The La Salle Club

Since its inception in 1939, the La Salle Club has provided continual financial assistance to all athletic programs at Christian Brothers High School. Our membership is comprised of alumni, parents, grandparents and friends of Christian Brothers who generously give their time and resources to meet our goals.

In addition to membership dues and donations, our funds are generated through proceeds from the Baseball Hall of Fame Dinner and the Coaches' Night Dinner held each year.

Tonight is the 55th Annual La Salle Club Baseball Hall of Fame Dinner and we are adding ten new members to our Hall.

Nomination and selection to the Baseball Hall of Fame is based on a combination of the following:

- 65 years old and living
- Must have distinguished themselves by participating significantly in the game of baseball
- "Participating" means as a player, manager, scout or umpire.
- Level of participation can be high school, college, semi-pro or professional
- Must be from the greater Sacramento area or performed locally.

In addition to recognizing and honoring our new inductees, our purpose tonight is to provide you with an opportunity to renew old acquaintances, relive memories and keep alive the rich history of baseball in the greater Sacramento area. We sincerely appreciate your presence and support. Enjoy
