New BA, SF Presidents Outline Plans, Policies For Next Year

Samcoff Wins Presidency Of New Girls' High

Leatrice Samcoff, campaigning on a program of school unity, last week won the presidency of the new Saint Francis High School, which will open next Fall.

The other officers elected were: Alice Jutila, vice-president; Karen Wendt, secretary; Lynn Thorbeck, treasurer; Colleen Keating, sergeant-at-arms.

The new president has said she plans to make the development of good relations between the school and the students and between the students and the school her main goal.

She said she would attempt to bring out the highest quality of school spirit and enthusiasm possible. She said her government would be the core of the students, not merely a group that meets in a closed room exclusive of the students.

SENTIMENTAL SENDOFF

The Diocesan high school building program will be bringing a vast array of changes come September . . . not the least of which is symbolized in the above picture. To aid the students of the Catholic high schools in the Sacramento area in keeping up with the changes, the Talon presents this special "Preview '65" edition. A photographic panorama of the scene next year can be found on pages 4-5 of this issue of The Talon.

GRADUATION MONDAY

Bishop Armstrong High School will graduate its last coeducational senior class Monday evening, June 8, in the Sacramento Memorial Auditorium. Eight p.m. will mark the start of the Eighth Annual Commencement.

Norbert Pacheco and Diana Thibodeau will make the valedictory ad-musical accompaniment.

Tomorrow (Friday, June 5), the Senior Day of Recollection will take place, followed by Holy Mass and an awards assembly. At that time recognition will be given to the many students who have achieved excellence in academic and athletic fields.

Carson Plans Sweeping New Council Set

Doug Carson, new Bishop Armstrong student body president, announced to The Talon his broad new program that is to get into operation next year.

The program includes:

- * A continuous push to school spirit and prestige
- * An accent on unity the four classes.

- * A drive for student participation and co-operation in activities.

- * The establishment of separate student councils—each class—to operate as a main student council.

- * Working with the administration in revising and new constitution to fit the needs of a four-year boys school.

- * A drive for better body-student council relations through a mass communications program

- * A big increase in the pep club.

- * Active and extensive participation in the Metropolitan Inter-School Council.

Main Goal

Carson said that the future of the build-up of school prestige, will be his main goal, all of the other points in the program the means of putting the main goal into practice.

He said he hopes to see better representation on the council through the setting up of four smaller councils.
