With umbrella in hand, Br. George is confident that the "Gaels" of last March have been silenced and the Christian Brothers community will be given a newly repaired and renovated gymnasium. The newly named "Ron Limeberger Gym" will be a "dandy" one at that.

Christian Brothers Welcomes New President

THIS PAST SPRING the Board of Trustees announced the appointment of Lorcan P. Barnes as the new President/CEO, effective July 1, 2004. Mr. Barnes' resume came to the Christian Brothers' Board of Trustees through De La Salle Institute in Napa. De La Salle Institute is the main office of the Christian Brothers (District of San Francisco).

Mr. Barnes comes to Christian Brothers from Dayton, Ohio, where he served as President/CEO of Chaminade-Julienne Catholic High School from 1996-2004. Chaminade-Julienne is similar to Christian Brothers in many ways. It enjoys an excellent reputation for faith formation, academics, athletics, arts, and community service. It is 120 years old, with alumni serving as leaders throughout the region. It is a school of 1,000 students, who come from diverse backgrounds and neighborhoods to a downtown school. It is a school with a history of single gender education that has successfully transitioned to a coeducational school. One distinguishing characteristic is that "C-J" is owned by two religious orders, the Society of Mary (Marianist priests and brothers) and the Sisters of Notre Dame de Namur. In his eight years, Mr. Barnes was responsible for strengthening Catholic identity, increasing tuition assistance, improving faculty/staff compensation, and upgrading the campus and facilities.

From 1991-96, Mr. Barnes served as the Assistant to the President at his alma mater, Loyola High School of Los Angeles. Prior to that, he taught, coached, and participated in retreat work at Loyola H.S. and St. Mary High School in Jersey City, New Jersey. He holds a B.A. from Loyola Marymount University (Los Angeles) and an M.B.A. from Woodbury University (Burbank). Mr. Barnes and his wife, Patti, are native Californians. They have three sons, ages 10, 8, and 5. Their extended family is peppered throughout the state.

Mr. Barnes was drawn to Christian Brothers and Sacramento for several reasons. Professionally, he was impressed with the forward looking approach to Catholic education exemplified by the Christian Brothers. He was taken in by the enthusiasm and stewardship of the Board of Trustees. He was comforted in knowing the Principal, Mr. Schulze, and his staff were experienced and dedicated professionals who enjoyed widespread respect. He found Christian Brothers to be more financially sound than other schools. He saw a school with a stable enrollment and a strong reputation in all the important areas. Personally, Sacramento achieved his personal goal of being closer to his extended family. In sum, Mr. Barnes felt that this is the type of school to which he would proudly send his own children.

As President/CEO, Mr. Barnes' role is to make sure the mission of Christian Brothers H.S. is vibrant and tangible for today's students and to take the steps necessary so that this educational ministry serves our Church and broader community for generations to come. To this end, he is involved in governance relationships (Board of Trustees, the Christian Brothers' District of San Francisco, etc.) financial oversight, fundraising, public relations, strategic planning, campus development, and other matters. In the President-Principal model of school leadership, the President delegates the daily operation of the school to Principal. Christian Brothers is very fortunate to have a strong Principal in Mr. Rudy Schulze and he is supported by a capable and dedicated staff. Part of Mr. Barnes' responsibility will be to provide Mr. Schulze and staff with the vision and the resources to provide today's students with a first class Catholic education in the Lasallian tradition.

Mr. Barnes has been spending much of his first few months listening to faculty/staff, students and parents, alumni, trustees, the Brothers, and broader community leaders. He is taking his time to learn what makes Christian Brothers H.S. a unique community so that he can lead the school with a healthy balance of respect for tradition and a desire to remain a leader in Catholic secondary education in Sacramento and beyond. ■

A Message From The President

Lorcan P. Barnes, President

Dear friends of Christian Brothers:

I am honored to be a part of the Christian Brothers community.

When my wife, Patti, and I were looking to move west to be closer to our family in Visalia and Los Angeles, we looked at several opportunities. We were not just looking for a 'job' for me. We were looking for a family-friendly city to raise our family. We were looking for a parish community with a strong school for our three sons. We knew the school I chose to minister at would be the high school our sons would attend. We are very happy to have landed in Sacramento at Christian Brothers.

As we explored our options, certain elements made Christian Brothers an exciting opportunity. The Christian Brothers are a religious order with a clear mission and a creative, forward-looking approach to education. The Board of Trustees has a deep sense of stewardship and is willing to plan effectively for the long-term strength of the school. I was comforted to know that the Principal, Mr. Rudolf Schulze and his administrative team and faculty, are strong, well-respected, and professional. I was impressed that the school was in sound financial condition and enjoyed a stable enrollment. Mark Warren, my predecessor, deserves credit for much of the success we currently enjoy. And, perhaps, most importantly, Christian Brothers High School is the type of school to which I would proudly send my own children.

In my first few months, much of my time has been spent listening and learning. In future issues of "Connection," I look forward to sharing with you how our value-centered education in the Lasallian tradition continues to touch the hearts and souls of our students. You will read how we remain a leader in Catholic education without sacrificing the changeless core of our mission.

To those whom I have met, thank you for the warm welcome you have shared with my family and me. To those whom I have yet to meet, I look forward to meeting you. I am grateful for the opportunity to serve our students and the broader Christian Brothers community.

Thank you for your support of Christian Brothers. Together we will ensure that the vision of St. John Baptist de La Salle will continue to grow in Sacramento - and through our graduates, throughout the world.

God bless,

Board of Trustees Welcomes Three New Members

ALL SCHOOLS THROUGHOUT the Christian Brothers' District of San Francisco are independently incorporated. The Christian Brothers in Napa, however, still retain ultimate responsibility for their apostolates. To aid them in leading their schools, the Brothers have done an excellent job training and empowering lay leadership to embrace and articulate their charism. Trustees at each school are expected to understand the history, educational philosophy, and spirituality of St. John Baptist de La Salle and the order he founded. Part of the training for potential Trustees is a two-day workshop in Napa.

The following individuals have recently joined the Board of Trustees at Christian Brothers

- Mr. Peter Berghuis - Executive Director of Sacramento Food Bank Services in Oak Park
- Mrs. Patty Moore - Alumni Parent, Family Advocate for Sacramento Unified School District
- Fr. James T. Murphy - Rector at the Cathedral, Director of Vocations for the Diocese, and Associate Publisher of the Catholic Herald

The returning Trustees are:

- Mr. Mike Ingoglia '65 (2004-05 Chair)
- Mr. Robert Jordan
- Mr. David Rasul '65
- Mrs. Janet Ruggiero
- Ms. Rita Spillane
- Ms. Thea Stidum
- Br. George Van Grieken, FSC

We are grateful to Sr. Kathleen Horgan, RSM and Msgr. Al O'Connor who completed terms at the end of the 2003-04 school year. Christian Brothers H.S. is fortunate to have such dedicated and talented men and women willing to serve our students, the Brothers, and our broader Church and community in this important ministry. ■

Thank You Mr. Mark Warren

IN THE EARLY AND MID 1990'S, Christian Brothers High School experienced difficulty in keeping enrollment at a level of sustainability and growth. Under the passionate and dedicated watch of Mr. Mark Warren, the school developed and implemented goals and strengthened its commitment to our Lasallian charism.

During his 7 1/2 years as President/CEO of Christian Brothers, Mr. Warren was instrumental in growing tuition assistance programs for low and middle-income families; academic and co-curricular programs were enriched; and the school's endowment fund grew dramatically. He implemented a faculty/staff compensation program that would help the school attract and retain high-quality, mission-oriented professionals. His collaboration with CB Community leaders and staff in preparing a Strategic Plan and Marketing Plan directly led to the successful implementation of a capital campaign. As a result of that success, our students today attend classes and co-curricular activities in the state-of-the-art Science, Math and Technology (SMAT) wing.

Christian Brothers appreciated the quiet and calming leadership of Mr. Warren, especially during the 2003-2004 school year when two students died tragically. The Christian Brothers community is grateful to Mr. Warren for his years of dedication and service. Thank you, Mr. Mark Warren. ■

Alumni Association Past President Phil Bokan '92 thanks Mr. Mark Warren for his years of service at CB during the dinner of the Alumni Golf Tournament in May.

A Catastrophe Turned Blessing

By Bob Sylva '68

ON THE MORNING OF FEBRUARY 25, 2004 — Ash Wednesday, to be exact — the forces of nature paid a visit to Christian Brothers High School. Throughout the north state, 60 mph winds and thrashing rains ransacked the landscape, toppling trees, crushing houses, knocking down power lines, closing roads, causing havoc.

In the school gymnasium, the student choir was warming up for that morning's peaceful liturgy when someone remarked about "this racket on the roof!"

It wasn't Santa Claus. It was the heavens opening up.

In seconds, an 800-square-foot section of the gym's roof was suddenly competing in a gigantic discus event, shards and fragments, the accumulated Sistine ceiling of years of reverence and screaming, landing in the parking lot, in the athletic fields. What was left was daylight. A deluge of water playing on the parquet floor, how biblical.

As with just about everything connected with long-graced and eternally protected Christian Brothers High School, it was an act of God — sudden, swift, mysterious, but, ultimately, provident. A catastrophe turned blessing.

Oh, things were mopped up soon enough. You probably chuckled over that comical — in hindsight — news photo of Brother George Van Grieken, FSC strolling through "Lake CB" holding a blithe umbrella as maintenance chief Joe Guilherme and his loyal crew labored furiously to sponge, squeegee and pump the cascade of rainwater off the gym floor. But Christian Brothers High School, true to its character, took this latest, sodden setback in stride. Repairs were made, campus life resumed.

Still, as Ash Wednesday reminds us all of our mortality, this unexpected event underscored a fault we here have known about for some time but have failed to rectify. The CB gym, built in 1956 is at the end of its life span. The structure, its decades of heroic service notwithstanding, is old, outmoded, a beaten warrior. It's a relic compared with the expansive athletic and performing arts centers being built today and falls woefully short of the unparalleled standards that Christian Brothers strives to achieve in all its campus facilities, as evidenced by its new Science, Math, and Technology wing.

Thus, responding to the gusty nudge from our Lord above, Christian Brothers High School initiated an exciting, unprecedented campaign to thoroughly upgrade and modernize the school gymnasium. Just a short list of improvements includes: air conditioning, a sound-dampening baffle for the ceiling, a concert-quality sound system, Broadway-worthy theatrical lighting, and completely renovated locker rooms, for both girls and boys, with new showers, fresh tile work, polished surfaces and sparkling-clean lavatories. Sounds and smells like heaven, no?

Better yet, the school is proud and pleased, if not tearful, to announce that the new complex will be named The Ron Limeberger Gym.

Sadly, the Christian Brothers community lost its most devoted, most enthused supporter this year, a mighty passing that was a portent of the gym's unpeeling. On January 8, Ron Limeberger '53 died of a sudden heart attack. He was 69 years old. He leaves his wife of 46 years, Joan, twin sons, Mike '76 and Mark '76, both CB graduates, daughter Jill Sackett '79, graduate of Bishop Manogue, plus eight grandchildren, including Melissa Limeberger '97, Matthew Limeberger '01, Amanda Limeberger, 16, a junior at CB.

Asked what it is like to be Ron Limeberger's granddaughter, Amanda says, "It's an honor. Whenever people find out who I am, there are always stories about him. Everyone always has lots of memories." She laughs. "Sometimes, they give me a hard time!" (One can only imagine the playful ribbing, the knowing nods of respect). "But I'm proud to go to CB. It meant a lot to my grandfather."

No, Amanda, it meant everything.

Ron Limeberger was "Mr. Christian Brothers." He graduated from the school (class of '53), where he was student body president, an all-city basketball and baseball player. After Sacramento State College, he came back to CB. And never left. He taught for 42 years. He coached basketball and baseball, the latter sport for 31 years, compiling an incredible 431 wins. He taught endless classes of health, P.E., and driver's ed. How many students on the road today learned to drive from Mr. Limeberger?

Omnipresent, he seemed to live on campus. Upon his retirement in the spring of 2000, Mr. Limeberger — crusty outside, cream filling inside; but not a man prone to wax philosophic — in a farewell story, reflected: "A good teacher is a good coach. A good coach is a good teacher. Once you learn to teach, it just sort of flows with you. Each kid is individual. I figured up the other day I had about 16,000 students over the last 42 years. It's not only the ones you've touched but the ones who've touched you. When a student comes back later in life and says, 'Hey, thanks!' Then I've done my job."

What a job. What a legacy he left the school. "What you see is what you get with Ron Limeberger," Mr. Greg Meegan, a popular history teacher at CB, once remarked. Meegan doesn't mince too many words himself. "He only has one face, and it's always to the front. He is brutally honest, courageous under fire, and the most loved teacher and coach I have ever known."

Jack Witry, a retired teacher whose own loyalty to CB is boundless, recalls his colleague and fellow coach, saying, "He loved that school. His heart and soul were in that school. He dedicated most of his life to the school. The school came first."

The Limeberger family is both pleased and humbled by this honor bestowed upon their dearly missed husband and father. Says Joan Limeberger: "He absolutely loved CB. That was the love of his life. I would always tease him that CB came first, that the kids and I were second. My family is thrilled. This is just so wonderful. I think it is deserving. But I only wish he could be here to see it."

And what would Ronnie's reaction be?

"He would cry," assures Mr. Witry.

And what will the gymnasium naming achieve?

"It will bring back memories," declares Mr. Witry. "Everybody who knows Christian Brothers knows Ronnie Limeberger. It will be an identity."

Indeed. But beyond that, it will be an advantage.

Athletic teams and cultural performances will improve, liturgies will soar, assemblies will inspire. The school will rally and triumph. You doubt such miracles on Martin Luther King Boulevard? Hey, God didn't raise the roof for nothing. So close your eyes. Take a seat in the new gymnasium. Watch the action. Hear the thunder. And amid the cheers, hear the inimitable rat-tat-tat patter of Ronnie Limeberger.

With such a spirit present, how can we ever lose?

The Ron Limeberger Gym Repair and Improvement Project

Campaign Raises $700,000 in 6 months

In response to the calamity a group of loyal CB Falcons gathered to raise the funds necessary to complete the improvements. The school had planned to upgrade the gym in Phase II of the Capital Campaign some time in the next few years. (Phase I, included the creation of the Science, Math, and Technology wing.) Since the gym was forced to close for repairs for six months a decision was made to accelerate this portion of Phase II.

At the end of the six month campaign, 199 individuals and families made gifts & pledges totaling $728,000. Gifts ranged from $1 to $210,000. Faculty and Staff contributed more than $60,000 to this project, which helps our students and honors their colleague. If you wish to join with these individuals by making a gift, please contact the CB Advancement Office at 733-3600.

Costs:

- $1 million (approximately) Repair
- $1.4 million (approximately) Improvements

Finance Plan:

- $1 million Insurance
- $700,000 Fundraising
- $700,000 Self Financed (over 7 years)

I WORK AT A LARGE, CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL in a not-so-good neighborhood. It's not so desperately poor that you've never seen anything like it. You have. But nor is it the kind of place you'd want to spend much time. Or need to. It's the kind of neighborhood that people drive around, not through, unless they have a reason to be there. The kind of neighborhood some kids try to make it out of, and other kids are taught to stay away from. On hot days it seems oppressive, and on gray days it seems grim. The rest of the time, it sort of just gets by - much like a lot of the folks who live there.

The signs are obvious and familiar: bars on the windows, empty lots, occasional boarded up homes, corner liquor stores, Section 8 housing, and Spanish billboards for beer. You see lots of families with young children, a rainbow immigrant community, and plenty of people doing their best and calling this home. Lots of baby strollers and young moms, occasional low-flying helicopters, and sadly, lots of sirens. Always, too many sirens. But today, there was a pure kind of silence in the middle of this neighborhood. Something extraordinary happened. And it wasn't the first time.

Well over a thousand people, mostly teenagers, assembled on a giant, perfectly manicured lawn. (This alone merits recognition. Green grass is hard to come by along this concrete boulevard, though rose gardens seem to bloom from the dirt in front of many homes.) The crowd wasn't organized into tight rows or aisles. There was no system to the seating except that all the kids were on beach towels and picnic blankets; a giant patchwork of packs of friends. Slumped together, back to back, some people's heads resting on other people's knees and laps when they could get away with it. Guys, girls, all of them squished together, cozier and closer than most adults would want to be. A big tangled web of teenagers, hanging out on the grass, mostly-quiet in the mid-morning sun. And then they began to pray.

In silence.

In unison.

And with beautiful music.

And when they do this, when we do this (as I am part of this crowd), I like to imagine that I am instead on the sidewalk. That maybe I live in this neighborhood and I am walking, say, from the market, or to the bus stop, or I'm on my way to the Laundromat. And as I pass by the parking lot and black gates, I hear something and I turn. And there, like it's the last thing one might imagine to see, is a gathering

Lasallian Educator of the Year Award

Mr. Kenny Kirrene '78

IN A LASALLIAN SCHOOL A DEDICATED TEACHER leads a life which serves as an example for his or her teachers and for the students in the school. This Lasallian teacher strives to lead a life that incorporates and emphasizes 12 virtues. Among these twelve virtues are patience, gentleness, generosity, and a caring presence. All four of these virtues are essential elements in the teacher's relationship with his or her students and they are an integral part of the relationship this year's Lasallian Educator of the Year has with his students. These virtues are constantly seen in his presence with and behavior towards the students whose care he is charged with. This individual is constantly present to his students in a manner that is supportive, respectful, loving and gentle. He provides his students with a sense of self-worth and dignity, and he sees God's presence in all of you. During the extremely difficult times of this school year, this teacher was constantly available to all students who needed his help and advice and to those who just needed someone to listen to their fears and concerns. Our Lasallian Educator of the year has worked with his students in this manner for the past twelve years and is a Christian Brothers' alumnus whose character was moulded in the Lasallian tradition long before he graduated. The Lasallian Educator of the year for 2004 is Mr. Kenny Kirrene '78. ■ over a thousand strong, in quiet prayer, in the middle of this perfectly ordinary Thursday morning. I like to wonder, what would I think if I saw this? What do they think? Does somebody hear us? See us? Notice the grace? Do our voices reach to the corner?

I want them to.

We're not muffled by a roof and the walls of a chapel or a gymnasium. No high hedges or brick walls to keep us "in" and the neighborhood "out." We're right out there on the grass, not more than 100 yards from the street, from the baby strollers, the liquor stores, and the sirens. Sometimes I like to think we're praying with the neighbors; a kind of "come-as-you-are" invitation to prayer. I want the neighbors to hear with us the comfort in the priest's words, "Grant us peace in our day." I want them to say with us, "It is right to give God thanks and praise." I want this patchwork blanket of young people in prayer to gently stretch over the gates and down the block.

As teachers in this school, we are asked to see the face of God. It is our duty, our good faith effort when we come to work each day. Often times I don't think about this. (Though I know it happens, I haven't always recognized it as this.) Sometimes this mission seems hard or abstract. Sometimes at 3 o'clock when you want to scream or cry (or both) and never speak to another teenager again, it seems near impossible.

Today it seemed easy. We were the face of God having church on the lawn. Together, we were a giant, impossible-to-miss, sign of faith in the middle of a tired, run-down street in Sacramento.

How could someone not have noticed? ■

A Falcon Story!

Known as the 'Gaels' for more than eighty years, Christian Brothers High School adopted the school mascot of the Falcon as the boys on 21st and Broadway merged with the campus of Bishop Armstrong on "Sacramento Blvd." in the early 60's. Since then there has been a variety of Falcon mascots including the popular "Freddie Falcon" of the 70's and early eighties. The Falcon mascot depicted on various uniforms has looked like the NFL's Atlanta Falcons, a variation of the Seattle Seahawks in the 80's, and recently the Air Force Academy Falcon. Through the efforts of local designer Paul Page and the CB administration, Christian Brothers has a new falcon mascot that is unique to the school and will serve as the "Falcon" image for all teams, booster and school related representations of the school mascot. The CB Falcon is one of a kind, just like the institution it represents. Go Falcons!

CHRISTIAN BROTHERS

HIGH SCHOOL

COLLEGE PREPARATORY

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT

October, 2004

Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends of Christian Brothers High School:

The following pages comprise our 2003-04 Annual Report. We are grateful to the alumni, parents, and friends who have supported the school over the past year.

Christian Brothers High School is a ministry of the Catholic Church and the Christian Brothers. In order to ensure that this ministry thrives today and well into the future, we responsibly employ sound business practices. In addition to listing the names of our contributors, the Annual Report contains some financial information from the 2003-04 fiscal year (July 1, 2003 - June 30, 2004).

Christian Brothers High School is an excellent place for you to invest your charitable gifts whether your charitable interest is religion, education, poverty, adolescent issues, diversity, or urban renewal. We are careful stewards of your gift because without the support of our benefactors, we would not be able to offer our students a value-centered Catholic education in the Lasallian tradition.

If you have not visited Christian Brothers High School in the past few years, please call our Advancement Office to arrange for a tour. We are proud to show our alumni and friends how we continue to touch the souls, hearts, and minds of students. We welcome the opportunity to thank you for your past support and invite your ongoing investment in our mission.

On behalf of the Christian Brothers, the Board of Trustees, the faculty and staff, and the entire community, thank you for your prayers, your words of encouragement, and your financial support. Working together, we can make the vision of St. John Baptist de La Salle a reality. We can build Christ's Kingdom - one student at a time.

Gratefully,

Lorcan P. Barnes

Stay connected! Don't Be Left Out... of our upcoming 2005 Alumni Directory

Even if it has been years since you last made contact, you can still reconnect with long-lost friends.

We are currently compiling an updated Alumni Directory, an invaluable resource with personal, academic and business information on all of our alumni. Don't miss your chance to be included. Be sure to provide your updated information when contacted.

IT'S UNBELIEVABLE HOW FAST the past six months have flown by since I became the Director of Alumni Relations, but what an exciting and fast paced journey it has been. As I reflect on the time since that first day of March, I'd like to share with you some of those images I have observed from my vantage point.

On the very first day I met then Alumni Association President Phil Bokan '92 for a beverage after work and for an informal visit. During that visit I observed a very committed volunteer who was in place to lead the association. Even though his term was winding down, with just four months to go, he was still very passionate about contributing to his alma mater and had the desire to motivate his fellow association board members in the mutual quest to help the CB community. I also realized that Phil wanted to accomplish all those goals and objectives while having lots of FUN and to make it enjoyable for everyone else.

Just a couple of days later I was introduced at the Alumni Association Board of Directors monthly meeting. I observed a fairly typical meeting with the usual agenda but during the next six months, I had many occasions to interact with all the Board members and was amazed at what I saw. This group of twenty-one volunteers also shared Phil's passion and interest in supporting their alma mater in a variety of ways. Some enjoyed the work in the trenches, serving on the various special event committees and making the plans work. Some displayed strong leadership qualities and were very helpful in developing plans and objectives. Some were able to help financially support the many needs of the school. Truly a cross section of talents had come together to make a positive difference in the CB community.

Also during this time, I have observed a very strong staff. From the President's office all the way through to the various support positions. Everyone with whom I have come in contact has been extremely helpful and supportive of each other. A true “team concept” that allows for a fun and productive work environment as we all try to create a positive influence in the CB community.

Finally I have observed what a treasure we have in all the special students walking the grounds at Christian Brothers. I had many occasions to see them in action. Many helped our Alumni Association make phone calls during our six-week Annual Appeal which was greatly appreciated. Many displayed their excellence during various activities and at their graduation ceremony. Without a doubt, they will all leave an imprint in the history of the CB community.

From my vantage point, these were some enjoyable observations and there were many more. As the journey continues, I can hardly wait to see what lies ahead, but for the last eight months, thank you to the many in the CB community for the special “Kodak moments.” ■

A Message from The Alumni Association President

By Bob Perry '56

AFTER STARTING THIS MESSAGE several times, I've decided to write about what makes the Alumni Association work, and that's the people. There are twenty Alumni members on the Board of Directors and, more importantly, and too-numerous-to-count committee members, who seem to come from nowhere and charge-up one or more of the Alumni Association's annual major events. That is, the Alumni Dinner, the Golf Tournament, and the Wine Tasting Extravaganza.

If you don't already know, one of our main functions as the Alumni Association is to "Assist the Students at Christian Brothers". We assist them financially through our donations and participation in fund-raising events. The funds we raise off-set the cost of tuition at Christian Brothers High School. With rising tuition, the importance of this function increases.

The people, who give of themselves and their time as a Board Member, Committee Chairperson, or a Committee Member, amaze me! But why should it? After all these "Grown-ups" are a product of CBHS! Our Alumni have taken their places in the world and are now giving back to the Christian Brothers community any way they can. And that is what I invite you to do.

Get out of your chair, turn off the television and get involved. We can always use your help and your talent. You don't have to be a Board Member or Committee Chairperson, just simply join us at any of our events, for as I've said, you are Brothers Boys and Girls, and you've grown up, so isn't it time to give something back? And, who knows, you may like it! To find out more about what you can do for Brothers; call Larry Cline, Director of Alumni Relations at (916) 733-3647. I'm sure a chance to give back is just waiting for you.

I have to thank a classmate of mine for getting me involved. He is one of the great people you find in the Christian Brothers Alumni Association. We all know these types of people. We respect them and wish we could be more like them. So now, this is your chance.

I look forward to seeing you at a Board or Committee meeting during my watch.

St. John Baptist de la Salle - Pray for us! ■

Alumni Life

Joseph Lopes '26 Recalls the Early, Early Years

By Kenny Kirrene '78

Joseph Lopes '26 reconnects with Christian Brothers High School

Lopes attended the 21st and Broadway school

THE STORIES OF CHRISTIAN BROTHERS are the stories of Sacramento... Despite the changes in name and location the heritage and mission of the brothers continues in the connections made throughout the past 128 years of its presence here in Sacramento. I drove out to Wilton this past August, to "the house on the hill," where resided Joseph Lopes, a graduate of the Golden Jubilee (1876-1926) of the Christian Brothers in Sacramento. Little has changed in the past eighty years he has farmed and ranched this area. Flooding has caused much devastation, significantly when the Cosumnes has left its banks, yet Mr. Lopes believes it is this flooding that has made his "bottomland" so rich, so fertile, so fecund. Mr. Lopes relationship with the land began in the second grade, when his father moved the family from Placerville, as the only dairyman, to out along the "old" Pocket Road, a collection of farms and farmers, of mostly Japanese and Portuguese decent. Specifically, Joseph's family comes from Pico, an island of the Azores, home to many of our current crew at CB who work hard and smile often. From the farm of Mr. Lopes and his fellow Portuguese have grown neighborhoods and families who have created their own memories of Sacramento. Back in Wilton, Mr. Lopes and I sat out back on the patio from where we had a view of oaks and fields, the levee guiding the Cosumnes about a quarter of a mile away from the rise of his backyard.

Mr. Lopes has a good memory and recalled easily his parent's choice of sending him to Christian Brothers because it was a "Catholic school and had a good reputation." At the time in 1922, I-5 did not exist and so Joseph had to ride his bike in from the "Pocket" to the school located at that time at 12th and K. The ride was often long and uneventful, except on those occasions when he availed himself of the "opportunity" to grab onto the back of one of the haul trucks that came in from the old brickyard, delivering its load of bricks to the many new building sites around town. Much of the clay for these bricks came from what is now called "Greenhaven Lake." Joe's salient memories of the school at 12th and K, that it was hot, in poor shape, and needed much repair, contrasts with the memories of those who knew a different school, regarded in 1876 as "the finest building in the city." Joe passed only one year at this site before he and his classmates moved to a temporary site, the East Sacramento Public School building at 39th and J Streets, near what is now Sacred Heart

Church. This school site was also old and hot, not however that the heat was too much for him as he spent many hours in the blazing Sacramento sun working his family's land. Yet, as a junior in the fall of 1924, he did welcome the new rooms and facilities of the campus on 21st and Broadway, in that they were “modern and closer to his home.” According to Joe, the academic courses, though set and predetermined, were challenging and interesting: English, science, math, Spanish, and religion occupied much of his time. As a result of the rigors of study, and honoring his commitment to his family's farm, he did not have too much time for sports or the beauties who attended St. Joseph's Academy. During Joe's second year at this location, the Christian Brothers and Sacramento communities celebrated Joe's senior year as the Golden Jubilee of the Christian Brothers in Sacramento. Fifty years later, during my sophomore year at the school's current location, Joe would celebrate his own Golden Jubilee as an alum of the school which happened to also be the school's centennial here in Sacramento. Talk about connections! After being graduated in 1926, Mr. Lopes stayed true to his family's ties to the land and returned to farming and ranching, occupations he continued for almost the next eighty years.

Connecting with the heritage of the Christian Brothers here in Sacramento, Joe has his memories of the Brothers and their associations with their students. He remembers their “love” and “concern” for him, the “high academic expectations” they set, and their reputation for taking those kids who found it difficult to follow the rules of their parents or teachers. As with many of us, Joe remembers some of these “students” and particular “methods” the Brothers had for correcting behavior they deemed inappropriate. In particular, he remembers the time when one of the Brothers threw a recalcitrant student “out the window and onto the sidewalk below them.” Eyes sparkling, Joe chuckled, “it was a good thing for both student and Brother that the window through which the student was tossed existed on the first floor of the building and not the second! Otherwise, I think both would have been in trouble!” He also recalls the time when another recalcitrant youngster, chased by an enthusiastic and “warm-blooded” younger brother, dashed out the open classroom door, leaped into his roadster parked nearby, and sped away from the young brother who was in hot pursuit. Joe never saw the student again. As it should be, methods of instruction and discipline have changed, but as a current teacher at Christian Brothers, I must say part of me envies these Brothers who had the artistic freedom to create their own methods of discipline! However, that which sticks most with Joe are not the long bike rides to school, the different campuses he attended, the antics of students or the Brother's methods in correcting them, but the moral behavior inculcated in him during his four years at CB. As he states, “We were all born with a conscience, but the Brothers showed us how to use it.” I would agree with him on this.

I drove away from Joe and “the house on the hill” feeling connected to Christian Brothers and to Sacramento. True, much has changed since his connection with CB began in 1922. Sacramento has ties to agriculture but is really no longer a farming town. The original school site at 12th and K is now mostly known as “the old Weinstocks building.” The brickyard trucks have ceased to operate and kids don't really ride their bikes to school anymore. The former East Sacramento Public School has moved to 35th and M and now is known as David Lubin Elementary. And, that “modern” school at 21st and Broadway from which Joe graduated, has been gone for almost half a century. Yet, the melancholy of things past or the regret of things changed did not visit me. Rather the satisfaction and comfort of a connection to this past was my feeling; a connection for Mr. Joseph Lopes that reaches back almost eighty years ... A connection for Sacramento that reaches back more than 128 years. ■

Dennis Fischer '54, shared with us that it has been seven years since his battle with cancer and all is going well. His brother, Danny Fischer '61, is retired, and enjoying it very much. Especially when Danny and Dennis go fishing with their nephew Steve Sules '76. Steve was a gridiron work-horse, a two-way player for the '74-'75 Metro Champion Falcons. His mother, Barbara, was a graduate of St. Joseph's Academy in 1947.

Robert Estacio, son of Bob Estacio '54, went to Christian Brothers in his freshman and sophomore years and was a graduate of Palma High School, Salinas (a Christian Brothers High School). Bob Sr. and Dennis worked together in the engineering department at the Sacramento Army Depot for over thirty years.

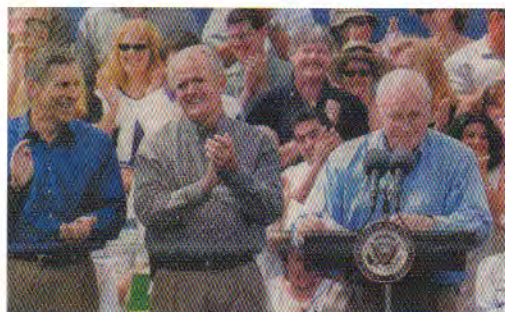

Robert Roche '54 helped on the committee to form the Alumni Association back in 1969. He served as the first President of the Alumni Association, was a member of the Board of Regents, and the Board of Trustees. Bob worked for the Redevelopment Agency in an executive position for twenty-four years. He resigned this position and started his consulting business. Some of his projects were the Capitol Bank of Commerce high-rise, Renaissance Tower and six business parks throughout the county. He coached AAU, semi pro basketball, youth basketball, baseball and semi pro baseball over a fifty-one year career. His career record is 937 wins and 437 losses. Together with his wife Jackie, he now enjoys watching his grandchildren play sports.

The 1953-1954 Gael's

The Class of '54 celebrated their 50th reunion at the Days Inn in the Strado Pasta and Grill. Kudos to Carlo Giordano '54, who with his committee members, George Lewis '54 and Bob Ferry '54 worked hard to make this a great event. Ray Clemons (Honorary '51), Roy Cortopassi '40, Larry Leonard '55, Roger Caetano '53, Emil Stagnaro and Frank Marchi were their special guests. As Head Coach, Ray Clemons fielded the 1953-54 Gaels, posting a 7 win 1 lose record and "mythical" city championship. This team was titled the best in Christian Brothers' history. Several members were placed on the all-city team that year, a first for Brothers. They were Charles Chatfeld '54, Dave Jesmer '54, Frank Lastufka '54, George Thomas '54, Bob Ferry '54, John Lewis '54 and Bob Leonard. Sadly, George Thomas and Michael Banahan are no longer with us, they will always be remembered.

Bill Bokan, Mike Ferrigno and Ralph Zentner three grads of '63 joined retired counselor Pat O'Brien to capture top honors in the Les Amis des Freres golf tournament at Rossmoor in Walnut Creek in July. Les Amis is an organization of former Brothers and their families. The winners each won a bottle of Silver Oak wine, the top-ranked cabernet that was founded by the late Justin Meyer who taught and coached during his rookie years at Bishop Armstrong and Christian Brothers in the 60's.

Jeff Warner, '83 has a two-year appointment as an attaché to the U.S. Department of Drug Enforcement in Viet Nam. He and his wife and three children, ages 13, 10 and 8, will move to the country to live and experience the new culture.

Bevan Hart '95

Bevan Hart, '95, as a high school junior Bevan knew that running track would shape the next part of his life and take him to new places. He ran for the University of California Berkeley and made national teams, won conference titles and NCAA championship and came in sixth place at the 2000 Olympic Trials. Running brought him to the U.S. Army's World Class Athlete Program, which allows soldiers the opportunity and support to make the Olympic team. Now, he's not just an athlete but a soldier too. Track has taken Bevan to places both geographic and emotional.

Recently, the track brought him home to Sacramento where he competed at the 2004 Olympic Trials where he finished seventh in the competition.

Sierra Sanchez '96 is now a Sacramento lobbyist who covers issues involving children and their development. She feels very positive about these important issues. Sierra graduated from Claremont.

Asha Jennings '00

Asha Jennings '00 is the student body president at Spelman, a historically black, all-female college in Atlanta. Asha wanted to further the progress of African American Women in society. Her stance against Nelly's new song "Tip Drill" brought the issue of negative portrayals of black women to a head and sent Asha into action. She organized a demonstration against music videos that she says exploit African American women. Her moral stance has gained national attention through newspapers, radio and television. In the fall she will be attending New York University Law School.

Authors among us...

Soon to be in print is a book co-authored by former CB counselor Pat O'Brien, "An Angel Will Light Your Way, the Sal Gaytan Story." What's special about the book is that Sal Gaytan; a one-handed all-star athlete (basketball, baseball, golf, tennis) is his tribute to Brothers who mentored him at Cathedral High School into athletics, education and life. These include the late Brother Maris Spillane who taught at Christian Brothers from 1956-1959; and Brother William Cyril Boselli, FSC who was Principal/Director at CBS from 1939-1945.

Robert Roche, '54 authored the book, "They Call Me Coach Roche", and the book includes photographs, statistics, and season highlights. He coached AAU, semi pro basketball, youth basketball, baseball and semi pro baseball. ■

CB Alum Lincoln Snyder Finds Himself Back in a Familiar Land

CHRISTIAN BROTHERS ALUM and former teacher Lincoln Snyder '95 has traveled back across the Atlantic to continue his life's journey. Returning with his wife Aga and their 3 month old son, Benjamin to be close to her family in Poland was a difficult decision but also an exciting one.

Lincoln reflects; "While at CB I was an inaugural member of the Scholars program and I distinctly remember quivering in my seat in the back of history teacher Tom English's room as a 14-year old freshman. Having German class with a beautiful Austrian teacher, Gabi Truhitte, did balance out the class day. Despite starting my Falcon career as a quintessential couch potato, I ended up lettering in cross country and track and I credit Coach Danny Delgado '79 for getting me involved. Coach had an enormously positive influence on me as a student and running for him at CB was one of the best times in my life."

He graduated from CB in 1995 as a National Merit Finalist and a Bank of America scholar. He was waitlisted at Georgetown but John Higgins did some arm twisting and got him in. Looking back Snyder realized how his whole career at CB was framed by acts of goodwill by the likes of English, Truhitte, Higgins and Delgado and they all had an influence of where he is today and that fact really makes the school a special place.

In 1999, Lincoln graduated cum laude from Georgetown's School of Foreign Service, majoring in international politics and minoring in German. He spent his junior year abroad in Vienna, Austria and while there met his future wife, Aga. After graduation, he landed a sales job in Poland for a beer can manufacturing company called Can Pack SA.

A year later, he married Aga in Gdansk,

Poland and continued to enjoy the work at Can Pack SA until September 11, 2001. That day of terrorism induced a feeling of homesickness that prompted him and Aga to move back to Sacramento in the spring of 2002. One day he stopped by CB to visit old friends and current Dean of Admissions, Dave Jablonsky '82, asked him if he'd like to teach summer school. It was an offer he couldn't refuse and that summer job turned into a full-time position when instructor Brian Durant moved to Los Angeles during the school year and Tom English and Celia Powers offered him the vacant position.

Lincoln remembers "being cast into the classroom with second semester seniors was a bit like throwing the Christians to the lions, but it was the most fun I've ever had at work, period." During his years at CB, he taught Economics, Civics, Psychology, World History and Composition and Rhetoric and also ran the enrichment program for junior high students during the past summer.

Leaving the Christian Brothers community was one of the toughest decisions Lincoln has ever had but following his wife's difficult pregnancy and her desire to be closer to family, he decided to return to Poland. He was able to go back to work for his old employer, Can Pack and is looking forward to his five year contract with the company.

It will be difficult to be so far from his family with his new son but hopefully family and friends will find their way to the beauty of Poland and it's dozens of site seeing opportunities. Castles, renaissance cities, primeval forests and the country remains relatively undiscovered and so does the journey for Lincoln Snyder. ■

OVER 1,800 GUESTS, vendors and volunteers enjoyed the festivities of the 17th Annual Wine Tasting Extravaganza held on Friday, September 10th. Remember Deceased Loved Ones on All Souls Day

Dear Alumni, Parents, and Friends,

November, the Church's month of the Feast of All Souls, is the traditional month in which Catholics remember and pray for their deceased relatives and friends. We do this with a firm faith in the fullness of life that is ours in God's presence.

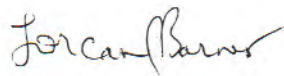

Since the Eucharist is a sign and a pledge of resurrection and God's life in our midst, it is appropriate that our deceased alumni, friends, relatives and benefactors, are remembered in the daily Masses of the Brothers' Community. We invite you to write the names of those whom you would like to have remembered at Christian Brothers High School during the month of November in the space provided and to send this list to our Campus Ministry office. We will place these names in the Brothers' chapel where they will remain and be remembered throughout the month of November.

Please do not send us any offering. You have blessed us in the past with your prayers and support, and we would like this to be our gift to you.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Br. George Van Grieken, FSC
Director

"There is for us an element of obligation to pray often to God for those who have died ... we are united with these holy souls by an external union, since we are all members of the Church and of Jesus Christ Himself..."

- St. John Baptist de La Salle

"If we have died in Christ, we believe that we shall also live with Him."

(Romans 6:8)

In your Masses and prayers during the month of November, please remember the following:
