Boarding Department

The Boarders formed a student government this year known as the Resident Students Association. It was headed during the Fall term by President Jim Faulkner. Other officers were Howard Allen, Dick Foster, Frank Mooney, Punky Towne, Bruce Keys and Rolland Feight. The Boarders have a schedule that is set in long tradition. Early rising and breakfast are followed by morning study. Free time for recreation after school draws some to athletics, others to tinkering in radio or shop, and a few to plain relaxing. The typical day ends with a 90-minute study period, which explains why Terry Knowles, Bob Dalton, John Surmeier and Keys stand out in class. This year the prefecting job was done by Brother Maurice and Brother Philip.

Bill Bell from Hawaii has the record for coming the longest distance to attend CBS . . . Francisco Flores hails from Mexico . . . Other out-of-staters are Dwight Aikens, Brian Del Curto and Terry Knowles from Nevada. Northern California is the home of Surmeier and Larry Kelley . . . Tallest man in the house is Big John Van Overbeen, six feet, six inches high. Ben Pomeroy has the longest record in residence, seven and one-half years to date.

STUDENTS OFF GUARD

- . . . sometimes at play
- . . . sometimes at work
- . . . but always off guard

Tired of the smoky atmosphere we ventured to the street for some fresh air. We emerged just in time to see motorcycle officers Ken Noss and Don King whizzing by. After the smoke had been cleared from our heads we strolled down the street, passing Kress' 5 & 10, now owned by Chuck McGee and Charles Kelly, and the Ajax Gym for Boxers operated by Don Nagel. Pausing to read the posters in front of the gym, we observed that Tom Gill and Ray Tucker were paired off for the Heavyweight Championship of the world, with Don Hannah officiating.

Journeying further we passed four hard working

Salvation Army members, Bill Chambers, Vince Carano, Dick Traversi and Paul Keith and hesitated in front of an art store window to watch Dennis Dorsey draw the Greek God Adonis, modeled by muscular Ed Sayre.

All this walking made us hungry, so we stopped in to Irish Bob McDonagh and Joe Lustufka's Mulligan Stew Palace. The meal was prepared by Chef Alex Woycheshin, who between seasons of his job is engaged as professor Robert Kuhlman's right hand man.

Bidding farewell, we continued our journey into the more industrial part of town, past Don Leal's car wrecking plant where ace mechanics, Walter Short,

Roger McElligott, Jack Sanderson, and Foster V were wrecking the Cadillac convertible of millionaire fertilizer executive, Bill Lagomarsino.

Located a few feet away was the pool hall-business joint of "Punky" Towne. When we inquired why the establishment wasn't tenanted we were told the keeper of the cues, "Bones" Menager, the owner was on trial before Judge Tom Gillons. However it was expected that the place would be open shortly because defense attorneys, Jim Faulkner and Dick Castro, were on the case.

Directly opposite the dive was the Frank New recreation center for young juveniles. This center was opened recently at the request and expense of philanthropists, Nicholas A. Zanze and "Diamond" Bill Dinelli.

We then picked up some luggage at the John M Pigskin Emporium and bought some new clothes at the John Larrea-Joe Flores "Real Gone" Haberdashery.

We proceeded back to our ship and were about to leave for Mars, when we were frantically approached by Chuck DePaoli, Carl McFeely and Dick Cullen who were afraid they wouldn't get their names in this report. And about your idea of conquering earth, Chief, take our advice--"it ain't worth it."

MARTIAN REPORT

OFFICE OF THE INTER- PLANETARY
DIVISION OF THE UNITED GALAXY
FORCES OF THE UNIVERSE

TO: The Commanding General, 3rd.
Groundborne Division, 2nd. Unit, 1st.
Rocket Battalion of the Martian Army,
Louis Von Ambrose.

SUBJECT: Observatory trip to earth.

DATE: March 37, 1982

SIR: Entered earth this date; following is report of activities of strange earthlings.

"The first thing we noticed when we entered the atmosphere of earth was a new type jet plane driven by test pilot, Speedy Carl Schnetz and owned by Scott Parr. As we settled to earth, we were met by Governor Glenn Freitas of Arkansas, who greeted us with a speech, ghost-written by the famous novelist, Galen Avila.

The speech had hardly ended when we received word that inventor Martin Fuerst had finally perfected his steam-driven car and that the famous Standard Oil tycoon, Mack White, was trying to buy the patent. Underworld sources have it that the deadly trio of John Rocco, Ed Herberger and Mike Wright were hired to "convince" Fuerst to sell.

We then watched the parade welcoming the returning Olympic champions, Peter Mikacich, Bill Ross, and "Rocky" Ed Betschart. The parade was led by Bob Day and his all-girl band.

With "Strongarm" Lew Pebbles and "Slap 'em down" Jim Hoefling assisting, the crowd was kept well in order by police commissioner, Tom "bring 'em back half dead" Herbeck.

As the parade wound its way down the street we passed the mortuary of Gormley, Toy, Ithurnburn and Sons, situated near the office of the wholesale brandy distributor, "Happy" Gene Angelo.

Our interest being absorbed by the many attractions of the parade, we failed to notice that we had been drawn into a line in front of Charles Hamilton's ritzy "Red Salamander" nite club. We were followed into the club by millionaire "man about town" Bob Meyer and his faithful valet Larry Cooke. Leading us to the number one table was the headwaiter, Rudolf "Pierre" Schneider.

Luckily the floorshow was just starting as we sat down. Master of Ceremonies, Ray Terrible, was keeping his audience in stitches with Tales of Old Italy, which were loudly applauded by wine magnate, Vic Bertolani. Next on the program was the famous "Arthur Godfrey of Hawaii", Bill Bell; followed by the strong men act of Tom O'Donnell and Don Kessell, who recently completed their winter tour with the Steele, Marinelli and Brunner Combine.

As the spotlight was flashed around the room by head electrician Bill Sanborn, we recognized the faces of such famous celebrities as "Chado" Vasquez, the first white Harlem Globetrotter; Francis Wallace, dean at Santa Clara; and Jay Waterbury, Bob Sweeny, Tony Gutierrez, and Bob Cardoza, co-owners of Stick 'em-good Cement Contractors, Inc.

Dance at CBS

Social

A full social calendar was experienced by the students of CBS during the past year, with some activity being held almost every week.

Topping the social events of the year were the Senior Ball and the Junior Prom.

Sunday, May 25, saw the class of '52 present the annual Senior dinner dance. Taking care of the closed dancing was Gene Angelo assisted by Bob Sweeney, Walt Short, Frank Newman, Glenn Freitas, Sal Vasquez, Tom Gillon and Mack White.

A new tradition was instituted by the Junior Class this year, the Junior Prom was closed to Juniors and Seniors, who received complimentary bids. May 2, was singled out as the date for this annual affair. The dancing was to the music of Bill Rase's orchestra from 9 to 12 o'clock in the Empire Room of the Hotel Senator.

Calendar

Handling arrangements for the semi-formal dance was Ray Alves assisted by Tom Burke, Tom Lane, Ronald Limeberger, and Ted Porter.

The Sophomores were unable to present a "Soph Hop" this year but presented a dance this spring in the school auditorium. Tom Bertain was general chairman of the sport record dance, whose theme was "Some Enchanted Evening." Assisting Bertain were Ben Pomeroy, Bob Kolak, Dick Foster, and Francis Silvey. David Higgins, Mel Bolen, and Richard Kirk handled the decorations. George Gradt took care of the bids.

Ray Alves was assisted by Howard Allen, Tom Burke, and Ted Porter in presenting "Tahiti" a sport record dance held last fall in the gym to gain funds for the Junior Prom.

The Senior Class presented "Touchdown Twirl", an after game sport dance to help finance the Senior Ball. Glen Freitas was assisted by Sal Vasquez, Bob Sweeny, Mack White, and Walt Short in presenting the dance. Queen for the dance were Marilyn DeGregorio and Beverly Taylor.

INTERCLASS ATHLETICS

Renewed spirit at CBS brought interclass sports back from the open grave and proved very successful under MC Roy Cortopassi during 1951-52.

Senior Class 213 won the football flag defeating Sophomore 113, 20-0, in the championship encounter. Sal Vasquez paced the win with all three TDs. Standouts on the victorious eleven were Frank Newman, Bob Cardoza, Joe Lastufka and John Rocco.

Following close on the heels of the pigskin pastime was intramural basketball and combined with ties, playoffs, three platoon systems and the rest also proved a credit to the spirit at CBS. In the upper division three good teams were found in Senior Classes 209 and 213 and Junior Class 223. The lower division was mixed up with three good teams as well from the Sophomore Class 110 and Frosh Classes 116 and 123. Following the schedule an All-interclass Team was picked with the first team consisting of Carl Dutra and Mel Bolen, both Sophs, at forwards, Frank Newman a senior at center and Junior Merle Kaufenberg and Senior Tom Gill at guards.

Softball surged into the limelight next and although records were incomplete it showed forth many promising, hustling and talented rookies.

Bee Team Review

The Christian Brothers' Bee Footballers, left tutored by Jack Tucker and Fred Galvez, won only one ball game but that an impressive 44-12 romp over the Roseville Tigers. Pacing the pack during the season were Gerald Sullivan and Bob Kolak two hard running backs; Carl Dutra, end; Don Hawke, guard; Pat Willard, tackle; John Stagnaro, center; Dave Borges, quarterback; Howie Allen, tackle; and Jim Mohan, end. The best encounter of the fall term was against the Grant Union Pacers in which the Gaelets lost a toughy, 12-7.

Standing: Manager Tom Pimentel, John Cantrell, John Faulkner, Charles Balassi, George Gradt, Don Terra, Harry Lawson and Coach Brother Frederick .
Missing: George Thomas.

The record was not too good for the babes as they won only two times in 22 tries. Their lone wins were over Courtland and Rio Vista. George's Thomas and Gradt did most of the scoring with 139 and 132 respectively, followed by Cantrell, 110, and Terra, 106.

Something new at CBS was initiated this spring with an idea for three baseball teams, namely Varsity, JV and Freshman nines. Left is a shot of a few hopefuls who tried out for the yearling club. The JVs under Brother Frederick enjoyed a tough schedule with the usual tilts against Grant, Sacramento and McClatchy.

Final scoring showed Chado Vasquez leading the quintet with a total of 195 points on 88 field goals and 19 free throws. Close behind was first String All-City Bill Ross with 170 and Will Towne, 147. Vasquez placed third in city honors behind Dick Traversi of the Lions and Carl Rolfe from Grant. Ross wound up in fifth spot and Towne in the number seven position. Rounding out the top five Gael scorers were lanky Pete Ithurnburn, netting 83 markers, and Ron Limeberger, 77. Jack Colbert, Tony Latino and Dave Higgins merit credit for their good play throughout the campaign.

1951 1952 Casaba

All-City selections by the Sacramento Union garnered center Bill Ross a birth on the mythical first squad. Ross was one of the city's most improved players and developed a deadly hook shot to help amass 170 points for his final year in high school ball.

Chado Vasquez, All-City choice the year before, and Punky Towne were named on the Union's second team. In the second to last game of the year against St. Mary's, Pete Ithurnburn was given the best player's award by the Alumni.

When the season ended the Galloping Gaels were found with nine wins against fourteen losses including a 2-4 total in inter-city competition. The Irish won sweet revenge when they upset the Sacramento Dragons and Grant Union Pacers after both had administered defeats earlier in the year. Other victories were over Courtland, Jackson, Nevada City, Grass Valley, Rio Vista, Oroville and Clarksburg while setbacks were handed them by Folsom, Chico, Wheatland, once; Lodi, Courtland Napa, McClatchy and St. Mary's of Berkeley, twice.

Ross, Towne and O'Donnell had made the Sacramento Union's All-City first squad while O'Donnell and Towne placed on the Sacramento Bee's first team. Ross, with teammates Gill, Angelo and Sweeny were on the Bee's second choice, while Sweeny, Gill and Angelo made the Union's second team. Bell took honorable mention in the Union. At the Varsity dinner, Sweeny and Ross received best back and linesman awards, respectively from the KCs. O'Donnell received the most valuable player's award and Vic Bertolani merited a trophy for most spirit.

Football 1951

Looking over Varsity football at CBS in 1951 found the Gaels with one of the finest clubs in the school's history, winning six out of ten games. The games: In the opener Serra took a 12-7 win from the Gaels with Bill Ross scoring the Irish TD. McClatchy made it two in a row, 20-14. Dick Castro and Punky Towne made the touchdowns. The first triumph and the beginning of a five game win streak began with a 21-14 verdict over Sonora. Tom O'Donnell scored twice and Lew Pebbles once. Victory number two was a 51-0 romp of Jackson with O'Donnell leading with 3 TDs. Gene Angelo, Charles Chatfield, Dick Traversi, Tony Latino and Gavin Carr also scored. The third slaughter was over Marysville 32-7, O'Donnell hitting pay dirt three times and Ross and Latino once each. Amador was next on the list, losing 45-6 as Bill Bell, Ed Reich, Ray Tucker, Tom Gill, George Thomas, Ross and Towne scored the TDs. The fifth win was the annual Homecoming Day Classic against Riordan 37-0. O'Donnell scored twice and Bob Sweeney, Towne, Latino and Thomas once. Yuba City spoiled the Gaels assault 19-13 with Traversi scoring both TDs. O'Donnell paced a 31-0 victory over Grant with 4 TDs while Towne made one and in the final, Tom scored the lone TD in the Dragons 14-7 win to end the season.

He has also participated in one year of Bee and three years of varsity football, with two years of varsity track. Next on the list is the University of California where he will study Optometry.

LOUIS AMBROSE—The "old Timer" of the group, Lou has attended CBS since the second grade. Born at Toocle, Utah, he filled the post of circulation manager for the Gael in his Freshman year. Besides being an interclass baseball captain in his early high school days, he has been a member of the Holy Spirit CYO. Undecided about a future school, Louis would like to take a pre-law legal course.

EUGENE ANGELO—During his four years attendance "Brad" has played two years of JV baseball and football, two of Varsity baseball, and one year of Varsity football, landing on the second city team. Business outside the line of duty includes three years of student council work, with membership in the YCS, Block C and Sodality, of which he was president. He was also the president of his Sophomore and Junior Classes. In the future Eugene would like to take a Science Course at Santa Clara or the University of Oregon.

ROBERT AVILA—Since graduation from St. Joseph's grammar school Bob's name has consistently appeared on the honor roll. During his four years at Brothers he has performed well in a number of plays including the musical comedy "Leap for Joy." He belongs to the Cathedral CYO and has been a member of the Forensic Society. The University of California is "Dapper's" choice for furthering his education. His majors would consist of mathematics and English Literature in preparation for a teaching career.

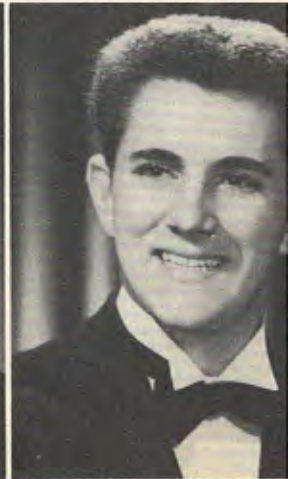

WILLIAM BELL—If you are blinded by a bright gleam when walking down the CBS corridors don't be bewildered because you probably are one of Bill's "dull" shirts. Straight from Honolulu "Wahine" arrived at Brothers in his Sophomore year. His major achievements include two years of Varsity football with one year of JV as its forerunner. He also wrote Boarderline for the Gael and was a member of the Block Society his last two years. A counting at the University of Oregon will complete Bill's schooling.

VICTOR BERTOLANI—Seldom a day passes when there is no laughter registered due to the antics displayed by "Napoleon," as Vic is affectionately called. A graduate of Sacred Heart Grammar School and a mainstay in the Senior Class, his extra-curricular activities consist of the Block CB, Marian Society, and Catholic Action groups. He is the business manager of the Yearbook and was a Sophomore representative in the ICS. Vic would like to attend USF to take a course in psychiatry.

EDWIN BETSCHART—A seven year "citizen," Ed is an ace student. He holds membership in the CSF and was a member of the library and Gael staffs. His latter two years have seen him in the Marian Society and the Brothers' Glee Club. Interclass football, basketball, and baseball also occupied Ed's time. A course in civil engineering at the University of Santa Clara is the next step.

JOHN BRUNNER—John arrived at Christian Brothers in his Junior year. During his two years as a student here he has participated in interclass football, basketball, and baseball, and was a member of the golf team. Besides sports he took an active part in the Immaculate Conception CYO.

VINCENT CARANO—"Emigrating" from Brooklyn, New York, Vince has since proven his spirit by cooperating well with all that is asked of him. If ever there was a moment during his four years at CBS when his countenance didn't sparkle with an ear to ear smile, it was when malaria, scarlet fever, and ulcers set in—even then you could detect a semblance of a grin. The glee club, minstrel show, and musical comedy have absorbed much of his time. The field of electronics is his nomination for a career.
