

CBS to Host 29 Coaches

Twenty-nine members of local high school and college coaching staffs have accepted invitations to the annual La Salle Club Coaches Night tomorrow at 8 P. M. at Christian Brothers School.

Ray Clemons, CBS football coach and chairman for the affair, announced that the mentors will be honored by La Salle Club members and their friends for the work done by these men among the youth of Sacramento.

COMMENTS on the local athletic scene, a movie of a major football and a corn beef supper will highlight the evening.

Coaches attending will be: McClatchy High School—Chauncey Wilson, director of athletics, George Bican, varsity football, Jack Mauger, track, Cliff Perry, baseball, Bob Ehrman, JV football; Sacramento High School—Jim Flynn, director of athletics, George Relles varsity football, Woodrow Adams, baseball, Paul Thompson, JV football, Stan Rasmussen, track, F. J. Brorsen, basketball; Grant Union High School—Ed Wilson, B football, Bill Maskasian, JV football, Al Pigg, boxing, E. J. Keema, Superintendent of Grant Union school district;

GRANT Technical College—Ray Desimone, director of athletics, Ray Curry, baseball, Woody Hutchison, basketball; Sacramento Junior College—Ned Kay, athletic director, Earl Hoos, football; Sacramento State—Dr. Hubert McCormick, director of athletics, Warren Conrad, basketball, Aubrey Bates, boxing; Univ. of California at Davis, Woody Wilson, track, Vern Hickey, golf, Myron Schall, boxing, Carl Boyer, basketball.

Tom Foley, St. Mary's College basketball coach, and John Gianoni, Lodi High School football coach, also plan to attend. In addition, members of the CBS coaching staff will be present, including Larry Willett, Regis Hurley, Jack Tucker and Ferd Galvez.

Gael Future Is Bright

According to coach Tom Foley, St. Mary's College basketball teams should be on the map in the 1952-53 season. The Gael cage mentor was a guest at the Christian Brothers social last night sponsored by the LaSalle Club, athletic booster of the Brothers' school.

The Gaels will carry 21 players on the roster, Foley said. Seven freshmen are on the squad, five juniors, five sophomores and four seniors.

Athletic directors and their staffs from Sacramento High, McClatchy, Christian Brothers, Grant Union, Grant Tech, Sacramento JC, Sacramento State and Cal Aggies were represented.

Mayor Bert Geisreiter was also in attendance. The Brothers' grid coach and athletic director, Ray Clemons, was chairman of the evening.

SACRAMENTO BEE

OCTOBER 2, 1951

CBS Club Fetes Sacramento Coaches

Athletic directors and coaches from local high schools and colleges were feted last night at the Christian Brothers School by the LaSalle Club, athletic booster organization of CBS. More than 150 persons attended.

The guest of honor was Tom Foley, St. Mary's College basketball coach, who predicted his team will put the Gaels on the hoop map in 1952-53. Ray Clemons, CBS football coach and athletic director, was chairman of the party.