

*Check out our suggestions for an unforgettable prom
see pages 8 & 9.*

*Student speaks out about violence in schools,
see page 5.*

We're lost, yet again, see page 7.

Christian Brothers High School

March 1999

Volume 123, Issue 5

Non-profit Organization
U.S. Postage Paid
Permit #692, Sacramento, CA

NOR-CAL CHAMPS!

Shooting at history

Brian Thorpe

inch their way through a tougher and bigger teams such as the teams from Gridley and Palma. In the season-high '94-68 victory over the Gridley Bulldogs, coach Jim Stephens responded to the crowd chanting for senior Jesse Chink who responded by scoring four points in the last minutes of the game. Palma proved to be a tougher

Read about your favorite senior sports stars; see pages 8, 9, & 10.

Looking back at the last four years-CB Reflections; see pages 3 & 4.

Learn all about the seniors in the Senior Will section; see pages 12-21.

Christian Brothers High School

May 1999

Volume 123, Issue 6

Non-Profit Organization
U.S. Postage Paid
Permit #682, Sacramento, Ca

Beloved teachers bid farewell

Lindsay Porroli
Editor in Chief

"Detention will be held in room 102 tonight after school . . ." These are very familiar words for CB students that will no longer be uttered after May 28th. Beloved friend and teacher, Mr. Jack Wiry, is retiring after this year, and all he had to say (with a giant grin on his face) about his upcoming retirement was, "They

Mr. Wiry enjoying his last few days at Christian Brothers.

Photo by Chris Fernando

Hard work pays off

Joe Sobolewski
Staff Writer

After four years of grueling classes, hours of homework and tyrannical teachers, the votes are in, and your valedictorian and salutatorian have been chosen. Allison Albertici is the senior class valedictorian and Aldo Soriano is the salutatorian.

Allison Albertici has been working arduously in her classes, and all her effort has

