

STUDENTS PRESENT "UNDER THE FLAG"

Christian Brothers' College Awards Doctrine Medals at Annual Exercises

The fact that there was no graduating class at the Christian Brothers College this year did not deter the holding of the annual exercises. The entertainment was given in Cathedral Hall last night. The awarding of the Christian doctrine medals was substituted on the program for the awarding of diplomas.

"Under the Flag", a drama, was successfully staged by a cast of twelve under the direction of Brother Euphrasius. This was the first time that this play has ever been staged in California. It was originally produced at Sacred Heart College, Denver.

The play opens in New York, where Willard Blake, a prosperous diamond broker, is anxious to win the heart of Miss Firman, daughter of a wealthy customer. George Morris, Blake's chief clerk, is also a suitor for Miss Firman's hand, and the difficulties they get into are the cause of a great deal of laughter, Morris finally winning out.

Raymond Coughlin, taking the part of Blake, was exceptionally good. George Morris and Larry O'Toole were effectively portrayed by Francis T. Flanagan and Ralph Brennan.

The musical portion of the program was well carried out. The college orchestra rendered "The Burgomaster" and "Love's Young Dreams." "Under The Star Spangled Banner" was sung by the Junior choir, while the juvenile choir sang "Listen to the Mocking Bird."

A good exhibition of the gymnasium work being done by the younger students was given in the form of calisthenic drills under the direction of Brother Edmund.

June 26, 1912 - Sacramento Bee

ORIGINAL COPY FROM AEE

STUDENTS PRESENT "UNDER THE FLAG"

Christian Brothers' College Awards Doctrine Medals at Annual Exercises

The fact that there was no graduating class at the Christian Brothers' College this year did not deter the holding of the annual exercises. The entertainment was given in Cathedral Hall last night. The awarding of the Christian doctrine medals was substituted on the program for the awarding of diplomas.

"Under the Flag," a drama, was successfully staged by a cast of twelve under the direction of Brother Euphrasius. This was the first time that this play has ever been staged in California. It was originally produced at Sacred Heart College, Denver.

The play opens in New York, where Willard Blake, a prosperous diamond broker, is anxious to win the heart of Miss Firman, daughter of a wealthy customer. George Morris, Blake's chief clerk, is also a suitor for Miss Firman's hand, and the difficulties they get into are the cause of a great deal of laughter, Morris finally winning out.

Raymond Coughlin, taking the part of Blake, was exceptionally good. George Morris and Larry O'Toole were effectively portrayed by Francis T. Flanagan and Ralph Brennan.

The musical portion of the program was well carried out. The college orchestra, rendered "The Burgomaster" and "Love's Young Dreama." "Under the Star Spangled Banner" was sung by the Junior choir, while the juvenile choir sang "Listen to the Mocking Bird."

A good exhibition of the gymnasium work being done by the younger students was given in the form of calisthenic drills under the direction of Brother Edmund.