

The Gael

Christian Brothers School

Vol. XLVIII, No. 1

Friday, October 28, 1955

Sacramento, California

Private Line To Feature Brother Bill

Through skillful maneuvering on the part of the Juniors "Brother Bill" Elliot will be the master of ceremonies for Friday night's Junior Private Line. With on-the-spot reports from Redding, where our Gaels will play Shasta Union High's Wolves, this year's Junior Private Line promises to be the best yet.

Private Line, an annual affair started two years ago by the class of '54 is a sock hop to the music of the latest hit platters. Attire for the evening will be sport and stages will be admitted for 50 cents, couples $1.

Under Richard Sherman, gen-

Frosh Classes Make Clean Sweep As TC-4, 106 Win Shrine Contest

During October, the month of the Holy Rosary, the solidity, in conjunction with the student council, is sponsoring a shrine contest in honor of the Blessed Virgin Mary. The shrines will be a permanent structure in the class rooms.

Prizes of $10, first place, and $5, second place, will be presented to the two winning classes

The shrine that placed first was freshman class TC-4, Brother Gordan's homeroom. The statue is before a purple velvet background and surrounded by a gold frame. Above Our Lady's head is suspended a rosary. The shrine is illuminated by a blinking orange light at the top and constant red light at the bottom. On a shelf below the statue there is a garden of tropical ferns and plants, with tall roses and vases at each side. Vases of flowers are also set on the floor. Workers on the shrine were Schrader, Hicks, Becker, Delgado, Trevino, Villalobos, Onuma, Pilgrim, Lopez, Salski, Purtao

The Gael

Christian Brothers School

Vol. XLVIII, No. 2

Sacramento, California

Sophomores Sponsor Rally For Big Game

The Sophomore class will sponsor a rally for Brother's game with Sacramento at the CBS gym, November 17, at 2:15 P.M. Mike Roberts, president of Sophomore homeroom 110 will direct the rally activities generally, while Brother Leonard will present several skits. On the agenda is Tim Sullivan singing two hit tunes and Brother Leonard's 'Sho' Biz' troupe performing a couple of musical skits. Girls from the high schools may also offer a few skits.

Brother Xavier stated that the girls' schools had been invited. The sophomore class have been appointed to take charge of the rally, which, additionally, is the greatest of the year. Sophomores are already actively engaged in their preparation for the rally. Committees are rapidly being formed. The rally will be a pep for the game and it is expected to be a dilly. There will be stupid looking costumes, crack jokes, cool skits and laffs galore.

Only five hours after the affair is over and done with, the boys from 21st and Broadway will meet one of their fiercest city rivals, Sacramento High Dragons. Last year, the Gael

CBS Seniors Will Sing At Pontifical Mass, Dec. 6

Forty of the best singers of the Senior Class will sign at the first Mass offered by the Coadjutor Bishop, Joseph T. McGucken in his new Diocese.

Bishop McGucken, appointed coadjutor bishop of the Sacramento Diocese, is now Auxiliary Bishop in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles. This is the first time in the history of the Diocese of Sacramento that a coadjutor bishop has been named.

In a statement to the Herald, Bishop McGucken said, "I am very grateful to the Holy Father for his coincidence in the Bishop Armstrong High School approaches completion.

The Gazette

Christian Brothers School

Vol. XX, No. 9

Friday, June 8, 1956

Sacramento,

Seniors Hold Annual Ball Graduation Approaches

Tuesday night, June 5th, marked the peak of the senior's social life. The annual Senior Ball, held in the Senator Hotel began at 8 p.m. Following the turkey dinner, dancing was enjoyed to the music of Buddy Harpham and his orchestra. The dance ended at midnight. Ron Fernandes was general chairman of the dance.

As the social peak was reached last Tuesday night so also will the academic peak be reached this Friday evening. Commencement exercises will be held on the school grounds start-der the direction of Anton Dorf.

Bank of America Awards meritorious seniors go to: Gerald Silvey, Cup and Certificate for Liberal Arts; Michael Stone, Trophy and Certificate for Science and Mathematics; Joseph Genstlea, Certificate Business; John Veglia, Certificate for English; Robert Proca, Certificate for Mathematics.

Principals Chosen For New High School

Attention all Junior and sophomore boys (freshmen: don't read this). Your scholastic activities next year will be guided by the firm hand of Brother Gabriel, newly appointed mentor of Bishop Armstrong High School. Any girls that happen to enroll will find themselves ruled by Sister Celestine. The faculty will consist of three Franciscans, five Sisters of Mercy, eight Christian Brothers, four lay-

CBS Now In

Brother Joachim Transferred To Philippines