His Excellency Joseph T. McGucken
Bishop of Sacramento

We here at Bishop Armstrong High, both faculty and students, owe much to Bishop McGucken. A comparative newcomer to the Sacramento area, Bishop McGucken has already endeared himself to the people of the diocese for his fatherly solicitude and to us at Bishop Armstrong High for his interest in our new school and in our academic and social activities. It is with loving pride, then, that we dedicate to Bishop McGucken the Crest for 1958.

Armstrong Students attend Requiem Mass in honor of the late Bishop Armstrong

First High Mass

On December 18th, Father Thomas celebrated the first High Mass held on the Bishop Armstrong High campus. The choir, under the direction of Mr. Doroboi, chanted the responses and filled the eyes with their heavenly music. Servers for the Mass were from Father Thomas's Home room 106.

Ash Wednesday

Shown at the right are some of the Armstrong students who began their celebration of Lent with the traditional reception of ashes on their foreheads. Immediately to the right are Patricia Gianola, Joyce Ross, and Mary Felix, receiving ashes from Father Poole. Further to the right, Tony Skonitz, Greg Perle, and Tom Stason wait for ashes, as John Strusi and Albert Freize return to their seats.

Father Brendan Mitchell O.F.M. officially opened our annual retreat during Holy Week with Mass on Monday, March 22.

Father Simon Shastor, O.F.M. delivers a talk to the boys during one of the conferences. The two retreat masters spoke both to the boys' and girls' departments.

The Most Reverend Joseph T. McGucken, Bishop of Sacramento, solemnly ended our retreat with Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament.

Always to be trusted, new songs to practice, and always a program coming up... Never a dull moment for these members of the Choral. First row, B. Alvarez, D. Vaughan, J. Ann Stachel, M. Sorenson, C. The newly organized Band, under the enthusiastic direction of Mr. Durofort, has played at many assemblies. The brass section also played at our basketball games. Members include: first row, Mary Catherine Line, Sandra Wright, Bill Chapman, Bob McQueen, Alan Schroder, Peggy Sue Gerren, Joe Delgado, Stanley Del Doria; second row, Pat Corbett, John Gross, Bob Gross, Anthony Arill, Bob Staldeneyer; third row, Gloria Melfe, Doro Pomer, Bill Roberts, Alred Zacco, Bill Hoover and The Sullivan.

Football Queen

Queen Pat will always remember the magic moment when Jim crowned her with a tiara of coronations.

Among the "never to be forgotten memories" of this year were those of the CREST dance, "January Jump." Marie Roussel and Roger Smith were named King and Queen. They were chosen by the entire student body in a penny-a-vote campaign. The runners-up in this contest were juniors Sandy Pimental and Mike Rogers.

California Scholarship Federation

The formal initiation of the CSF was presented March 7. Membership cards and pins were distributed at this time.

Literary Study Club

Sod

Sodality officers for both semesters are: Beth Gregory, first semester vice president; Pat De Muzial, Virginia Skamnes, Cynthia Speed, Betty Kertis, Father Thomas, spiritual director; Carmen La Motta, second semester president; Nancy Glass, first semester president; Susan Smith, second semester vice president.

Hard-working Sodality sold hundreds of hours of candy to buy this beautiful parabolic altar for the school. It was designed by Harry Duxton and has a light bank.

Bob Steidinger, Diana Fujita, Connie Chandro, Tom Kane, and Bill Chapman try to figure out how to get all the pictures on the few pages available.

Sports editors Sally Shields, John Farnsworth, and Cynthia Speed have a difference of opinion as to where Sally should put certain girls' team photos.

Crest

Business managers Mary Scott, Ron Becker, and Nancy Geary try to make receipts and cash balances. Trying to squeeze "extras" into the 1958 CREST without exceeding their budget was only one problem faced by the trio.

Editors and assistant editors met on many occasions to thrash out problems relative to layout, photography, and allied matters relative to the 1958 CREST. Seated here are John Frederick, assistant co-editor; George Hicks, boys' co-editor; Mary Chester, assistant co-editor; and Jane Dixon, girls' co-editor.

Rita Morris looks smart and stylish in this black sheath as she walks down the ramp. Mike Kewler, standing in the back, waits his turn.

Once again this year, the members of the Senior Class presented an outstanding showing of the latest fashions for young men and women. Held in the cafeteria, before a packed house, it provided a showcase for the modeling talents of the senior class.

"Casual living" and "comfort" are the keynotes of these sports clothes modeled by Mike Kewler and his try companion.

Virginia Skamene, modeling this elegant dress, looked as if she had just stepped out of VOGUE.

Lavette Schott, wearing a slim, skin-tight sheath, was a welcome addition to the Senior Fashion Show called "Plain & Fancy."

The Talon

The Talon, our newspaper, is an intricate part of our school life. Sister Miriam and Mr. Lattimer, the moderators, have helped in the production of this publication.

Mary Esther Evans, news editor, looks on as Pat Schender, editor in chief, and Philip Lovvick, assistant editor, plan the next issue of the TALON.

Those who helped in the production of our TALON are: Nancy Lewis, Pat Lovvick, second; Charlotte Fetters, Alicia Loyola, Jo Ann Anglin, standing.

Preparing the layout page of the newspaper are Dave Foster, Jo Ann Therrell, Barbara Wisniewski and Carol Skeels.

Folding the latest edition of the TALON are the members of the circulation staff: Jerry Jensen, Helen Matzback and Mike Warren.

Head of the cafeteria, Mrs. Florence Lovette (left in photo) and Mrs. Helen Roberts tried the impossible during the past year—how to please the palates of every Armstrong student day after day in the school cafeteria. That they succeeded in a large measure could be seen daily in the long lines of waiting students.

Recycler workers in the school cafeteria included Frank Fisher, Manuel Perez and Steve Muckie.

Known for keeping the school bright and shiny, are left to right Manuel Silver, Mr. Emil Paschel and Don Sachs.

Conference Co-Champions

Yuba City...

All close to the end zone, Arlen DiBartolo snags one of Simpson's aerials for a Falcon tally early in the second quarter, as the Falcons score their first victory of the year.

LaSierra...

The running ability of all the Falcon backs is well demonstrated here by Roger Falson, who carried for a first down on this play.

McClatchy...

Mooney shows his determination in a throng of Lion tacklers. Dick brought home to the M & M wreckers and was the major factor in the undisputed victory scored over the Lions.

Red Bluff...

Garcia eludes a pair of Red Bluff men to cross the goal line and get six points on the board for Armstrong.

Reno...

On the rare occasions that the Falcons had to punt, "Big Jim" got the ball well into the opposition's territory with kicks like this one. Here Jim booms a 35-yarder against the Reno Huskies.

Varsity Football

Chico...

Reed breaks in another pass from Stinson to give the Falcons' scoring record a boost, and help defeat a rugged Chico team.

Enterprise . . .

A determined Stinson shows would-be tacklers his back as he's off to a 12-yard gain against a game but inexperienced Enterprise squad, which proved to be no match for seasoned Falcons.

Willows . . .

Wish and Stjepetic demonstrate the sportsmanship that was evident throughout the entire Falcons-Willows game — a game in which the victor was undeterred until the final gun.

Sacramento . . .

The Falcons forward well opens a hole as Garcia paves the way for Mitchell as a fullback only play against the Sacramento High Dragons.

Shasta . . .

The devastating ground attack of the Falcons demoralized Shasta's forward wall and opened scoring holes, such as the one shown here. Walsh, D'Barata, and Parmeter provide Mosey with plenty of running room.

Sidelines . . .

The La Sierra-Falcons game had its "mad moments" as reflected in the faces of Parmeter, Slavick, Walsh and Williams, here waiting for the Falcons to regain control of the popkiss.

Locker room at halftime

Upper right: Gosselin and Stearns have demonstrated the speed with which the ball got to the hard-running Falcon backfield. Below: Walsh and Evans, after a rapid first half, take a well-earned rest while Russel and Garitz concentrate on halftime instructions.

Senior

Art Smetzer demonstrates the form that made him a consistent high scorer and outstanding guard for two years on the Falcon squad.

Dai Williams was another senior asset to this year's team. Here you see Dai in one of his favorite shots.

Ed Dudycha was the only All-City boy of the team during the current season. Here Ed shows the deadly hook-shot that made him the team's high-point man.

Standouts

No Falcon team would be of full strength without "Big Jim." Jim Mironich was a reliable rebounder and a very able man under the hoop.

Small but accurate. Don Beach sinks his two-hand set from "way out."

Varsity

Junior Paul Marchi proved to be a real help to the Falcons five more than once this year. He was a good ball-handler and team player.

Don Clark, another Junior, was a great asset to the team. His regular scoring habits and excellent ball-handling greatly helped the team's offensive ability.

"Up-and-coming" Juniors

Basketball

Reliable Joe Neerl contributed much to the Falcons' 16-12 winning record. Joe had a 53.5% in free throws and was always a threat to the opposition with his jump-shot.

The success of the Falcons team this year was due largely to the first-year efforts of the coach, Mr. Jack Wilby. Here he shows out some last-minute strategy — "kneads it out" — and then gives the fellows "the word" during a time-out period.

Giving a display of the determination that was their a third place in the Metro Tournament held in the Sac Pavilion, Ed Dudycha, Art Soucek, Joe Reel and Jim Mikovick all fight for that ball in the air.

Two of the Metro Tourney's outstanding players were Falcons Art Soucek and Ed Dudycha. Here both received honors as All-Tournament players.

Metro Tournament

Handle! Joe Reel puts in two points for the Falcons cause. Armstrong beat Notre Dei Rio in this one for third place in the Greenlight office.

Season's Highlights

Ed Dudycha hits with a jump-shot against McCluskey. His jump-shot was undoubtedly one of the reasons for his All-City selection.

The Falcon team's best ball-handler, Art Sanchez, clears the boards and starts down the court. Joe Bond sets a screen, making sure Art will keep the ball.

This shot by Del Williams is a sure two points. Del made many of these shots when they were badly needed to beat the James Marshall team.

"Big Jim" Mianich goes up for an easy two points. Before it was over, however, the Shasta Wolves had a two-point victory margin over the Falcons.

Art Sanchez looks to set a screen while Ed Dulycha maneuvers for a shot.

Ed Williams and Ed Dulycha work the ball past the opponent's defense. This was typical of the excellent ball-handling by the Falcons during the season.

Mike Burkhart scores back in first base during the game all with the team from Freeport Boulevard. At right, in a bit of action against McClatchy's team, above, "Big Jim" Mikulich records third to score one of the Falcons' three runs. The game was 5-3.

Left: Third Baseman Bob Separevich tops home plate in the second Falcon-Dona encounter at Lind Park. The Falcons won this one, 3 to 2. Below: Ed Dadycha, ace moundman for the Armstrong club, got a hit in the same Armstrong-Norte Del Rio 82. Ed was the winning pitcher in this game.

Tom Simons, Sam Stasiak, Art Sanchez, Ed Dadycha and Tom Zamora sit in the seating area and watch Armstrong outpace Norte 11 to 2. Brother Rayano, official moderator, is behind the Falcon bench.

Denny Messner pulls out a hit during the Falcon-Sax Juns game. The Armstrong also won this outing by a score of 14-2.

Dick Mooney, above, manages to get home without being tagged by the Sax' catcher in a game the Falcons took without any trouble. Score: 11 to 1.

Richard Armstrong's golf team has been particularly active this past year, due in large part to the enthusiasm of Gary Yates and Tony Kisthuler. Pictured above are the members of this year's team: Gary Yates and Joe Gemach in front; Len Kristenbeck, Vince Charvin, Tony Kisthuler and Rex Becker in back.

Senior golf member Joe Gemach tees off during recent match with San Juan High School.
