BACCALAUREATE LITURGY 2022

“Spread Your Wings”

Welcome to Christian Brothers High School

The Senior Class of 2022 welcomes our parents, relatives, and friends to our Baccalaureate Liturgy. We gather here today to give thanks to God for our lives, our parents, our teachers, our classmates, our education, and the countless opportunities for growth provided to us at Christian Brothers High School. We invite each of you to participate fully in our liturgy and to join in the prayers and responses.

We, the Class of 2022, thank each of you for your participation and presence here with us.

Liturgy of the Word

First Reading: Acts 18: 9-18

One night while Paul was in Corinth, the Lord said to him in a vision, “Do not be afraid.

Go on speaking, and do not be silent, for I am with you.

No one will attack and harm you,
for I have many people in this city.”

He settled there for a year and a half and taught the word of God among them.

But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews rose up together against Paul and brought him to the tribunal, saying,

“This man is inducing people to worship God contrary to the law.”

When Paul was about to reply, Gallio spoke to the Jews,

“If it were a matter of some crime or malicious fraud,
I should with reason hear the complaint of you Jews;
but since it is a question of arguments over doctrine and titles and your own law, see to it yourselves.

I do not wish to be a judge of such matters.”

And he drove them away from the tribunal.

They all seized Sosthenes, the synagogue official,
and beat him in full view of the tribunal.

But none of this was of concern to Gallio.

Paul remained for quite some time,
and after saying farewell to the brothers he sailed for Syria, together with Priscilla and Aquila.
At Cenchræe he had shaved his head because he had taken a vow.

Responsorial Psalm (sung) “My Soul is Thirsting” by Steve Angrisano

Based on Psalm 63

My soul is thirst - ing for you, O Lord, thirst -
*As morn - ing breaks I ___ look to you; be

- ing for you, my God. My soul is thirst - my ___ strength this day. As morn - ing breaks

- ing for you, O Lord, thirst - ing for you, my God,
I ___ look to you; be my ___ strength this day,

thirst - ing for you, my God.
be my ___ strength this day.

Second Reading: Romans 5

A reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Romans.

Brothers and sisters: We know that all things work for good for those who love God, who are called according to his purpose. For those he foreknew he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, so that he might be the firstborn among many brothers. And those he predestined he also called; and those he called he also justified; and those he justified he also glorified. What then shall we say to this? If God is for us, who can be against us? He who did not spare his own Son but handed him over for us all, how will he not also give us everything else along with him? Who will bring a charge against God's chosen ones? It is God who acquits us. Who will condemn? It is Christ [Jesus] who died, rather, was raised, who also is at the right hand of God, who indeed intercedes for us. What will separate us from the love of Christ? Will anguish, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or the sword? As it is written: "For your sake we are being slain all the day; we are looked upon as sheep to be slaughtered." No, in all these things we conquer overwhelmingly through him who loved us. For I am convinced that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor present things, nor future things, nor powers, nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Gospel: John 16: 20-23

Jesus said to his disciples:
“Amen, amen, I say to you, you will weep and mourn,
while the world rejoices;
you will grieve, but your grief will become joy.
When a woman is in labor, she is in anguish because her hour has arrived;
but when she has given birth to a child,
she no longer remembers the pain because of her joy that a child has been born into the world.
So you also are now in anguish.
But I will see you again, and your hearts will rejoice,
and no one will take your joy away from you.
On that day you will not question me about anything.
Amen, amen, I say to you, whatever you ask the Father in my name he will give you.”
