Welcome . . .

to the
ELEVENTH ANNUAL ALL-STAR BASEBALL GAME and FOURTH ANNUAL ALL-STAR SOFTBALL GAME

The motto of the Optimist Club is "friend of the youth". What better way to be an aid to youth than to encourage them in the true spirit of sports and sportsmanship. The American leaders and statesmen of tomorrow are the youth of today and we of the Sacramento Evening Optimist Club wish to extend to you our sincere thanks for the support you have shown our program and the encouragement you extend to these four fine teams by your presence here this evening.

Our heartfelt thanks to all the people who have helped make this evening possible. I would also like to give a special thanks to the coaches and their assistants, to the players and their families, to the umpires and their fairness, to the news media and their sports departments, to the Optimist members and their untiring efforts and to the wives of Optimists for their understanding.

Optimistically yours,

The Optimist Creed

PROMISE YOURSELF —

To be strong that nothing can disturb your peace of mind.

To talk health, happiness and prosperity to every person you meet.

To make all your friends feel that there is something in them.

To look at the sunny side of everything and make your optimism come true.

To think only of the best, to work only for the best and expect only the best.

To be just as enthusiastic about the success of others as you are about your own.

To forget the mistakes of the past and press on to the greater achievements of the future.

To wear a cheerful countenance at all times and give every living creature you meet a smile.

To give so much time to the improvement of yourself that you have no time to criticize others.

To be too large for worry, too noble for anger, too strong for fear and too happy to permit the presence of trouble.
