Christian Brothers High School

*Enter to Learn,
Leave to Serve*

4315 Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd.
Sacramento, CA 95820
2016-2017

The Many Heartbeats of Christian Brothers Falcons

We have our different identities;
each of us is unique
We cherish CB, the place we call home; it's an antique
Been around generation
after generation
Indeed, we revere
all those vocation Fridays
The stories we tell and hear make each heartbeat special
Each of us with a different story yet equal potential
All entering to learn and leaving to serve.
To spread love to the rest of our community, it's what they deserve.

Many races, different faces; we are one no matter the placement
From the arts to athletics, we are of one mind; almost like we share
the same genetics
One family, one continuous heartbeat - etched into concrete
And though there are many of us, we share the same endeavor: to teach the rest of this world how to spread love, from now until forever

Great minds discuss ideas; average minds discuss events; small minds discuss people.
~ Eleanor Roosevelt

Michael Angeles
One thing I'm sure - we have to do something. We have to do the best we know how at the moment.
~ Franklin Roosevelt

Raul Arambula III
If you can make it through the night,
there's a brighter day.
~ Tupac

Lance Asbill
When you want to succeed as badly

Meagan Barnes

When we think of Meagan, the following words always come to mind... thoughtful, Free-spirited, fun to be with. We will always remember her talking all over the farm, or placing pennies, or playing in the eye-water along the creek-side. For who Meagan is now, started probably not possible for her. She doesn't want you. One will often wonder. No matter how hard, exhausted, and don't suggest because of it, but she will continue to come and study, write and study, and finally, now, she knows that there will be little things you ask of her that she cannot answer, you will be done. - Grandma and Grandpa.

"People cannot spread love without doing what makes them happy, and people cannot be happy unless they spread love."

- Spencer C. Pershall

Dear Spencer,

It's the end of senior year and man it's been a wild ride. We have had our ups and downs without you, but in the end, the fact still remains the same: we lost our best friend, and we miss you more and more every day. In spite of this, we carry you with us everywhere we go, knowing you are our guardian angel. In many ways you have helped us become better individuals and have helped our community become one loving and supportive family. Not only have you done this, but you have taught us the greatest lesson in life. Spencer, you taught us to spread love; you taught us the key to true happiness, and for that we are forever in your debt. Not a day goes by where we don't try to utilize the lesson you taught us and enrich the people around us with unconditional love. While some days are tougher than others, we always hold true the fact that we are surrounded by loving friends and family, and even in our darkest hour, you will always be a bright light amongst the shadow. Even in the most boring of situations, you would find a way to make things exciting. Whether you were telling a story, pulling off shenanigans or showing us a random video, you made every moment a memorable one. Life has not been the same since you left, but not in a negative way. You have shaped us into the people we are, and you are with us every step of the way. We love you bro. Keep rocking the flow up in the clouds.

Love,

Brendan, Nick, Chase, Marty and the Class of 2017

"I thank God for the time I got to spend with you. I love you bro!"
-bmac_13

"We'll always remember you and the love that you spread."
-mindy_roces

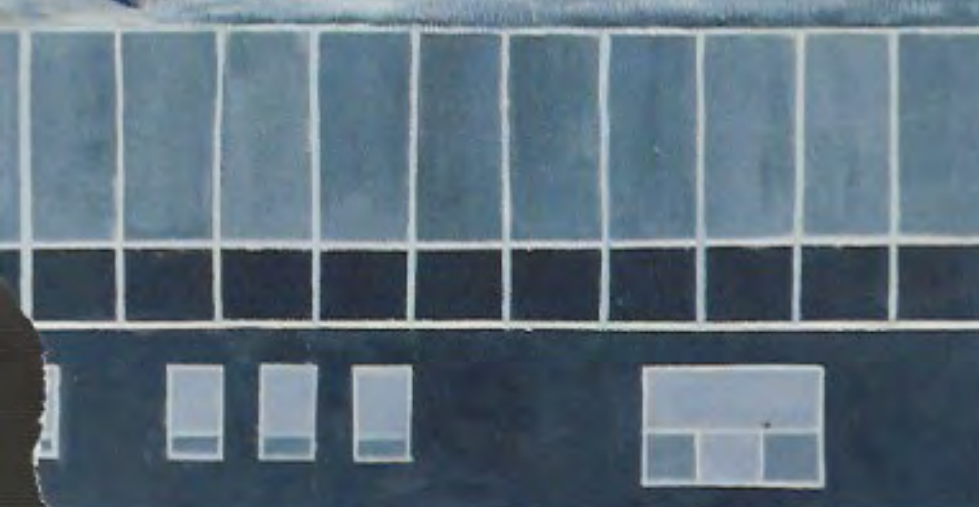

"You were one of the coolest guys I know. Rest in peace Spency."

When you lose someone you love they become a memory, that memory becomes a treasure. We love you Spence! #spreadloveforspencer

Academic Decathlon

Our Academic Decathlon Team competes in a national scholastic competition that fosters academic growth, challenges multidisciplinary learning, requires teamwork and self-knowledge, assures honesty and integrity and strives for excellence at all levels of achievement.

This year, the team learned a vast amount of information through exercises, talks, seminars and self-learning on the topic of World War II.

There are many sections to this competition, all levels of students from all GPA's are required from a team. It is not just for the top students. The subjects that are studied are: Speech, Essay, Art, Music, Language & Literature, Economics, Mathematics, Science, and Social Science. This year, the team placed seventh overall (highest ranking CB has ever achieved).

Individual Award Winners:

Michael Angeles (17) - Silver - Essay

Matthew DeSimone (17) -

Bronze - Super Quiz

Nick Kennedy (19) - Gold - Interview,

Silver - Speech, Best Overall for Team

Talon Morning News

Sacramento

Class tech creates credits for the daily broadcast.

Students edit a package to air.

Emily Shepard ('18) shares the weekly sports update.

KBFT is a student produced new cast which keeps the Christian Brothers community informed on campus news throughout each week. The station frequently reports on stories revolving around sports, social media, service, the arts, and daily announcements. KBFT repeatedly steals the spotlight with their fun and enthusiastic segments, commercials, feature stories, and the occasional world news segment. The Talon Morning News gives students the unique opportunity to run a television show while learning new skills and tasks, such as interviewing, filming, editing, and even directing. KBFT raises Christian Brothers to a new level of innovation as it is one of the top schools in the nation to produce a campus news show and compete in the STN national high school film festival.

Anchors, Anna Rose ('18) and Jennifer Austin ('18), prepare to deliver the morning news.

SPORTS

Broadcasting & Information

Sports Broadcasting and Information is CB's newest addition to the visual and performing arts programs. These students work non-stop throughout the year to cover athletic performances by all of our teams on campus and keep the entire CB community updated on scores and outcomes. This includes writing blurbs, taking photos, and coordinating live streams for viewers.

Setting Up a Legacy

Womens Volleyball

This season our Lady Falcons truly made a name for CB volleyball. Starting out the year with a triumphant win over their rivals, the St. Francis Troubadours, in the annual Holy Court competition (3-2), they continued to show their dominance as they went UNDEFEATED in the Capital Athletic League with a record of 10-0. Our ladies destroyed section playoffs by winning every game in just 3 sets. This placed our Falcons in a great position for the NorCal Tournament. Our ladies got the honor of being one of the top 16 teams in California to compete in the open division and finished their year ranked as one of the top programs in California.
