

CREST '63

CREST '63

DEDICATION

To our new Bishop,
His Excellency Alden J. Bell,
the students of Bishop Armstrong High School pledge their loyalty and dedicate their 1963 CRESJ.

ARMSTRONG ODYSSEY

Every school year is an Odyssey:
A voyage into the realms
Of knowledge and human experience.
The 1963 CREST is the log
Of one such voyage
And attempts to record
The significant entries
In word and picture.

SENIORS

*Members of the Class of 1963
Are the senior mariners of the Odyssey.
Their course was plotted
In the principles
Of Christian education,
As they learned to navigate
With an eye fixed steadily
On the Guiding Star of Life.*

Falcons Bag Honkers, 19-14

The Falcons chalked up a victory in the first game of the 1962 season. Don Pintar raced 9 yards for the first touchdown. In the second quarter Dave Rakela returned a Honker punt to the opposition's 40-yard line and scored a few plays later. The Falcons scored again in the fourth quarter to cement the victory.

Falcons Brand Longhorns, 13-6

The Falcons burned their brand on the Longhorns in a 13-6 victory. Early in the first quarter, Jim Fink ran an intercepted pass 70 yards for the first touchdown. In the second quarter, John McCarthy connected with Dave Rakela for another TD. La Sierra scored once and tried again in the fourth quarter, but the Falcon line held firm.

Armstrong Gridders Pluck Favored Eagles, 17-9

Pintar (24) fights off Eagle tackler for first down.

Kazlowski (46) clears ground for McCarthy (17) as Campbell comes in to help.

A fired-up Falcon squad took the field against the favored Eagles to battle for the top spot in the county rating. The first Falcon TD came when Clemons netted McCarthy's pass in the end zone late in the first quarter. Fink intercepted a pass, and four downs later Clemons kicked a field goal. With a minute to go, the Eagles fumbled to McCarthy who raced the 13 yards to the goal. Final score: Falcons 17, Eagles 9.

Donald Pinter

The Falcons elected to stay on the ground this game. McCarthy slipped over from the 1-yard line for a TD. Pinter made it 12-0 from the 3-yard line and Clemons converted. The Falcons scored again in the third quarter as Pinter went 8 yards. Clemons' conversion was good for a 20-0 score. Grant got on the books late in the fourth quarter, too late to be a threat to the Falcons.

Falcons Fall Before Notre in Rain, 6-0

A muddy Pintar (24) fights to get at Don ball carrier.

In mud and rain the ill-started Falcons fell to the earth by a single Don TD in the second half. The game began on an ominous note as Risse broke his ankle on the first play. In a continuous downpour, both teams were plagued with fumbles. The lone TD came when Norte's Myers slipped around the Falcon end in the third quarter.

Mighty Falcons Trample Hapless Knights, 40-0

The final game of the '62 season concluded on a rousing note of victory for the Falcons. In the first quarter, Pintar took a Rio Linda punt on the 50-yard line and scored. In the second quarter, Rakela went 16 yards to score. Later, on a Knights' fumble, Armstrong recovered and Rakela went 9 yards for a TD. After Kennobie's intercepted pass, Corral threw to Monroe for a TD. Monroe again scored from 2 yards out, while O'Malley capped the game by a 54-yard TD run.
