body concerning the changes in the Church's liturgy.

Yearbook staff editors compare ideas during the Club Center held at St. Francis.

St. Francis and Loreto Student Council members battle it out at a rinky-dink game Wednesday night.

The Merry-makers harmonize on a folksong at the Unity Week rally on Tuesday.

Newspaper publication staffs discuss mutual problems.

"Gracefully" the girls scrounge for the ball.

Dec. 14 - 19

Varsity football players try their hand at dribbling in basketball.

"The Beasts" provide the Loreto Dance with fast-moving music.

Unity Week came to an end Saturday night, with Armstrong the winner of the Spirit trophy. Here, Doug Carson thanks everyone for their participation.

Hoover retains possession of ball among the Titans.

Armstrong made a valiant attempt, but to little avail against Burbank during the Friday night game.

PARENTS' GUILD

Parents pay their fee for the "Roman Holiday" dinner.

Guild president, Mrs. Chorley, presides over monthly meeting.

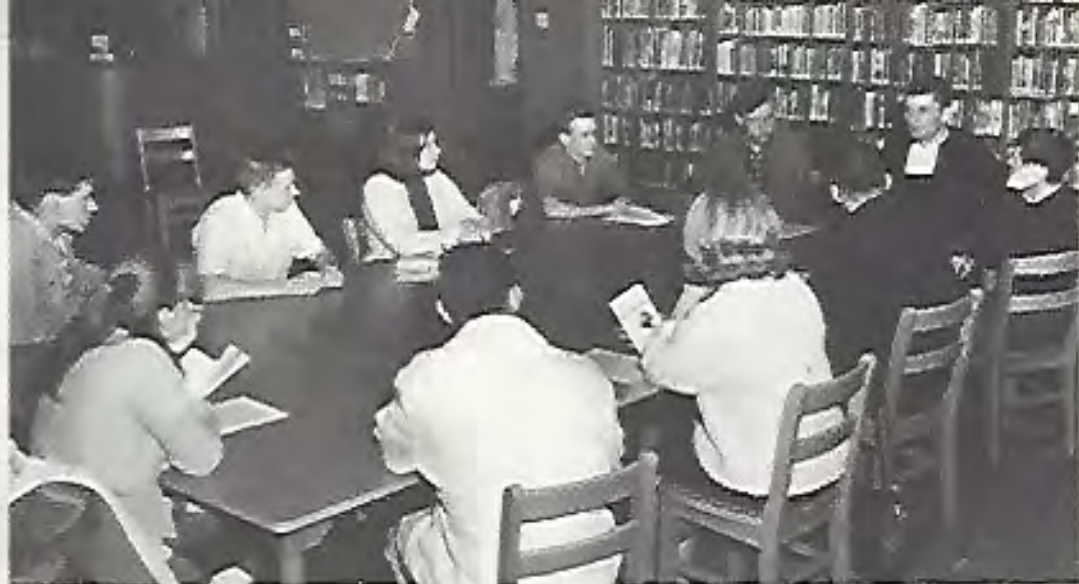

The hard work and meticulous planning pays off as seen in the pleased expression of the parents attending the dinner.

The Star Lites entertain at the dinner against a background of student art.

B.J. Jaborski and R.N. Connelly give talks during Engineer's Week.

Brother Alfred, professor at St. Mary's College, explains the Fibonacci number system to students.

After his talk on the missions in Baja California, Father Kenny speaks further to student body president, Joe Gimenez.

Rev. Ross Hidy of St. Mark's in S.F. explains the Lutheran service to B.A. students.

The former poet in residence at Santa Clara, John Beecher, gives a recitation for Brother Robert and his group.

Armstrong students have the honor of hearing Rabbi Glaser speak about the Jews' role in the modern world.

Bishop Armstrong students have had many opportunities this year to increase their cultural and scientific backgrounds. Excursions to San Francisco as well as lectures and discussions at school, have provided students with the chance of keeping themselves well informed as mature scholars — the aim of Bishop Armstrong High School.

Traditionally, a basketball game is played between the faculty and varsity to raise money for the missions. Financial aid was directed towards Fr. Keith Kenny's work in Baja California as well as for the Brothers' schools in the Philippines. This year the varsity upset the faculty's perfect record, while the junior varsity whipped the champion All-Stars.

Vercruyssen hooks a shot past Mr. Sperbeck.

Losers Brother Jerome and Brother John absorb heckles following the game.

CHARITY GAME

Brother Neil takes to the air.

Father "Fireball" Teres racks up another two points.

Brother Eugene "sweats out" a rough situation during the Soph game.

Tacoss and Domyancic wait for Ron B to make his play.

After the beginning of the second semester, Brother Andrew began a workshop for freshmen interested in crafts. Some of the more popular projects are wood carving, clay modeling, leather work, ceramics and various other hobbies.

MID-TERM ELECTIONS

Jack Praxel
President

Mid-term elections reached a high point Thursday with the speeches delivered before the entire student body. Some were humorous, others more on the serious side, but all appealed for student support. The competition was high but the vote was quite decisive. The only one who rode easy in the election was Jim Roberts, who ran unopposed for Sergeant-at-Arms.

Brother Camillus joins the students in serenading Minnie, one of the Catholic patients.

The Banana Boat, first begun by Brother Andrew some seven years ago, continues to be one of the major spiritual activities on campus. It first received its title when fruit baskets full of bananas were brought monthly to the County Hospital. This activity provides every Armstrong student with the opportunity of visiting the sick. Brother T. Joseph is presently in charge.

Hearing Brother Paul's harmonica lifts the hearts of many of the depressed patients in the old women's ward.

THIS IS BROTHER FREDERICK

Brother Frederick is ninety-one years old, serene and whimsical, witty and wise . . . the oldest Christian Brother in America.

Great things have happened on the earth—wars have been won and lost, nations have fallen, kings and presidents have been born and have died—since he was born nearly a century ago in the village of Martiel in France.

For the past twenty-five years, retired from his teaching duties, Brother Frederick has lived in the Community of the Ancients at Mont La Salle—a sunny hilltop in the foothills of California's beautiful Napa Valley—and has lovingly tended the gardens of the monastery. On November 7th he celebrated his 75th year as a Brother.

Most days, he wanders down the hill to the winery the Brothers operate, with a bouquet for the office.

"I give them flowers," he smiles, "and then I go out to where they make the wine. 'Brother,' they say, 'would you like a taste of wine?' 'Mais oui,' I say. It is what you would call a good exchange, non?"

In France, from the beginning, the Brothers always have had the privilege of having a glass of wine each day. It is written in the rule of the Order.

"I think, perhaps, it is a very good rule," remarked Brother Frederick. "A little wine warms the spirit . . ."

HOW MANY "GOOD-BYS" WILL BECOME PART OF YOUR GRADUATION?

Weinstock-Lubin

You might say the whole of Life consists of saying "good-by" . . . but never more so than when we actually finish high school! For this is the time we put away "the things of a child" and choose our place in this constantly changing world! May we offer our wishes for success . . . and may we remind you, here is one "good-by" you need never make . . . for both W-L's will continue to serve you, through the years, in the same fine tradition since 1874!

Success is receiving a diploma on crutches!

GRADUATION '65

His Excellency Bishop Alden J. Bell presents a graduate with his diploma.

Valedictorian Damien Ford addresses the graduation class.

The class stands for our national anthem.

Brother Claude: "Now hear this!"

Jubilation!

Soloist Damien Ford and Chorus sing "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" under the baton of Mr. Anton Dorndorf.

BACCALAUREATE MASS

BREAKFAST

The Class of '65 enjoys a breakfast prepared in their honor by Mrs. Chorley, president, and other members of the Christian Brothers Guild.

Brother Owen and Student Body President Joe Gimenez listen as Tom Peterson, senior president, expresses his class' gratitude to the school.

Director Brother Owen and Brother Claude, in charge of staging, lighting and costumes, watch with critical eye one of the many rehearsals held over a three-month period.

Anna Marie De Rocco, accompanist, and Brother Paul, mandolin, were mainstays of the Bearcat Band which provided the show's music.

Bishop Armstrong's spring musical, THE BOY FRIEND, a rollicking spoof of the Twenties, turned out to be a laugh-filled success under the able direction of Brothers Owen, Claude and Paul. The show ran four nights and a Sunday matinee to packed houses in the Speech Arts Room during the first two weeks of April.

Charleston cutie, Janer Gerkin

T H E B O Y F R I E N D

Romantic leads Jan Tatman of Loretto and Rich Turner sing one of the show's love duets.

Charlestoners Par Kadell and Mike Magaletti play up secondary love interest.

Joe Gimenez and Gerry O'Brien discuss plot.

Madame Dubonner's chic maid, Angie Mendoza.

Par Kadell goes aloft for final bars of "There's Safe Numbers" chorus.

Charleston chorus couples: Janet Gerkin & R. Cisneros (choreographer), Sue Sortomme & D. Smith, Linda Sunderland & Ted McKnight.

And away they go! The chorus turns it on in THE BOY FRIEND'S big production number, "The Riviera."

Linda Sunderland & Mark Scott stop the show with "Never Too Late" routine.

Michaelen Lemich as Mme Dubonnet vamps a reluctant Damien Ford.

John Flowers & Karen Levacich dance the Carnival Tango.

Ted McKnight & Linda Sunderland kick out at the Carnival Ball.

Katie Walker plays to the hilt a shrewish Lady Brockhurst.

LIBRARY CLUB OPEN HOUSE

Brother Maurice addresses parents and members of the 1964-65 Library Club.

Mrs. Chorley, president of the Christian Brothers' Guild, and mothers of Library Club members serve refreshments.

A Club member receives achievement certificate from Brother Eugene, Principal.

Visitors review book displays set up by Club members.

Miss Crell talks to students and visitors about Sacramento's library system.

Library Week this year began on April 25 and was highlighted by the Open House presented by the Library Club. Talks by Brother Maurice, Club moderator, and Miss Bonnie Crell of the City Library, set the keynote of the evening. Parents and other guests had an opportunity to examine the many reading displays and to enjoy conversation over refreshments.
