The Annual Halloween Party

"The other day when I was hitchhiking..."

"Getting to know you, getting to know all about you..."

"Is this what the Juniors call fun?"

High fashion models Ann Westlake (left) and Stacey Singleton parade in their elegant outfits.

An eerie evening with witches... ghosts...spooks... goblins... "Freshmen and Juniors"... a time of fashion shows, rounds of singing, and some bewitching games creating a scary, unique "Manogue" Halloween...

"Where's all the good food you promised us?"

A togetherness of smiling clowns, sad old men, scary witches and many others.

We Present the Christmas Party

"Gee Carmel, pretty legs!"

"But where's my red suit?"

"But Santa, it's at the cleaners"

"Wait, there's m"

Freshman Snow Queen, Barbara Harris and princesses.

The good pilgrim.

Singing elves shout with joy.

"On no Santa, we don't have your suit!"

Crowds flock to gym.

Homecoming Week...

"I decided to play it safe!"

"Up, up and away..."

Beanies and buttons, balloons and bows...

Junior, Marie Wilson and Roberta Rosati, work on their first place float, while the Sophomore entry awaits the half-time parade.

On December 4, 1970, the Cowboys and Indians met on Manogue's front lawn to fight one of the "dirtiest" football games ever. Battling the mud, rain, and slightly above zero weather, both teams played heroically. Despite the bad weather, the sun shone on the Indians as they emerged victorious, crushing the Cowboys, 14-8.
