Donnie Nielsen

Oak Ridge golfer Donnie Nielsen is a four-year starter, a three-time Sierra Valley Conference member and an All-Metro first-team select. Nielsen, who will attend UC Davis in the fall, hopes to lead the Trojans to Sac-Joaquin Section and NorCal titles.

"Our performance in NorCal play has been subpar," said Nielsen, whose team finished last year. "I think we have the best team in the area, and as we progress through the season that will come to light."

The Trojans won the Rocklin Invitational at Sunset Whitney on Monday behind Nielsen, the co-medalist with Roseville's Chris Galvin at par 72. The Trojans are seeking their ninth consecutive league title, a streak that may be in jeopardy after a tie with Christian Brothers and a two-stroke loss to Union Mine.

"I missed the first four matches," said Nielsen, 18. "Not to sound arrogant, but I'm the No. 1 player on the team and should have an impact on all the matches."

Trojans golfers are SVC targets

By Bill Paterson
 BEE STAFF WRITER

When you win three section titles in six seasons and eight league championships in a row, you are a target.

Oak Ridge High School golf coach Carl Massey knows it. And many of his players are starting to learn it.

Entering the week, the Trojans (5-2-1) found themselves in an unlikely and humbling position - third place in the Sierra Valley Conference behind Union Mine and Christian Brothers.

Last Thursday on their nine-hole home course of El Dorado Hills, the Trojans lost to Christian Brothers 184-195. It ranked as one of the worst dual-meet defeats in eight seasons for Oak Ridge, which has four returnees from last year's Sac-Joaquin Section title-winning team.

"We weren't very happy," Massey said. "We had been playing real well up to that point. We've been in three tournaments with CBS and finished ahead of them in all of them. But this is the second year they have come up and beat us on our home course."

"But Christian Brothers deserves all the credit. It was very windy, but they played tough despite the conditions, and we didn't."

The Falcons and Oak Ridge had tied at 199 in their first league meeting March 9 at Bartley Cavanaugh. That, coupled with a 201-208 loss to Union Mine and returning league MVP Kenneth McCreedy on March 11, means the Trojans, 11-1 in the SVC last year, need to start playing better soon.

More shocking than the loss to the Falcons was that Massey's team carded a collective 195. Massey, who has coached Oak Ridge golf for 19 seasons, said it was one of the Trojans' poorest efforts in a long time at El Dorado Hills.

"Most of the time we're in the 170s," he said. "It's kind of shocking. But we have to deal with it."

Massey isn't about to panic. If the Trojans slip past Union Mine on Tuesday at El Dorado Hills and play well in the league tournaments April 26 at Cameron Park and May 3 at Castle Oaks, they could win the league title.

Despite their problems in league, Oak Ridge has played better in tournaments. The Trojans won the Rocklin Invitational on March 29 at Sunset Whitney - four-year starter Donnie Nielsen was a co-medalist with a par 72 - and placed ninth at the Joe Barry Junior Masters Tournament on March 26 and 27 at Ancil Hoffman. Several Southern California and Bay Area powers played in that tournament.

Yet on the agenda is a tournament in Hawaii on April 22-24, although Massey is a little concerned because the day after the Trojans return they must play a league tournament.

But it helps having a veteran line-up and a talented player such as Nielsen. The three-year All-Metro performer, who is headed to UC Davis on scholarship, should be a challenger for section individual honors this season if he plays well at the right time.

Massey said Nielsen has much room for improvement, even after winning the Rocklin tournament.

"He'd be the first to tell you that he's not putting very well right now," Massey said. "And he needs to be more consistent in hitting his fairways."

Junior Allen Garner is a three-year starter, and junior Willie Kunz and senior Evan Teshima, an All-SVC selection last year, are two-year starters. The team's biggest surprise is freshman Bobby Dow, who led the Trojans against CBS with a nine-hole 37 on Thursday.

Four other players are battling for the No. 6 slot - Kevin James, Brandon White, Blake Taylor and Greg Chackel.

Oak Ridge should be one of the three teams that advances from the SVC to the subsection meet. A good performance there would propel the Trojans into the section finals.

But at each stop, they will wear a huge bull's-eye on their collective backs.

"We've been on top for a long time, and our kids, for the most part, have responded to the challenge," Massey said. "But there are a lot of good teams out there. We want to be peaking in about a month."
