Rod Zanze, the little shooting machine from Christian Brothers High School, poured in a game-high 32 points Tuesday night in leading the Falcons to a 68-54 rout of the McClatchy Lions in a Metropolitan League game before 400 spectators.

Mike Wetlow was the only other Falcon to reach double figures, accounting for 12 points. Ted Wilborn's 11 points led McClatchy, which dropped to 0-4 in league. The Falcons are now 2-2.

In addition to Wilborn's 11 points, he grabbed 13 rebounds. Harold Jeters led the losers under the boards with 16 rebounds.

Zanze, Brothers Rip McClatchy

Prep of the Week

Rod Zanze
Brothers Falcons

Rod, the Falcons' little play-maker and top scorer, put his shooting talent in gear to lead his teammates in two Metropolitan League victories. Against McClatchy, he connected on 12 field goals and eight free shots for 32 points. Then, in the Johnson contest, Rod hit 13 field goals and three free ones for 29 points. He's fourth in the area in scoring with a 22.2 average.
