

"The Music Man"

Oh yes there was trouble, right here in River City as CB's La Troupe Theatre Company brought the perennial Broadway hit, "The Music Man" to the stage. Professor Harold Hill, played by Mitch Owens '10, arrived in town intent on fleecing the townspeople with his scam to equip and train the boys' marching band. His scheme to skip town with the money fell flat when he fell for the town's librarian, played by Emily Fitzsimmons '11.

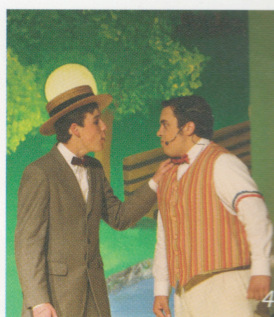

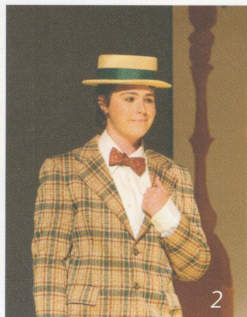

Under the direction of English teacher and Theatre Director, Sean O'Brien, the entire cast and crew brought River City to life and left the audiences wanting more.

"I really think this was one of our best musicals yet," offered CB President, Lorcan Barnes. "I look forward to the day that our talented actors can perform in CB's very own theatre. They deserve a place to really showcase their gifts!" See page 34 for an update.
