HIGH SCHOOL SPOTLIGHT

An inside look at area athletes

► JASON BROOKS

Galt, senior / golf

The golfers of Galt High School are a close-knit group. In addition to competing on the greens, the team members spend time together off the course and occasionally gather for a poker night. But regardless of the activity, teammates say Jason Brooks will be there to make them laugh.

"He's a pretty comedic guy," teammate Tyler Harrison said. "There's never a dull moment."

Harrison and teammate and friend Ryan Winters described Brooks' humor as spontaneous, out-of-control and mostly unprintable.

Brooks' description was slightly tamer. "Every time someone says something, I have something to say," Brooks said. "I can make a joke out of anything."

That sense of humor carries over to the golf course, where teammates say Brooks is the ideal partner.

"He's an easy person to play with," Harrison said. "Whenever you're kind of having a bad day, you can just work off him. He'll give you advice; he makes it easier. He's a great teammate to have."

It doesn't hurt that Brooks is an excellent golfer. He shot 3 under par at Lockeford Springs in a match against Oak Ridge on Thursday.

"He doesn't miss a lot of shots," Harrison said. "He's guaranteed to come in at the mid- to high-30s. We need to have at least four scores in the 30s to beat the teams that we are playing."

Although Galt lost to Oak Ridge for the second time this season, Brooks said he has high expectations. "I'm thinking we're going to go 12-2," Brooks said.

And that one isn't a joke.

Granite Bay wins section golf title

The Grizzlies' boys team rejoices after near misses the past few seasons.

By Quwan Spears
BEE STAFF WRITER

Granite Bay High School coach Greg Holmes waited until all the scores were tabulated this time.

Three years ago at the Sac-Joaquin Section Championships, Holmes prematurely gathered his team together for what he thought was going to be a keep-sake championship picture. However, Allen Garner, Oak Ridge's No. 6 player, shot a 70 and dropped the Grizzlies into a three-way tie for second.

Monday, Holmes waited until Sac-Joaquin Section assistant commissioner John Williams announced the Grizzlies were the official winners, then took his team to the 10th hole and accepted the tournament title. It was a great moment to chronicle because it was Granite Bay's first Division I boys section golf title.

"I didn't want to jinx anything this time," Holmes said. "Even though our scores were posted on the board, I just wanted to be sure. I learned two years ago that it airt over until it's over."

When this year's championship ended at Anc Hoffman Golf Club, Granite Bay's Ryan Hallisey, Jack Allen, Peter Gibbs, Billy McGowan and Matt Porter combined for 380 and erased the memories of finishing second in 2005 and 2003.

"This is so nice this time after finishing second last year," said Allen, who shot a 72.

"The feeling is indescribable right now. I guess its going to take a few days for it to sink in that we're section champs."

Rocklin and Colfax both shot 383, but Rocklin won the tiebreaker to finish sec-

Hallisey earns golf berth

BEE SPORTS STAFF

Although he did it the hard way, Granite Bay High's Ryan Hallisey will play in the CIF state golf championship June 6 in Santa Maria after finishing with an even-par 72 at the Northern California boys finals Monday at the Mira Vista Golf and Country Club in El Cerrito.

Hallisey was six strokes over after five holes but rallied to make five birdies and an eagle, then won a playoff against Daniel Kitayama of Chico to take third place as an individual behind defending NorCal champion Joe Bramlett of St. Francis-Mountain View and Taylor Travis of American-Fremont, both of whom shot 69s. Bramlett won the playoff to secure medalist honors.

"That's the best round of golf

HIGH SCHOOL GOLF

I've seen such I've been coaching," said Holmes, in his eighth season at Granite Bay. "His first shot he hits out of bounds and double bogeys, then he four-putted once.

"Kids just don't go six over after five holes and come back. He just didn't let himself get down."

Hallisey's score wasn't enough for the Sac-Joaquin Section champion Grizzlies. They finished with a 393 to place fifth. De La Salle of Concord (377), Junipero Serra of San Mateo (379) and Monte Vista of Danville (380) advance to the state finals. Colfax finished one stroke behind Granite Bay (394) in sixth and Rocklin placed eighth (398).

Hallisey, who also qualified for the state tournament as a sophomore and will play at Nevada next fall, shot 4 under on the back nine, including an eagle on the par-5 16th hole.

"He pushed his drive to the right side, then hit an iron to the back of the green," Holmes said. "He chipped it in from 20 feet."

Holmes was disappointed that the Grizzlies didn't fare as well as a team.

"Overall, we're disappointed," Holmes said. "But I told them, 'Hey, you've come a long way. You've won eight tournaments, including the subsections and sections. You have nothing to hang your heads about.'"

Rocklin's Skyler Mills finished in a six-way tie for the sixth and final individual state qualifying spot with a 74, but Eric Pitcaithley of Foothill-Pleasanton won the playoff. Sac-Joaquin Section medalist Tim Honeycutt of Union Mine shot an 83 on the windy course.

Golf: Colfax stuns with 3rd-place finish

ond. The Thunder's Skyler Mills shot an 80 to beat out Colfax's Jordan Hartman, who had an 83 in a battle of the teams' highest scorers.

It was no surprise that top-seeded Granite Bay won and second-seeded Rocklin placed second. Colfax's finish, however, was a major surprise. The school, with more than 900 students, is known for football and basketball but will advance to the NorCal Championships at Mira Vista Golf and Country Club on May 22 in El Cerrito.

"To tie with Rocklin and finish three back of Granite Bay is just a great accomplishment for our school," Colfax coach John Lamb said.

"I thought we had a chance because all our guys shot under 80 in Saturday's practice round. We came out today and picked up where we left off."

Depth, however, was the thing that helped Rocklin slip past the upstart Falcons.

"All of our guys were pretty solid," Thunder coach Dave Stewart said. "If we had a few guys shoot in the low 70s, we probably could give gotten our score in the high 370s. But it didn't happen.

"Give credit to Granite Bay. They played well."

Tim Honeycutt of Union Mine shot a 2-under-par 72 and won the individual championship. Ben Ledbetter of Placer was 1 under to finish second.

"My short game was pretty good today," Honeycutt said. "I made three long putts on No. 4, No. 15 and No. 18. Those shots kept me rolling, and I chipped in No. 9 for a birdie."
