

high school," he said. "Everyone has a story. This is mine: a somewhat straightforward account of a Sacramento life, salted with rumor and humor."

"The script was adapted, though barely, from a series of taping sessions I held with Joe," said local columnist and playwright Ed Goldman. "The irony, wit and stories are pure Joe. I just added a semi-colon now and then to feel like I was contributing."

Genshlea is a founding shareholder of the law firm of Weintraub Genshlea Chediak. He received his undergraduate degree from Stanford University in 1960 and his law degree from Hastings College of the Law in 1964. He has lectured for the Business Litigation Section of the State Bar of California and has served on numerous community