These Are Living Stones. . .

These walls we have seen rise, as we awaited in anticipation the completion of our new school--these corridors and classrooms do not stand, strange and silent, as the untenanted house, not yet a home. Already they bear the imprint, the shape given by strong personalities who have formed them, molded their spirit as well as their outward appearance. Our yearbook tells of this first year of Manogue High School, a year of hope, captured in our title, ESPERADE--the hopes, ideals, achievements of the people who make Manogue. "In te, Domine, speravi. . . In You, O Lord, I have hoped. . ." the motto of Bishop Manogue, for whom our school is named, a prayer appropriate to beginnings, is our prayer.

Administrators. . .

Among the strong personalities to leave their imprint on our formation are our administrators. Conscious of the growing need for educational facilities in the diocese, they conceived the plan for the construction of Manogue High School. Theirs was the dream, theirs the imperative in making it a reality.

His Excellency, the Most Reverend Alden J. Bell, Bishop of Sacramento.

Very Reverend Msgr. Edmund S. O'Neill, M.A., Assistant Superintendent of Schools.

Who "...Molded Their Spirit"

His Excellency, The Most Reverend Patrick Manogue, first bishop of the Diocese of Sacramento.

Sister Mary Monica, S.M., first principal of Bishop Manogue High School. History, Religion

Sister Mary Andre', S.M., vice-principal. Chemistry, Religion

Reverend James Church, Chaplain and Business Administrator.

Faculty . . .

Through their instruction, we grow intellectually and spiritually. In their hopes and dreams for us, we discover the wealth of our own personalities.

...the special persons who have entered our days to enrich, to share, to encourage, each in her special way making Manogue what it is for us.

Hers is the familiar face of an old friend greeting you in the halls. Self-confident and capable in leadership, diligent, responsible, yet with a twinkle of mischief about her--

Junior Prom Committee share ideas for "Under the Sweetheart Tree."

Activities

ORGANIZATIONS, CLASSES AND ACTIVITIES have made these silent walls, living stones. As we worked and had fun together, studied and prayed, we could sense the building up of our school spirit.

Leadership

...and serve our first leaders did, through activities sponsored by the Student Council and Service Club. With their help, we happily weathered the trials of our first year.

#1: Filling in important school dates with Sr. Mary Monica are first semester student body officers D. Hamilton, social leader; A. Luna, secretary-treasurer; J. Shelby, president; M. Trujillo, vice-president.

#2: "Oh, to be moving tomorrow!" Examining blueprints of Manogue, second semester officers daydream wishfully: N. Nevis, president; S. Walton, vice-president; K. Ryan, secretary-treasurer; P. Kuine, social leader.

#3: They smiled through the thick and thin of that first semester. First semester Student Council members are (seated) L. Raton, H. Wright, C. Hernandez, S. Margetts, R. Hernandez; (standing) E. Valadez, C. Palumbo, G. Wittman, J. Cottle, K. Slakey, S. Cottle, N. Beall, K. Radman, K. Meyers, and N. Budmark.

Spells Service

#1: Learning to check attendance with moderator Sr. Mary Andre<sup>s</sup> as a part of their Service Club duties are secretary R. Escajeda and president G. Wittman.

#2: Second Semester Student Councilers pause amid piles of building materials in the new school: S. Holms, K. Shelby, R. Simas, M. Iuzi; C. Cummings, S. Earl, E. Panattoni, P. Coppin; G. Wittman; M. Church, and K. Kidd.

#3: "It goes in there!" C. Hughson and T. Fox help the Service Club "Tromp Out Trash" under Hazel Sparles' stern directions.

Chiseling Into Living

As this first year at Manogue passes, events recorded in the DIAKONIA become the memories kept alive in the pages of the ESPERADE.

#1: "Is that really ME?" P. Hanley, Sr. M. Pierre, Miss Murphy and A. Ramirez, moderators and editors of the DIAKONIA, look over pictures for the next edition.

#2: Getting hints on setting up the first edition are feature editors K. Kidd, E. Villanueva, A. Marriott, D. Hamilton, B. Larrea, E. Hackett, and K. Slakey.

#3-4: "D-I-A-K-O-N-I-A. . . Well, at least the title is finished!" Reporters T. Sullivan, C. Thearle, K. Gallagher, and M. Larrea revise and polish notes.

Memories

Print

#1: Reactions are mixed as the literary staff attempts a theme for the ESPERADE. (Standing): K. Orsini, P. Machado, D. Doglietto. (Seated): S. Woods, Sr. M. Arcilla, G. Wittman, J. McKinnon, H. Wright.

#2: Even the Home Ec bulletin board offers ideas to ESPERADE layout and business staffs. (Standing): N. McFadden, S. Earl, C. Hernandez. (Seated): J. Luthringer, N. Christiansen, B. Souza.

#3-4: Cropping photos holds the interest of Sr. M. Andrea and I. Garcia, while D. Carvalho, T. Horgan, and A. Parodi check the results of the photography staff's work.

We Share Our Future Today

#1: Library Club members K. Ross, A. Howard, and P. Callander help organize the newly-opened library.

#2: A gayer look for the "infirmary" is what S. Scott and J. Zawacki of the Homemakers and Art Club are trying to achieve with their screen painting.

#3: Young Christian Students D. Potts, P. Coppin, A. Ramirez, C. Cummings, and moderator Sr. M. Oliver discuss the agenda for the next meeting.

#1: Future Nurses K. Ryan, president, D. Dentley, and R. Carvalho, vice-president practice their skills at the Mercy Nursing Home. #2: Junior Red Cross officers M. Hoffman, vice-president; M. Lynch, president; S. Heredia, secretary; and moderator Sr. M. Ann prepare to send student-donated articles to the needy overseas. #3: Hats or caps? P. Copplin, R. Carvalho, D. Dentley, and D. Carvalho anticipate their "capping" for the more than 50 hours' service given as nurses' aides.

Sharing Talents And Interests

#1: C.S.F. officers P. Schwander, A. Ellsworth, and B. Blanchard select their favorites while helping moderator Sr. M. Raymond set up for their Book Fair.

#2: Getting acquainted with the mysteries of the slide rule with the help of moderator Sr. M. Gertrude are Math Club officers P. Schwander, O. Nelson, and S. LeVerne.

#3: T. Keene and T. Sullivan share math know-how in a tutoring session offered by the Math Club as a student service.

#4: Latin a dead language? Lively members M. Winegar, C. Cummings, and S. Kleine prove it otherwise as they aid Sr. M. Fidelis, moderator of the Latin Club, in setting up screen.

Sparks Spirit Of Loyalty And Friendship

#1: Ready for action are G.A.A. officers with Miss MacDonald, moderator; D. Potts, president; C. Hernandez, secretary; J. Valenzuela, point manager; D. Senna, sergeant-at-arms; and J. Martinez, vice-president.

#2: "Go, Falcons, go!" Cheerleaders C. Hernandez and P. Kaine cheer Bishop Armstrong teams to victory.

#3: Our basketball team: J. Gonzales, I. Burton, S. Escajeda, J. Gouveia, D. Bertsch, R. Carvalho, D. DeMarco, A. Hoffman, J. Alves, E. Gutierrez, I. Moore, C. Korbmaker, and D. Potts.

Religions Activity

We encounter Christ—together.

#1: C. Wood offers her gift for the needy at the offertory procession of our Thanksgiving Mass.

#2: Counseling helps us set guide lines for present and future. Fr. Church and J. Domyancic enjoy the opportunity to exchange views.

#3: As a symbol of the gift of herself, M. Marvich places her host in the ciborium at weekly Mass.

#1: We served as our own lectors and commentators at Mass. S. Romanello reads the epistle of the day.

#2: "Is there such a thing as true hate?" wonders B. Scully during discussion at weekend Sophomore Search for Christian Maturity.

#3: "We have to come unglued!" emphasizes Judy Garcia, leader at the Search, as M. Carroll and K. Williams listen attentively.

#4: Sydney West punctuates a point as she speaks to Search-ers.

#5: "My peace I leave with you" resounds as students and faculties of local Catholic high schools gather at Bishop Armstrong for Unity Week Mass.

Awareness Is Fostered By

Of The World Around Us

Academic Subjects

#1: "Say 'non'." Sr. Ancilla drills her French I class in pronunciation.

#2: Religion III students are held by S. Aguirre and O. Reyes' explanation of a Jesse Tree.

#3: "It's got to be here someplace!" English III students, S. Urquidez and M. Gorman use library facilities for research work.

#4: Popcorn anyone? Preparing for educational film are history students G. Spiller and L. Rantoni.

#1: "I sure hope she's doing things right!" M. Lateri observes S. Collins' efforts in their joint chemistry experiment.

#2: Thisaway and thataway goes the compass as A. Morales and A. Cooccarelli prepare problems for geometry class.

#3: An egg is an egg is an embryo. Mrs. Bovy and E. Panattoni examine a chicken embryo in the biology class experiment.

We Discover New Talents And Skills

#1: Combining their talents and ingenuity, Mrs. Erbacher and M. Chang make mod jewelry.

#2: D. Montero learns a most important lesson from P. O'Connor: never knot the end of the thread on a sewing machine.

#3: Our choral group, led by Mr. Dorndorf, added another dimension to our assemblies and the Cathedral Masses.

#1: "Experts" S. Martin, T. Clemenson, S. Gordon and T. Carillo try to please Mr. Corti.

#2: Individual attention in shorthand from Sr. M. Regina helps S. Aguirre and E. Georgi make sense out of squiggles.

#3: D. McKenzie readies her bat for a solid swing.

#4: "Go!" and K. Cartwright is off, typing umpteen words a minute.

#5: "Give it a good swift kick," says Max McDonald to kickball players D. Doglietto, J. Domyancic, M. Sturm, D. McKenzie, and N. Beall.

In Sports We Developed Identity

#1: Strategy in the making: D. Potts confers with E. Garza, M. Winegar, R. Carvalho, and D. Bertsch during Foothills game.

#2: To the victors belongs the jubilation! J. Alves and M. Hoffman are exuberant after their victory over Mercy High.

#3: Mercury without wings, J. Alves dribbles toward the basket as L. Burton covers for her.

#4: A leap to glory: M. Hoffman captures a jump ball.

#5: "Here, Diane!" D. DeMarco attempts a pass during an exciting game against St. Francis.

#1: Our volleyball team: Row One: C. Wood, S. Escajeda, G. Menchaca, I. Burton, L. Menchaca, C. Hernandez. Row Two: L. Moore, J. Alves, D. Bertsch, K. Collins, J. Gouveia, E. Cutierrez, J. Gonzales. Row Three: I. Berni, K. Potts, S. Rogers, D. Potts, K. Ross, S. Waldron, R. Carvalho.

#2: Up and over goes the ball as K. Ross returns the volley.

#3: Determination to score marks R. Reynaga, but it looks like a strike!

Parties Generated Oneness—

#1: S. Maykoski and C. Stefani blow off steam at the Freshman Party.

#2: Laughing so hard she can hardly open her umbrella, D. Habecker enjoys the Old Clothes Relay.

#3: "The better to hold you, my dear," whispers witchy N. Beall to victim J. Gouveia, as D. Bertsch threatens H. Wright at the Soph Halloween bash.

#4: Intent on making the right choice, Manogue Ladies and Knights help themselves at the Father-Daughter event.

#5: Snow Queen P. Martinelli presides over the Christmas Party attended by Princesses K. Shelby, N. Budmark, and the royal pet Snoopy, Sophomore mascot.

#6: "Did I miss something good?" P. Kaine hesitates as she looks over choices made by E. Giorgi, D. Wong, and K. Scott.

#7: Manogue A-GO-GO at the G.A.A. dance.

#8: "Hold on a minute, girls!" Sr. M. Monica is overwhelmed at the Frosh Get-Acquainted.

And Social Graces

We Shared Joys—With Each Other

And With Our Parents

#1: Mr. N. Domyancic, president of Parents' Club, reports on school progress.
#2: Behind every Father-Daughter event are the mothers. On K.P. are Mrs. Lehr, Mrs. Cobb, Mrs. Ramirez, Mrs. Heinrich, and Mrs. Lorenz.
#3: Bringing the C.S.F. Book Fair to parents are P. Coppin and C. Cummings.
#4: "Is it washable?" Interested mothers inspect the choices for the school uniform.
#1: "A ring is a symbol of never-ending love," ponders S. LeVerne at reception of class rings.
#2: S. Holman and B. Heinrich lend a helping hand to Fr. Church's blessing at the Junior Ring Ceremony.
#3: Proud parents look on as Mr. Trimble of the Lions Club awards P. Machado first place for her essay on peace.
#4: D. Noel exhibits the painting that won Honorable Mention in the Breuner Art Show. Honorable Mention also went to B. DiPinto, I. Jerabek, E. Gutierrez, and J. Valenzuela.
#5: T. Keen poses with Conductor Zygmunt Dazell. Theresa won first prize in Young Artists Competition and a guest appearance with North Sacramento Symphony Orchestra.

That First Year-

We rubbed off on one another--smoothing our rough edges in living together, laughing together, griping together. And we looked forward with eager anticipation to moving in-to our new quarters together.

Our Hopes

-as we toured the classrooms that already echoed with our chatter, and rambled through the corridors that already rang with our giggles.

We were taking a giant step forward--together.
