2009 Team Champions: Cardinal Newman HS

CHICO, CA - Martin Trainer birdied the first playoff hole to nab the 2009 Northern California High School Boys' Individual Championship, while Cardinal Newman HS captured the team title at Butte Creek.

Trainer, a senior at Gunn HS, three-putted the 18th green of the day to post a two-under-par 70 and force a playoff with Palma's Matt Ogden, Chico's Kurt Kitayama and Nick Sako of Menlo-Atherton HS. Trainer then went on to birdie the first playoff hole. "I hit a wedge into the green real close and then made the putt," commented the 18-year-old who was medalist at the U.S. Amateur Sectional Qualifying in 2007.

After a runner-up finish last year, Cardinal Newman HS charged back to claim the team title by three strokes. The team of Chris Gregus, Alex Reno, Alex Revelle, Corey Robello, Charlie Welch and Alex Johnson fired a team score of 13-over-par 373.

Aided by consistent rounds of one-under-par 71 by Chris Gregus and even-par 72 by Alex Reno, the team edged out Carmel HS's team of Mickey Mahoney, Colton Bollinger, Oliver Jaget, Kraig McLeod, Luke Vivolo and Chris Jasper, who finished runner-up at 16-over-par 376.

Jesuit HS's team of Chris Macasaet, John Catlin, Ryan Irish, Harrison Murk, John Byers and Cameron Skreden came in third at 20-over-par 380.

Mark Leong of De La Salle (71) and Jessie Stephens of Pleasant Valley (72) will join Trainer, Ogden, Sako and Kitayama as individuals at the State Championships.

The top three teams qualify to play at the CIF State Championships at Poppy Hills on June 10.

D-II section boys golf field could be as competitive as last season

There should be some formidable high school golf on Monday at Cameron Ranch Country Club in Cameron Park.

That's where the Sac-Joaquin Section Division II championships will be held.

The D-II field is always competitive. Last year, Christian Brothers won the D-II title and the Masters crown but it was another D-II school, Rocklin, that took the CIF Northern California honors.

The Thunder placed third at the section finals and third at the Masters before placing on top at the NorCals.

"It's going to be a matter of who can putt on those greens," Christian Brothers coach Kirk Purdy said of the Cameron Park course.

While the Falcons are capable of defending their title, Purdy says that Sierra Valley Conference rival Oak Ridge and Sierra Foothill League powers Granite Bay and Rocklin are also in the title hunt.

"In looking at the scores, Granite Bay has a slight edge," Purdy said. "But it's likely to come down to one or two strokes (for the title)."

The top three teams and top three individuals from Monday's meet will advance to the Masters finals May 11 at the Reserve at Spanos Park in Stockton.

Christian Brothers to defend Masters golf championship

Defending boys golf champion Christian Brothers and rival Jesuit will be the favorites for the team title at Monday's Masters Championship at the Reserve at Spanos Park in Stockton.

Jesuit shot a 374 in winning the Division I North Section championship Monday at Castle Oaks Golf Club in Iona. Folsom (388) and Davis (403) also qualified for the Masters with second- and third-place finishes, respectively.

The Marauders' John Catlin and Ryan Irish tied Vacaville's Ted Moehrke as medalists with 1-over-par 72s.

The competition was even keener Monday at the D-II finals at Cameron Park Country Club as Christian Brothers retained its team title with a 389. Granite Bay was second (395). Oak Ridge and Rocklin tied for third (401). Oak Ridge advanced to the Masters on the tiebreaker.

Five players shared medalist honors with 1-over 73s: Jordan Swanson, Christian Brothers; Chris Wilson, Woodcreek; Austin Smotherman, Del Oro; Dane Peterson, Oak Ridge; and Derek Trofimczuk, Ponderosa.

Woodland's Eakles headed to Seattle University

Woodland basketball player Adam Eakles has signed a letter of intent to play on a full-ride scholarship for Seattle University.

The 6-foot-7 forward was a three-year starter for the Wolves. The All-Tri County Conference first-team performer averaged 17 points and 6.3 rebounds his senior season.

Jesuit pitcher Alex Lerda-Plog has received an appointment to the U.S. Air Force Academy.

Lerda-Plog, who maintains a 4.0 grade-point average, is 5-1 with a 1.58 ERA this season for the Marauders.

Folsom rides wind to win

THE BULLDOGS TAKE THE SAC-JOQUIN SECTION MASTERS

By Matt O'Donnell
Special to The Bee

STOCKTON — There probably wasn't a golfer on the course Monday who wasn't affected by the winds that whipped around the Reserve at Spanos Park.

Folsom High School, however, had seen it before.

The Bulldogs used that edge to win the Sac-Joquin Section Masters boys championship with a team score of 417. Section favorite Jesuit (418) fell short but advanced to the Northern California championships in Chico on May 18, as did third-place Christian Brothers (422).

Folsom coach Steve Burgess said his team faced similar conditions in the second Delta River League match of the season at Empire Ranch.

"We said that we were going to use the wind to our advantage," Burgess said. "We felt like we had a pretty solid team all around, and I think the Scores were much higher than usual, and that was directly attributed to the winds in northern Stockton. One organizer thought they might have reached 40 mph.

Three of the section's top golfers were in the first foursome, including Jesuit's John Catlin and Christian Brothers' Jordan Swanson. Catlin will play next season at New Mexico.

The two said they tried to not get frustrated by the conditions and eventually adjusted on the back nine.

"There are a lot of good teams out here," Catlin said. "But I knew that it was going to be tough to break 80."

Catlin and Swanson each carded 79s to lead their teams.

Christian Brothers was the defending section champion, and Jesuit was hoping to overtake the Falcons. The Marauders didn't but were pleased to advance and survive.

"We came out here, and the wind was brutal all day," Jesuit coach Kevin Fleming said. "I've never seen so many three-putts in my life."

Along with the three teams, four individuals not on those squads advanced to the NorCals. Daniel Covrig of Johansen was the medalist with a 75. Three individuals tied for second with 76s and moved on: Beau Warda of Turlock Christian, Anthony Man-

NATIONWIDE TOUR FRUSTRATING FOR JUSTESEN, JOHNSON

Erick Justesen and Tom Johnson are members of the Nationwide Tour.

Not that it's done them any good two months into the 2009 season. Neither got into the first five tournaments this year, and neither is in the field for this week's Stonebrae Classic at TPC San Francisco Bay in Hayward.

It's driving Justesen crazy.

"I'm working my butt off and feel like I'm playing really good," Justesen said. "I'm getting the bug to golf and it's just a helpless feeling. I'd just like to get into a tournament."

Both players have conditional Nationwide status: Justesen, a Natoma resident, from advancing to the final stage of the PGA Tour qualifying tournament last year; and Johnson, a Del Campo High School graduate now living in Westerville, from finishing 72nd on the Nationwide money list last year. Their priority number isn't great enough so far.

Justesen needed a Louisiana last week for a one-day Nationwide qualifier and failed Monday to qualify for the Stonebrae event. He has attempted unsuccessfully to qualify for things to make it more developmental, Johnson said.

"They have it set up so guys don't try to make it a career on the Nationwide Tour, which kind of flies in the face of what they're saying."

Johnson, whose priority number is 15 spots higher than Justesen, expects he'll be playing soon. Justesen said he might have to take advantage of his full Canadian Tour status.

In the meantime, both were happy to have a Golden State minitour event in Walnut Creek at which to tee it up.

A rare bird

Things weren't going so great for Joey Cohen last Tuesday. The Christian Brothers High School senior was 5 over par through eight holes in a nine-hole match against Galt at Lockeford Springs.

One great swing later and Cohen had bagged the rarest of birds - a double eagle. The 17-year-old's 5-iron second shot from 200 yards on the 488-yard ninth hole found the bottom of the cup.

"There was a chest bump on the green, I don't think I've ever seen that happen in golf," said Falcons coach Kirk Purdy, who witnessed the shot from the nearby seventh green.

Cohen's shot salvaged a 38, not great for Christian Brothers' No. 2 player who has a handicap index of 15, but one he will remember for

Sutter Middle School team looks to remain perfect

Math, girls and acne - middle school boys have enough hanging over their heads without the pressure of maintaining a nine-year winning streak.

But the reality is, the seventh- and eighth-graders on the Sutter Middle School boys golf team will be aware of their role in preserving perfection when they begin their 2009 season Thursday at Land Park against Smythe Academy of Arts and Sciences.

"That's our goal every year, so there's some pressure there, no doubt," said Gary Faeth, a physical education teacher at the school and the golf coach for six years.

Sutter is unbeaten in the nine-team Sacramento City Unified School District Golf League, and has been since the league's formation nine years ago. Seeking increased competition over the years, Sutter has scrimmaged twice against McClatchy High School, each school winning once, Faeth said.

Tiger Woods receives a lot of credit for Sutter's success, the coach said. "Golf is a cool thing for kids now

HIGH SCHOOL GOLF

Fresh face has helped Jesuit stay on course

By BILL PATERSON
bpateron@sacbee.com

Jesuit High School golf coach Kevin Fleming has basketball coach Greg Harcos on his thank-you list.

Harcos lobbied hard for the school to change its long-standing policy that didn't allow freshmen to play varsity sports. Fleming said the rule was changed this year, and the golf team may be the biggest beneficiary.

Without freshman Chris Macasaet, the Marauders would not be making their maiden appearance in Wednesday's California Interscholastic Federation boys state golf championships at Poppy Hills in Pebble Beach.

Jesuit is one of six teams - three from Northern California and three from Southern California - that will compete in the daylong event on one of the state's most storied public courses.

Although Fleming knew the Marauders would be strong again this year with the return of seniors John Catlin, Harrison Murk, Ryan Irish and John Byers, and the addition of junior varsity standout Cameron Skreden, a junior, Macasaet proved the difference.

"I remember we were getting ready for our first tournament, and athletic director Phil Nuxoll told me, Kevin, you really need to justify this," Fleming said of his decision to play Macasaet on the varsity. "Well, we go to a tournament in Stockton in the pouring rain. There's 102 kids, and he comes back with the low round. He's fit right in."

Catlin, arguably the area's top high school player, and Murk were sold right away.

"After he showed up for our first tournament and tied me, I knew this guy was definitely going to help us," said Catlin, who will play in the fall on scholarship at New Mexico.

Added Murk: "Having him

RATONWIDE TOUR PREPARING FOR JUSTEREN, JOHNSON

The National Interscholastic Athletic Association (NIAA) is preparing for the upcoming national championships. The event is being held in Stockton, California, and will feature a variety of sports. The NIAA is a non-profit organization that oversees interscholastic sports in the United States. The national championships are held annually and provide a platform for high school athletes to compete against the best in the country. This year's championships are expected to be a highly competitive event, with many top athletes vying for the top spots in each sport. The NIAA is committed to providing a fair and equitable environment for all participants, and is dedicated to promoting the growth and development of interscholastic sports.

on our team really has allowed us to get to state."

Macasaet proved his value at the CIF Northern California championships May 18 at Butte Creek in Chico. He turned in the team's low score, a 1-over-par 73.

"Chris is 5-6, 130 pounds soaking wet," Fleming said. "He's very quiet - humble kid. But he's tenacious on the course."

Catlin and Irish shot 75s, Murk a 77 and Byers an 80 to help the Marauders land the third and final state qualifying spot with a 380. Jesuit finished four strokes behind Carmel (376) and seven behind champion Cardinal Newman of Santa Rosa (373).

Jesuit enters the state tournament with little to lose.

has won three of the four boys state tournaments that have been held, and the only two previous area qualifiers, Rocklin last season and Christian Brothers in 2007, finished last.

La Costa Canyon shot an impressive 365 in winning the CIF Southern California championship on Wednesday in Murrieta. The other qualifiers, Great Oak of Temecula and Westlake of Westlake Village, tied for second with 368s.

"I just think they have a bigger pool of kids from which to draw," said Murk. "But I think with this team, if we all play to our level, we have a good shot of beating those schools."

One factor working in favor of the Marauders is their familiarity with the course. During spring break each year, Fleming takes his players to practice and play at the Carmel-area venues, including Poppy Hills this year.

"Most of the guys tend to shoot pretty well on that golf course," Catlin said. "It suits our games really well. So it almost gives us a little advantage."

Course knowledge may offset the scheduling advantage Southern California schools appear to have. Whereas the SoCal finals were five days ago, the NorCal finals were held three weeks ago.

Jesuit held graduation May 23, and the team has practiced together only three times since, but not with everyone present. On Friday, Macasaet was absent because of a junior tournament in Arizona. Monday, Catlin was in Southern California visiting his brother.

"It's a little bit different game when you are out there playing and practicing as a team as opposed to as an individual," Catlin said. "I think they have had a chance to build a little more team chemistry."

Fleming has coached his seniors four years - 2006 as the JV coach and the last three as the varsity boss - so he knows this is their moment.

"I like our chemistry, I like our personnel, so I feel real comfortable about our chances," Fleming said.

Marauders have had quite a ride

It's been a banner year for the Jesuit High School golf team. As the Marauders prepare to play in Wednesday's California Interscholastic Federation boys state golf championships at Poppy Hills in Pebble Beach, here's a look at the highlights:

■ Winning their own Father Joe Barry Jr. Masters tournament for the first time in 17 years (beating second-place Cardinal Newman) March 13-14 at Ancil Hoffman, and placing first at the St. Mary's Kickoff Classic on Feb. 23 in Stockton.

■ Winning the Delta River League and Sac-Joquin Section Division I North championships; placing second by a stroke to rival Folsom at the section Masters championship May 11 in Stockton; taking third at the CIF Northern California championships May 18 in Chico.

■ Beating rival Christian Brothers for the first time in four years March 5.
