Board of Trustees 2013-14

The Board of Trustees at Christian Brothers High School is comprised of 10 volunteers dedicated to safeguarding and advancing the school's Catholic, Lasallian mission. Before joining the Board of Trustees, candidates undergo training on Lasallian charism (history, spirituality and philosophy of education) and Policy Governance – a model used by Lasallian schools throughout the District of San Francisco. This summer, the board welcomed new members, Brenda Fleming, Heather Ruple, and Eileen Schuering. Lincoln Snyder '95 is taking on the role of Board Chair.

The Policy Governance model comprises an inclusive, written set of goals for the school, called Ends Policies, which guide the board in monitoring the performance of the school and its CEO. Ends Policies help ensure that Christian Brothers High School adheres to the vision of the Brothers of the Christian Schools and the District of San Francisco.

"Last year, a group comprised of board members, former trustees, faculty and staff worked together to revise the Ends Policies. A new policy is now in place to ensure that the board looks closely at the long-term sustainability of the school. I am looking forward to working with Lorcan Barnes and this year's board to advance the Catholic, Lasallian mission of the school and ensure that the legacy of Christian Brothers High School extends well into the future," says Lincoln Snyder '95.

Transforming Lives Since 1680

Message From the President

Several times over the past year, I received emails from coworkers and friends encouraging me to watch online videos featuring a young boy who goes by the name of “Kid President.” His most famous, the “Pep Talk,” has been viewed more than 29 million times. The underlying theme to the growing assemblage of “Kid President’s” works is encouraging viewers to consider the ways they can be more “awesome!” Today, I watched his “Pep Talk for Teachers and Students.” In it, he touches on several subjects including history. “We can’t just study history,” he says. “We’ve got to make history.”

That small phrase got me thinking about Christian Brothers High School, the history that has been made here, and the history in the making. Our cover story touches on the small group of determined people who made history with their efforts to bring the Christian Brothers and Lasallian education to Sacramento. It touches on a few of the changes and improvements that were only possible thanks to the efforts of dedicated Brothers and supporters who were willing to give of their time and treasure to ensure that the school could continue to meet the needs of students. Finally, it speaks to the importance of continued support in sustaining the school.

I am thrilled to report that in our 138th year of Catholic, Lasallian education in Sacramento, Christian Brothers High School continues to thrive. Student enrollment is up by 4.4 percent and we welcomed our largest freshman class in six years. Hard work, planning, teacher training, and a significant infrastructure investment paid off with the successful launch of an all-student iPad program. Our international student community has grown from 12 students last year (the program’s first year) to 18 students this year. The Victor and Phela Vesci Strength and Fitness Center opened its doors in August. The George Cunningham ’40 Performing Arts Center will open in the spring of 2014. In the past 12 years, we have made more than $20 million in improvements and additions to our campus including the Science Math and Technology wing (2002) and athletic field house (2008). Most importantly, we lead the region in need-based tuition assistance. In 2013-14, we are distributing $2.15 million in tuition assistance to 393 deserving students (37.5% of our students).

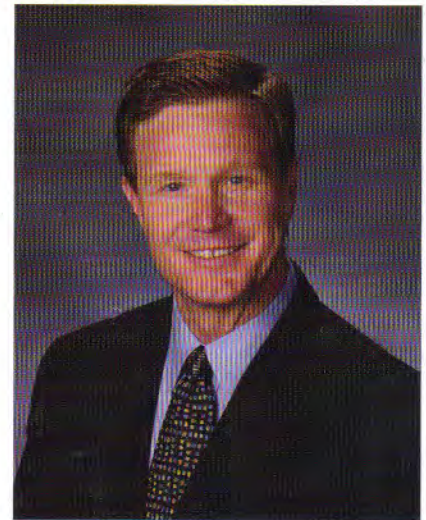

The Annual Report of Gifts (see page 26) and list of donors reflects gifts received during the July 1, 2012 – June 30, 2013 time period. I am grateful to all of the alumni, families and friends of the school who share of their resources to ensure that Christian Brothers High School continues to thrive. Your generosity ensures that we continue to make history.

Please know that we are careful stewards of your gifts and continue in our commitment to fiscal responsibility while maintaining the CB tradition of excellent, value-centered, Catholic, Lasallian education. In the words of “Kid President,” you are awesome!

Live Jesus in our hearts!

Celebrating 137 Years of Giving

It has been said that the first "official" capital campaign for Christian Brothers High School (known in 1876 as the St. Patrick Institute) began in a horse and buggy. At the reins, the formidable Miss Maggie Cunningham who was joined by Mrs. M. Horan and Mrs. Mary Scribner. The women launched a door-to-door effort to raise the remaining $3,000 to bring the Christian Brothers to Sacramento. Father Patrick Scanlan, who operated a school for children at St. Rose's Church in Sacramento, had been working with a committee and collecting money for several years. He even purchased property on K Street between 11th and 12th on which to build a school. His goal, enticing the Christian Brothers into operating a school for the boys and young men of Sacramento.

Collectively, the group's efforts were successful, convincing Catholics and non-Catholics, who understood the value of educating their children, to make a sacrifice for a public gain of a better educated, more capable younger generation. On July 17, 1876, Principal-Director Brother Cianan Griffin, FSC, California Governor William Irwin and Adjutant General Walsh of the State of California welcomed 200 students to the four-room school. Each classroom could accommodate 65 students and the school could house 20 live-in boarders.

Tuition ranged from $12 to $40 for a year, or from $3 to $10 for a two and one-half month session. In a tradition that proudly continues today, the Brothers were committed to assisting students whose families could not afford the fees. By year's end, three additional classrooms were added and school enrollment had increased to 250 thanks to growing awareness of the great work of the Brothers.

Fast forward 138 years, and CB continues to grow and thrive thanks to an enduring foundation of educational excellence, innovation and community. The "great work" of the Brothers lives on through their strong partnership with the dedicated faculty and staff who carry on the Catholic, Lasallian mission. The school is in the final stages of the Building on the Tradition Campaign – Phase II which brought the field house and the George Cunningham '40 Performing Arts Center (opening April 2014) to campus. Phase I added the Science, Math and Technology wing in 2002. Student enrollment is strong with 1,044 young men and women.

There have been numerous campaigns through the years. In 1900, Br. Vellisian Mallon, FSC laid the groundwork for a campaign to add an additional wing and expand the chapel of the K Street campus. In 1922, the school had outgrown its K Street location. The Diocese of Sacramento donated land at the corner of 21st and Y (Broadway) Streets. In September of 1924, students were welcomed to the new school. Area businessmen launched a campaign in 1926 to furnish the school. In 1927, a gymnasium was built on the second floor between the classrooms and living quarters. In 1955, the Brothers and the Diocese of Sacramento laid out a plan for a new school at a different site. With aging facilities at St. Francis High School (25th and K Streets) and St. Joseph's Academy (9th and G Streets) and Christian Brothers, Brother Bertram Coleman, FSC, proposed that the schools be brought together at one location in a co-instructional environment. A campaign was launched to create Bishop Armstrong High School which opened its doors in 1956 at the school's current location, then known as Sacramento Boulevard. The school operated as a co-institutional facility until the end of the 1963-64 school year.

"I think that Fr. Scanlan, Maggie Cunningham, Br. Cianan, Br. Bertram and all of the early benefactors would be proud to see their vision realized through the young men and women of Christian Brothers," says President Lorcan Barnes. "And, I believe they would marvel at the list (see Annual Report pg. 26) of alumni, parents, grandparents and friends who give so generously to ensure that we continue to fulfill our mission of touching the hearts and minds of the students entrusted to our care."

The 2013-14 school year is off to a fantastic start. The hard work, planning, yearlong teacher training, and infrastructure investment paid off in August when more than 1,000 iPads merged onto CB's new superhighway as CB began its one-to-one student iPad Program. The International Student Program has grown from 12 students last year (the program's first year) to 18 students this year. The Victor and Phela Vesci Strength and Fitness Center opened at the end of August, enhancing the strength, agility and safety of all student-athletes, improving the health and well-being of all students, and ensuring that all teams are in top physical condition when they take to the court, the pool or the field. CB proudly continues to lead the region with $2.2 million in need-based tuition assistance distributed to 393 students. Further, CB is the only local school earning a place on the Washington Post's 2013 list of "America's Most Challenging Private High Schools."

"In just the past 15 years, we have invested $22 million in campus additions and enhancements," says Barnes. "I am proud and grateful to say that we have done this without accumulating debt. That is only possible thanks to the donors who supported Phase I and Phase II of the Building on the Tradition Campaign. Yet, looking back even further, CB thrives today thanks to the generous support of all of the people who believed in the values-based education that is at the heart of the Lasallian philosophy and gave to ensure its continuity to future generations of students, especially those in need."

"The Brothers were very good to me," says Ken Belke '37. "They made it possible for me to go to college. Back then, we could choose if we wanted to study on a commercial or academic track. I chose academic and I was very well prepared for college. I also made lifetime friends and the camaraderie we had continues today through the Brotherhoods – a group of alumni, originally from the 1930s and 1940s, who meet monthly for lunch and socializing. Although we have lost some members in recent years, the group keeps us connected to the school."

After attending UC Berkeley for a year and one-half, Belke transferred to University of San Francisco. "It was more like Christian Brothers," offers Belke. "The classes were much smaller than at Berkeley. The teachers knew you and cared about you."

Belke returned to Sacramento following his USF graduation and worked as an accountant. "I remember Jack Stassi '40 and Br. Bertram (Coleman) coming to my office at work and telling me that the Brothers would be selling the winery and that the students would no longer be benefitting from the proceeds as we did back in my day. Br. Bertram was working with Jack to start a fund drive to go back to graduates and ask for money. They invited me to make a presentation to the Board of Regents. When I got there, Br. Bertram said the group was voting on a new Regent and that it was going to be me. I was at Christian Brothers during Br. Bertram's first year of teaching in 1936. We loved him! Years later, all of our wives loved him. He was a wonderful man and you didn't tell him no. So, that is how I became a Regent."

"When I was a kid, my family could not afford tuition," says Sal 'Chado' Vasquez '52. "I thought I would go to Sac High. One day, Br. Bertram came to Holy Angels, called me into the office and asked if I was going to Christian Brothers. I told him no, I couldn't afford it. He told me that if I kept my nose clean, I didn't have to worry about it. I will never forget that day and I wasn't the only one. Now, I give to CB because the Brothers really formed me and I just hope that more kids can have that."

"I know that many of the women who attended Bishop Armstrong feel displaced," explains Linda Giese '59. "But, we have a place here. I'm lucky because I have an additional family connection, my son Jeff graduated in 1981 and three of my grandchildren are graduates (Kayla Giese '09, Eddie Ralph '10 and Jamie Ralph '12). So much more is available to the students of today. Back when I attended Bishop Armstrong (CBHS from 1956-1969), boys were in one wing, and girls were in another wing. It's so much better and healthier with the students interacting with each other, learning from each other. It isn't just about dating like it was when we would pass the boys in the hallway or see them at lunch. And, the school really prepares the students for college. The adjustment is a lot easier after Christian Brothers."

In November of 1989, Bishop Francis Quinn of the Diocese of Sacramento and Brother Mark Murphy, FSC, Brother Visitor of the District of San Francisco, formally announced the intention of CB to become a coeducational institution. With the imminent closure of Bishop Manogue High School, the school invested approximately $400,000 in campus renovations to ensure CB could meet the needs of an expanding student body that included boys and girls. Approximately two-thirds of the students and 13 teachers from Bishop Manogue joined the CB community, including Jill Bennett, Chrys Cassetta and Holly Peterson, Ed.D., who continue to teach at CB today.

Bobbi Pires '76 is a Bishop Manogue High School alumna and avid volunteer with the Alumni Association and The La Salle Club. "CB made a place for the young women and alumnae of Bishop Manogue when the school closed. We have a home here and I've always felt welcome. I'm proud to support the mission of the school and will continue to work to help make sure that more young women and men have the opportunity to benefit from a Christian Brothers education."

"I believe strongly in the mission of Christian Brothers, the education and the values," says Bob Slakey '48. "Enter to learn, leave to serve says it all. I also believe it can only succeed if people with resources step up and support it."

"As an innovator in education, St. John Baptist de La Salle recognized that different localities, times and conditions demanded different advanced studies and solutions," says Barnes. Throughout CB's almost 138 years in Sacramento, we have certainly adapted to changes in location, times and educational needs. Thankfully, generations of Sacramentens like Maggie Cunningham have made sacrifices for a public gain of a better educated, more capable younger generation. As we prepare to celebrate the spring opening of the George Cunningham '40 Performing Arts Center, I am grateful for all of the capital campaigns, official and unofficial, that collectively ensured that Christian Brothers High School today, is the place to be."

HAPPY RETIRE MENT

"To touch the hearts of your pupils and to inspire them with the Christian spirit is the greatest miracle you can perform and of which God expects of you."

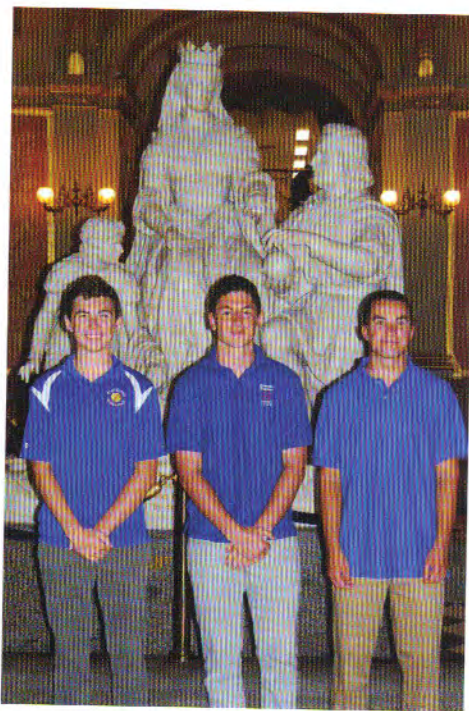

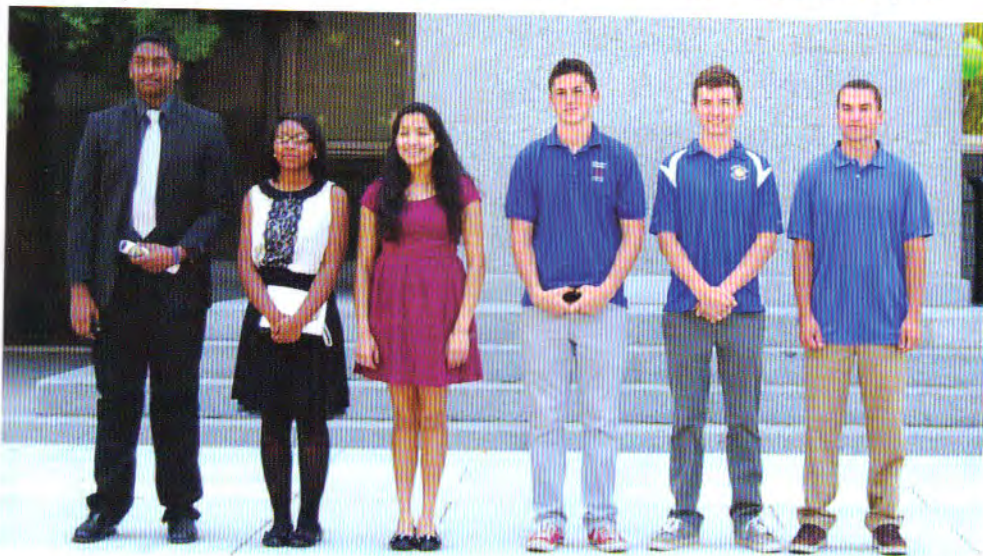

— St. John Baptist de La Salle

On behalf of the entire Christian Brothers High School community, thank you, MARY JENKINS, for 29 YEARS OF MIRACLES. Congratulations on your retirement!

KIRK PURDY

2013 Lasallian Educator of the Year

Since 1997, Director of Guidance Kirk Purdy's caring demeanor, willingness to listen and seemingly tireless dedication to the students of Christian Brothers have helped countless students and their parents navigate the oftentimes rough waters of high school life and college planning. As men's varsity golf coach for the past 10 seasons (eight-time section champions) and freshman basketball coach during his first five years at the school, he's been a mentor, motivator and friend. Purdy's peers and school administrators selected Kirk Purdy as the 2012-13 Lasallian Educator of the Year.

"Kirk, you enjoy the respect and affection of our community because you embody the qualities of a model Catholic, Lasallian educator," said President Lorcan Barnes to a visibly surprised Purdy.

"I have known Mr. Purdy since my brothers were freshmen at CB in 2004," said Hunter Rappleye '13. "To me, he is more than a golf coach, he is my third parent while I'm at school. He has taught me lessons that go beyond the golf course that I will never forget. He demonstrates the Lasallian Core Principles and I believe he is the person most deserving of this award."

"When Kirk Purdy took over the counseling department in 2010, I knew that I was leaving it in capable, caring hands," says Principal Mary Hesser. "He is devoted to the students of Christian Brothers and willing to do whatever it takes to shepherd them through the challenges of adolescence. He is a tremendous leader whose vision and commitment bless our community."

"I was very surprised to hear my name called," says Purdy. "There are so many phenomenal educators at Christian Brothers High School. When I think about them and the people who have won this award in years' past, I can't believe that I was nominated, let alone selected. This definitely motivates me to work harder, find new ways to serve students and show our community that I will live up to this honor."

Christian Brothers High School Earns Full 6-Year Accreditation

Awesome!!

After more than 18 months of planning, collecting and compiling data, followed by an intensive on-site visit that included classroom visits, meetings with parents, students, faculty and staff, the CBHS educational community received notice in July that it earned the highest rating of accreditation by both the Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) and the Western Catholic Education Association (WCEA). Christian Brothers High School was one of four schools enlisted to pilot the groups' new Ensuring Educational Excellence (E3) accreditation process.

"It was an honor to collaborate with WASC and WCEA to pilot a program that will assist these tremendous organizations as they work to improve education throughout the western United States. In granting CB a full six-year accreditation, WASC/WCEA affirmed that CBHS is highly effective as a trustworthy, college preparatory, Catholic institution of learning," explains Principal Mary Hesser. "It was heartening to earn the highest possible scores in our accreditation reviews and receive the maximum six-year accreditation status. However, I speak for all of us when I say that we are not content to rest on our laurels. We will continue to look for innovative ways to inspire high achievement and ensure that all of our students are prepared for success in college and as they take their places as ethical leaders in an interdependent, diverse and rapidly changing world."

CB Presents You Can't Take It With You

CB's talented actors brought 1937's Pulitzer Prize winning play to the stage with the spring production of You Can't Take it With You. The play centers on the comical encounter between a conservative and pompous family, the Sycamores, and the madcap household of the Vanderhof family. Dinner, marriage and an ex-Grand Duchess of Russia are all a part of this wonderful and timeless production.

CB Duo Wins First Place at International Film Competition

Emma Bradford '14 and Lucas Dudley '14 brought home first place in the "music video" category for their entry, "Paper Plates" at the first ever All-American High School Film Festival. Bradford and Dudley were two of 84 finalists flown to New York City where they walked the red carpet on Friday, October 4, at Times Square's AMC Theater. The festival is the creation of Andrew Jenks, a filmmaker and originator of the "World of Jenks" documentary series on MTV. After calling for submissions, the festival received more than 1,000 projects from all around the world, including South Korea, Japan, South Africa, Canada, as well as 40 states. Actors Edward Burns and Kristen Stewart, documentarian Morgan Spurlock, screenwriter Diablo Cody and "Lost" executive producer Carlton Cuse were among the judges. Both Bradford and Dudley are involved in CB's video production program and student-run television station, KBFT.

Vocal Jazz Takes First Place at Reno Jazz Festival

CB's Vocal Jazz ensemble performed at the Reno Jazz Festival (lauded as one of the premiere jazz festivals in the nation) in April where they competed against the top high school groups from Washington, Oregon, California and Nevada. Christian Brothers was one of only three schools in its division receiving straight superiors and thanks to a stellar performance, the team earned first place. Congratulations to choral instructor, Holly Slabbinck, and all the members of Vocal Jazz: Sarah Hotz '13, Lauren Adams '14, Hannah Palmer '15, Maura Tomassetti '15, Sylvia Francisco '13, Allie Lian '14, Giovanni Salcedo '13, Mark Lagunas '13, Brandon Meyer '13, Kaalen Kirrene '13, Sergei Vasylyev '14 and Will Richard '13, for putting their hearts and souls into the art of vocal jazz. Their love of music radiated and was infectious. The crowd went wild, the clinician showered them with accolades, and the results on the score card all made for a wonderful day.

CB Celebrates Grand Opening of Victor and Phela Vesci Strength and Fitness Center

After passing through an arch of baseball bats held aloft by seven varsity players, Phela Vesci cut through the ceremonial blue ribbon and opened the door to the Victor and Phela Vesci Strength and Fitness Center.

"I never imagined this," said a visibly surprised Vesci. With tears welling in her eyes, "This is so much more than I expected."

Back in 2012, Vesci contacted Christian Brothers High School to see if there was something she could do to support the baseball program and honor her husband, Victor, who coached baseball at Christian Brothers in the 1940s. After speaking with Assistant Director of Advancement, Nancy Smith-Fagan, who consulted with the school's athletic directors, a plan was set in motion.

Vesci had decided to donate $100,000 toward converting a vacant portion of the field house into a cardio and core conditioning room. The money was to be used to purchase new cardio-training equipment and upgrade facilities and equipment. Best of all, the new facility would benefit more than the baseball team, it would enhance the strength, agility and safety of all student-athletes, improve the health and well-being of all students, and ensure that all 28 varsity teams are in top physical condition when they take to the court or field.

The La Salle club generously added a $10,000 gift. Parents, friends and alumni attending the March 2013 auction added $28,000. CB parent, Tom Jones, of Hilbers Construction, shared his expertise as did Steve Barsanti '78, CB's director of facilities. CB's maintenance crew also jumped in and enthusiastically embraced the project.

"The Victor and Phela Vesci Strength and Fitness Center will benefit virtually every student at Christian Brothers, and will continue to have a positive impact on student health and fitness for many years," said President Lorcan Barnes. "We are so grateful to Phela, Tom, The La Salle Club, families and friends for their generosity."

"The celebration was such a nice tribute to my husband," said Vesci. "It meant a lot to me that the baseball players and students attended the celebration and it is a joy to know that this center will make a difference to so many children at the school."

Men's Golf Wins Section Title and Eighth Consecutive League Title

Congratulations to the Falcons who brought home an eighth consecutive league championship and increased their home-course winning streak to 40 matches. The team also won the Sacramento Section Division II golf title. After 10 phenomenal seasons as varsity coach, Kirk Purdy is stepping down to spend more time with his family. Coach Purdy, it's been a great run! Taking over for the Falcons when they hit the links again in the spring will be CB football coach and parent, Jim Ghilardi.

Playing at the College Level

Mallory Velte '13, Kendall Williams '13 and Taryn Sigl '13 signed Letters of Intent to play their respective sports at the collegiate level. Two-time State Champion Velte will be wrestling for Simon Fraser University in Canada. Kendall Williams will hit the gridiron at New Mexico Highlands University. Taryn Sigl will play softball for University of the Cumberlands in Kentucky. These three stellar student athletes join Andrej Bevins (University of New Mexico/golf), Ana Burch (CSU Stanislaus/basketball), Omari Gray (Butler University/football), Vincent Johnson (UC Berkeley/football), and Hunter Rapple (St. Mary's College/golf) who signed Letters of Intent in February.

Men's Volleyball Wins League Co-Championship

CB men's volleyball earned its first Capital Valley Conference league title going 3-1 in league and 14-6-1 overall.

Men's Soccer Captures Division III Title

With an 8-0-2 record in league and 17-4-3 over all, the Falcons captured the Capital Valley Conference (CVC) league championship and went on to win the Sac-Joaquin Section Division-III Championship. Congratulations to Kristian Heptner '15 who led the region in scoring and was named the CVC's most valuable player.

CBHS Celebrates 137th Commencement

"Four years ago, when you entered CB as nervous freshmen, you came from more than 50 different grade schools, more than 50 neighborhoods. You were a very diverse group. But, here you are four years later, you have become one great class." declared CB President, Lorcan Barnes, to the Class of 2013.

On Friday, May 24, the illustrious ranks of CBHS alumni increased by 211 young men and women who earned their diplomas as the school celebrated its 137th commencement ceremony. The day began with Baccalaureate Mass at the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament officiated by the Most Reverend Bishop Jaime Soto. Following Mass, graduates enjoyed a luncheon at the school and celebrated their graduation that evening at the Memorial Auditorium.

The event proved to be the ideal ending to four years of hard work and special memories. Senior Class President Niel Valmores (Seattle University) served as master of ceremonies. Ryan Dempsey (California Institute of Technology) delivered the Valedictory Address with Alex Daly (Northwestern University) providing the Salutatory Address.

In addition to conferring diplomas, a number of students received awards including:

The La Salle Scholar – Athlete Awards: Hunter Rappleye and Mallory Velte

The De La Salle Medal for Excellence in Religion: Clara Johnson

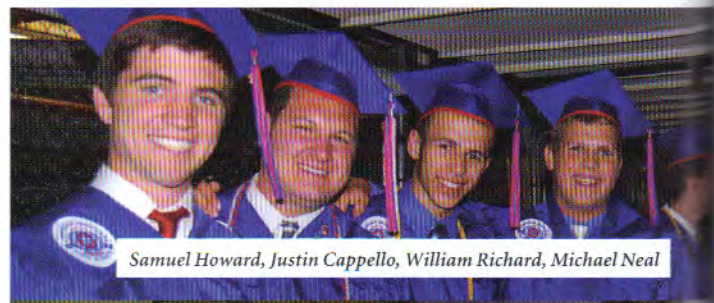

The Jack Witry Award: Vincent Johnson, III; and Nicole Skow

The Academic Excellence Award: Ryan Dempsey

The Brother Ambrose Award for Lasallian Service and Loyalty: Tatijana Bowman

Members of the Class of 2013 are attending colleges and universities in 22 states and two foreign countries.

Ambassadors Celebrated

Christian Brothers High School celebrated its most generous supporters at the 29th annual Ambassadors' Club Dinner. Attendees at the event, held October 23, at Christian Brothers enjoyed a special performance by CB's Jazz Trio during the social hour. CB alumnus, Mark Orr '94, made the trek from St. Mary's College of California, where he serves as athletic director, to provide the keynote speech and reflect on the many blessing of athletics and Catholic, Lasallian education. CB's President, Lorcan Barnes, provided a state-of-the-school message followed by the evening's highlight, the presentation of the 2013 Ambassadors of the Year award to The La Salle Club.

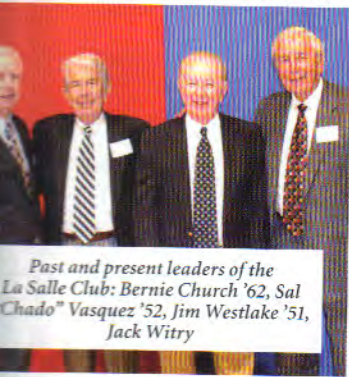

Legend has it that The La Salle Club was created thanks to a particularly "unholy" 45-6 gridiron trouncing of Christian Brothers by a better equipped Sacramento High School. Its first meeting, held in the basement of Cy Puliz's home, included salami, cheese, beer and cigars for inspiration along with the proverbial passing of the hat that generated $20.25 seed money (enough to pay for a week's lodging back in 1939) to begin purchasing football equipment.

"Seventy-four years later and I can almost smell the cigar smoke, taste the beer and feel the misery of that loss to Sac High," says CB President Lorcan Barnes. "Seventy-four years later, and The La Salle Club continues its noble efforts to serve the student-athletes of Christian Brothers High School and instill the vital life lessons of fair and clean sportsmanship and the ideals of citizenship and important life lessons that come from sports."

Over the years, The La Salle Club has organized countless events including La Salle Club Frolics, Goose Stew dinners, student boxing matches, homecoming dances, golf tournaments, the Baseball Hall of Fame and the Coaches and Officials Hall of Fame Dinners. Early on, the group purchased football equipment, refurbished locker rooms, created, maintained and repaired athletic fields. Through their efforts, they have sponsored football uniforms, baseball pitching machines, weight lifting equipment, a 15-passenger van, golf carts, wrestling mats and even musical instruments for the pep band.

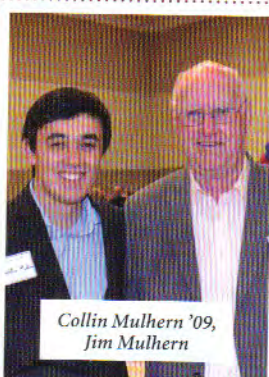

"In the past 10 years, The La Salle Club has made tremendous improvements to the student-athlete experience," says Barnes. "Their generosity has helped make it possible for us to rebuild the Ron Limeberger '53 Gymnasium following the roof collapse in 2004. We renovated the men's baseball field and the football field, built a field house and an athletic training room, purchased and installed baseball and softball scoreboards, relocated and expanded our weight room, added bleachers to the field house, fenced in the baseball field and opened the Victor and Phela Vesci Strength and Fitness Center. If you look at all of these projects, you will find the contributions and dedication of the fine men and women of The La Salle Club."

"It is an honor to receive the Ambassadors of the Year Award," says longtime La Salle Club member and volunteer, Jim Westlake '51. "I believe this award really belongs to the many volunteers and members who, over the course of the past 74 years, generously gave of their time and resources to support the students of Christian Brothers High School."

"I'm really proud that we were invited to help revitalize The La Salle Club," says Sal "Chado" Vasquez '52, the La Salle Club's longest tenured president - 14 years. "We had a lot of fun and we were able to contribute to both the boys' and girls' athletic programs."

"Jimmy (Westlake '51) said it really well," says Bernie Church '62, president, The La Salle Club. "This award really belongs to the people who came before us, we just happen to be here to accept it. The real work was done by the people who persevered during much more dire times and circumstances. I'm proud to accept this on their behalf."

You are ambassadors and ministers of Jesus Christ."

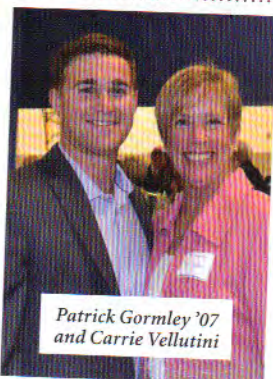

—St. John Baptist de La Salle

The Ambassadors Club was formed in 1984 to recognize and honor members of the Christian Brothers family who support the school financially. The gift level is $1,876 or more, which coincides with the founding year of the school. Gifts at this level, and all gifts, contribute greatly toward providing a quality, Catholic, Lasallian education to the deserving young men and women of Christian Brothers High School.

"The members of the The La Salle Club are passionate and vocal advocates of the school, our student-athletes and Catholic education," says Barnes. "They are respected and beloved in the community. On behalf of all of the students they have helped, and continue to help, I am thrilled to present them this year with the Ambassadors of the Year Award."

The La Salle Club celebrated its 59th annual Baseball Hall of Fame inductees with a fantastic night of renewed friendships, relived memories and reveling in the rich history of Sacramento baseball. The event, held on April 27, in the CB field house, welcomed nine new members into the Hall of Fame including former high school pitchers Butch Metzger (Kennedy) and Fernando Arroyo (Burbank) who competed against each other in the old Metro League before embarking on major-league careers, former Grant High and Japan League star Leon Lee, former Bishop Armstrong star and Christian Brothers coach Joe Gill '63, Tom Dicktakes (Sacramento High), Mike Green '62 (Bishop Armstrong), Gene Sackett (McClatchy), Gary Szakas (Mira Loma) and former Sacramento Bee staff writer Nick Peters, who covered the San Francisco Giants for 47 years.

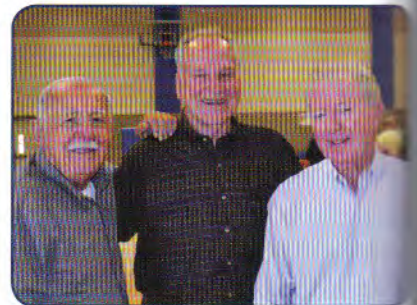

Honorees are selected based on a number of factors including age (60 years or older), success as a player, manager, scout, umpire or writer, and a connection to the region.

The La Salle Club was established in 1937 to raise money for sports teams and equipment at the school. That tradition continues today as proceeds from the dinner benefit CB's athletic programs.

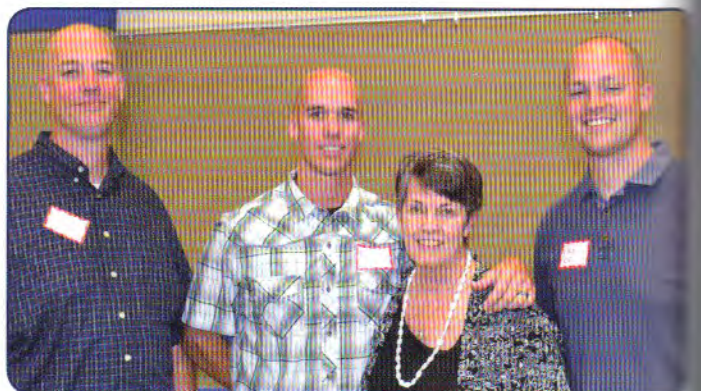

Mark your calendars for the 2014 Baseball Hall of Fame dinner scheduled on Saturday evening, February 15, 2014!

Brother Bertram Society

The Brother Bertram Society was founded in 1994 to honor Brother Bertram Coleman, FSC. The society includes persons and couples who have made provisions for Christian Brothers High School in their estate plans.

In his 70 years of service to the District of San Francisco, Br. Bertram served as a teacher, high school prefect, vice principal, athletic director and coach, director of student Brothers at St. Mary's College, principal of Christian Brothers and Cathedral high schools, Brother Visitor, development director, alumni director, Director General of Mt. La Salle and district archivist. He was a passionate advocate of Lasallian education and ardently committed to educating the poor.

The Brother Bertram Society speaks to the importance of estate planning to the future of Christian Brothers High School. If you have included CBHS in your estate plans, or if you would like information about the Brother Bertram Society, please contact Nancy Smith-Fagan, director of advancement, at 916-733-3608.

Christian Brothers High School Mourns Passing of Mrs. Helen Montgomery

August 24, 1934 – April 28, 2013

Helen Montgomery was a busy woman. She, and her husband, Norman, were married for 54 years, ran a successful business (Montgomery Contractors, Inc.) and raised six children in a large and loving family. Helen was an active member of the Holy Spirit Parish where she served on the Altar Society and the school's PTA. Her sons attended Christian Brothers and Norman himself was named an honorary alumnus in 1981 and Ambassador of the Year in 1991. Helen, through the years, was an avid volunteer and generous supporter of the school, even serving on the Christian Brothers High School Board of Regents.

With her passing, Helen leaves behind her children, Stephen '73 (Mary), Tom '74 (Brenda), Cathy '76 (Keith), Anne '78 (Greg), Br. John Montgomery, FSC '81, daughter, Mary, 10 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

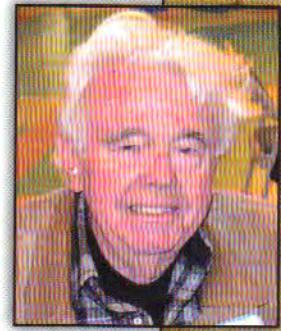

Through her participation in the Brother Bertram Society, her legacy of dedication and generosity will continue through a bequest that directed funds to the construction of the George Cunningham '40 Performing Arts Center and the Br. John Montgomery Endowed Scholarship Fund.

"Helen Montgomery was a woman of tremendous faith and steadfast dedication," says CB President Lorcan Barnes. "Her deep commitment to Lasallian education will continue to bless our students who rely on tuition assistance and our young men and women as they develop and showcase their talents in the new theatre and performing arts classrooms. We are grateful for Helen's generosity. She will be deeply missed."

Joe Sobel - Semper Fi

By Dr. Pat Melarkey '49

As a graduate of Christian Brothers High School in Sacramento, California, Class of 1949, I tend to stay in close contact with many of my former classmates. A number of us get together monthly for breakfast at a local diner and discuss our lives, our business interests and our fellow Brothers alumni (Brothers Boys). So, when I saw an obituary in the Sacramento Bee announcing the funeral of a Brothers Boy named Joe Sobel, I made it a point to attend the service, held at Reichert's Funeral Home in Orangevale.

Unlike my relationships with other classmates, I had lost close contact with Joe during the intervening years between high school and now. We were in different classes; I was in Class of '49 while Joe was in Class of '52. But we had also known one another as kids, living in the same general area of Sacramento. I live on 25th and U Streets (where I still reside), while Joe was three blocks away at 28th and Q Streets, next to the Vartanian family, including brothers Peter '50 and Sam '51. We all knew one another from our neighborhood games.

Joe was a good athlete, wasn't gifted, but he was okay. He wasn't a great student either and some of his difficulties stemmed from his disability. Joe suffered from what was referred to at that time as "the stutter." However, when he did speak, he made perfect sense, but, usually preferred to remain silent and listen. Joe was more aware of what was going on than non-stop talkers like me. Ironically, he spoke five languages, as reported to me by Victor Bertolani '52, a close friend and neighbor, and retired prominent attorney. Joe's other four languages – Italian, Slavic, French and Portuguese – were all spoken without his stutter.

Joe left during junior year and joined the Marines where he found a home, a purpose in life, and, especially, people who appreciated him and his efforts. At that time, people were prejudiced against stuttering individuals and it was rare that they had a chance to move up the social ladder. There are exceptions to this rule that usually involve people who have financial opportunities in life, who can receive treatment. Joe, of course, didn't receive any treatments for his problem so he suffered in silence like most people with his condition.

When I arrived at the funeral at the Witchard Funeral Home on that hot July day, I was not surprised to find a large crowd already assembled for the service. There were 60 or 70 of us crowded into a small chapel including a handful of Christian Brothers boys, some of them, his classmates. Outside the chapel was another crowd of attendees – approximately the same number – as were inside. This group was composed of veteran motorcycle riders, Joe's family in his later years, his third such family altogether after his blood kin family and his second family of fellow Marines.

I sat there in the chapel remembering Joe and wishing I had maintained closer contact with him over the past sixty years. The most curious thing about Joe Sobel's funeral was the amount of time that had transpired between his death at a nursing home on October 21, 2012 and his funeral in Orangevale on July 22, 2013 – ten months exactly. What had happened to cause this? I wondered, so I asked a reporter friend of mine to look into it.

The reporter contacted Mark Reichert, the director at the funeral home to inquire about the delay. Reichert referred the reporter to Fred Turner, the Sacramento County Administrator, who had more detailed information on Sobel's death and the cause of the lengthy delay before his funeral.

"We weren't able to find any family for Mr. Sobel to take care of his remains when we were contacted by the county coroner, which is the usual process regarding the death of the indigent, like Mr. Sobel. The coroner first performs a search for next-of-kin and then if they can't find any, they come to us. There was a serious hitch that developed in the case of Joe Sobel," Turner explained to the reporter.

"There is only me and one other deputy and our supervisor in our office. The delay was primarily due to the fact that the people at the nursing facility didn't follow the proper procedure in dealing with an unclaimed body. We were very distressed by this and there is an investigation underway into how this occurred. Hopefully, there will be a remedy so a situation like this never happens again."

Care of the poor and distressed, especially veterans, has been a career-long concern of mine and I regret that I didn't keep as close a watch on Joe as did some of my more successful colleagues. Poor Joe didn't deserve the humiliating fate he suffered in death, but, at least his true friends and Brothers were there in Orangevale to see him off and remember him.

No American should suffer this indignity, especially veterans. Joe Sobel's looking down on us now and would be pleased to know that the veterans – men and women – who attended his funeral and accompanied his body to Veterans Memorial Cemetery in Dixon, where he was laid to rest with full military honors and vows from his friends, are appreciated and respected. Our community will not allow less for the men and women who put their lives on the line – some fatally – to protect our great country.

Joe Sobel was the kind of person you wanted covering your back. I will remember him with great fondness. Semper Fi.

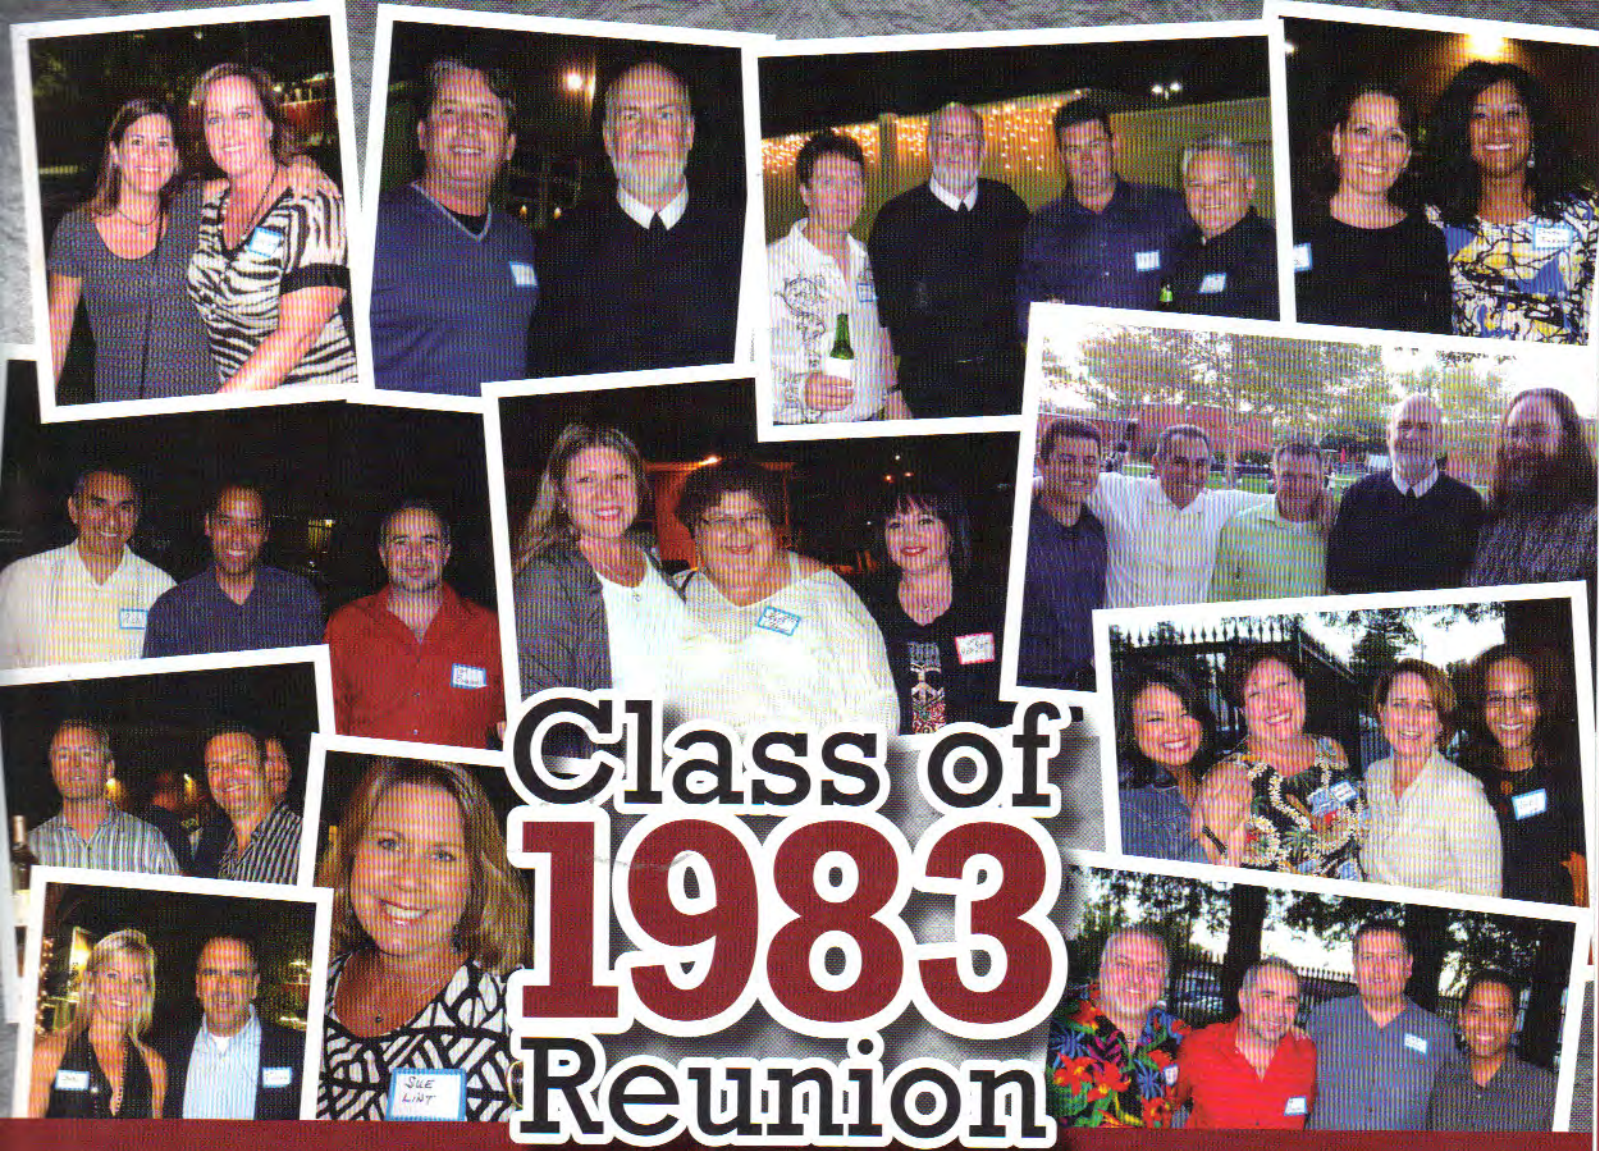

Class of 1963 Reunion

The Class of 1963 celebrated its 50th reunion with a fun-filled weekend that began with a Friday evening cocktail party. Christian Brothers followed by an elegant dinner on Saturday at Arden Hills.

Class of 1983 Reunion

The Class of 1983 (Christian Brothers and Bishop Manogue) celebrated its 30th reunion under the stars at Christian Brothers High School on Saturday, September 28. Brother Dan Morgan, FSC, even made the long drive from Union Gap, Washington to join in the celebration.

WINE, BEER & FOOD Extravaganza

A Party with a Purpose

The CB Alumni Association set out to make the 26th annual Wine, Beer & Food Extravaganza a party with a purpose. The purpose, raising money for tuition assistance. The party, the most successful in event history. More than 1,800 alumni, family and friends attended the fun-filled event on Friday, September 6, which featured offerings from dozens of wineries, breweries, and restaurants. After nearly a year of planning and hard work, the festivities generated a phenomenal $112,000.

The event began with the Private Reserve Tasting which featured exclusive wines and a variety of cheeses and hors d'oeuvres. Nearly 200 wine aficionados and friends gathered in the field house to enjoy this festive precursor to the extravaganza.

Wineries and restaurants filled the main lawn, while the breweries and additional restaurants spread out across the interior lawn. New this year, a champagne lounge, where patrons could enjoy delectable desserts with their bubbly. Back by popular demand, the cigar lounge where patrons could enjoy a taste of whiskey as they smoked. A special thank you to the Classes of 1968, 1979, 1983, 1992 and 1997 that also organized food tables which were located throughout the event.

"I am so grateful for the generosity of our sponsors, and the many wineries, breweries, restaurants and classes who made this event possible," says CB President, Lorcan Barnes. "Over the course of the last year, event chair, Matthew Ruggiero '00, Nancy Smith-Fagan, assistant director of advancement, and the entire Alumni Association Board of Directors looked for ways to make an already wonderful event even better. They definitely succeeded, particularly when you consider how the event continues to benefit our students who rely on tuition assistance."

A special thank you to event chair, Matthew Ruggiero '00, and the entire Alumni Association Board for their time, dedication and hard work in making this a fantastic evening to remember. Thanks, also, to Neumann Enterprises and Uber for their assistance in making sure that attendees had safe rides home.

Next year's event is scheduled for Friday, September 5, 2014.

DIRECTOR OF ADVANCEMENT LOOKS FORWARD TO NEW CHALLENGE

Nancy Smith-Fagan

After careful consideration and several years of considerable success, Nancy Smith-Fagan is eager to take on a new challenge as she steps into the role of Director of Advancement. Smith-Fagan joined CB's Advancement Department in June of 2010. Under her leadership, the Alumni Wine, Beer and Food Extravaganza has more than doubled in earnings to $120,000 in net revenue. The annual auction and annual giving programs have grown considerably, as well. She has expanded alumni activities and worked closely with numerous classes organizing reunions.

"Nancy has earned the respect and affection of our alumni, donors and volunteers as well as our faculty and staff," says Lorcan Barnes, president. "She is dedicated to advancing the mission of the school and puts her heart, time and talent into raising money for our students."

As Director of Advancement, Smith-Fagan she will oversee an advancement office that generated almost $2.5 million in philanthropic support in 2012-13 and lead a dedicated staff that includes both Paul Rieschick and Karen Achondo '80.

"I'm excited for this challenge and committed to working to ensure that a Catholic, Lasallian education is accessible to families with limited means," says Smith-Fagan. "CB is an extraordinary community of students, faculty and staff. I'm grateful for the experiences that my sons have had and I want that for as many young men and women as is possible. It won't be easy, but, it is definitely worth it."

Smith-Fagan holds a bachelor's degree from the University of San Diego and a master's degree in Religious Studies from Temple University. Prior to her service at CB, she served as director of operations at the Greater Philadelphia Food Bank, as development associate at Green Street Friends School in Philadelphia, and as director of advancement at St. Mary Elementary School in Sacramento.

Smith-Fagan, and her husband, Kevin, joined the CB community in 2008 as parents when their oldest son, Eamon '12 enrolled as a freshman. Their second son, Brendan '15, is a junior and Aidan, a future Falcon, is in 8th grade at St. Mary's Elementary.

"I look forward to working with Nancy and the advancement team to ensure that CB attracts the resources essential to our continued success in providing an outstanding Catholic, Lasallian education to deserving students for many years to come," says Barnes.

"The Brotherhoods" is a group of CB alumni who began gathering monthly, in the name of Christian Brothers, 40-plus years ago. Though its founding members were from the graduating classes of the 1930s and 1940s, membership today has expanded to include "youngsters" from the 1950s through the 1980s. This year, the group enjoyed their annual summer barbecue at CB, with John Tatro '83 manning the grill. A fantastic time was had by all.

Bob Fouts '39 is retired and living in San Francisco California. Fouts credits CB with helping him obtain a journalism scholarship to St. Mary's College. During World War II he joined the Army Air Corps as an Air Cadet. He was commissioned at Yale University and retired as a Colonel in the US Air Force. He worked for 13 years as a play-by-play announcer for the San Francisco 49ers on CBS TV. He also worked for more than 20 years on ABC radio covering every sport worldwide from the Olympics to golf. He was Sports Director for KPIX(5) then at KGO-TV(7). He then moved on to government service where he worked as an aide to five different cabinet heads and guided U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services, Margaret Heckler, who served under President Ronald Reagan, through her senate confirmation hearings. Ultimately, Fouts retired as Deputy Regional Commissioner of the Social Security Administration.

Bob Scheid '44 is enjoying retired life after 35 years at the San Jose Mercury News Advertising Department and five years of coaching the Santa Clara University men's golf team. Bob submitted the following tribute to John Shepard '44:

John Shepard '44 was all Gael. He turned out for every athletic team - every season. Include also the minstrel show and every other special event which occurred. He was a doer.

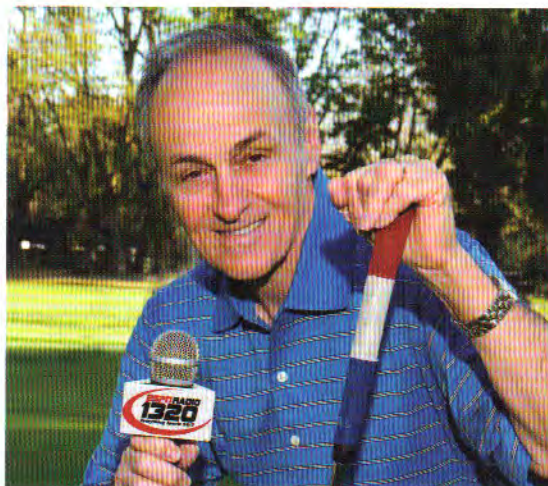

John went into the navy V-12 Program in February 1944 along with several other members of the class. He retired some 30 or so years later as a Rear Admiral. John spend much of his career on Admiral Rickover's team working on the Navy's nuclear program. The Navy also sent him to Stanford University where he earned a master's degree.

Along the way, John and his wife, Vaughan, raised four children, and, in retirement, raised Arabian horses. Sadly, Vaughan and John both passed away in 2012 and are buried at Arlington National Cemetery in Washington, D.C.

John lived a life to be pleased with where his Christian Brothers foundation contributed to a success story.

For only the 13th time since 1920, the Northern California PGA has awarded an Honorary Membership to a media personality. The group honored Frank LaRosa '62 for his distinguished service to the NCPGA Section, its PGA Professionals, and countless non-profit organizations at its semi-annual meeting in June. According to the NCPGA, LaRosa displays an exceptional ability to reach and touch people through his creativity and communication expertise. Whether he is hosting ESPN Radio's "Golf to Go," writing an article for NCPGA Magazine, hosting "Tee Time: Golf in Northern California for Public Television, or producing hundreds of yearly informational videos, his ability to take a piece of news and transform it into a captivating story that the audience will connect with is his hallmark. His reach and impact for the Section have transcended all communication mediums — from print, to radio and television, to the Internet. In 2005 and again in 2010 he was awarded the distinction of NCPGA Sports Media Person of the Year. Owner of Frank LaRosa and Associates Advertising and Marketing Agency, his passion for golf is reflected in his many achievements including serving as a member of the Board of Directors of the NCPGA Foundation and a Board Member of the Morton Golf Foundation. LaRosa's impact on the game extends to many charitable organizations including The First Tee of Greater Sacramento, The George Archer Memorial Foundation for Literacy, Saving Strokes, and more.

Paul Groesbeck '63 is alive and well and living in Sacramento. A talented musician, Paul plays the guitar and the piano and his love of golf remains strong.

Tom Crawford '64 is retired after 35 years in various engineering and management positions and finds that he is more active now than he ever was before. Tom is the president of the Mates and Dates Ballroom dance club, the editor of the Coast Dispatcher (the newsletter for Coast Division of National Model Railroad Association (NMRA)), the Secretary of the Pacific Coast Region of the NMRA, the team lead of the Wednesday Warriors, a group that refurbishes train cars for the Niles Canyon Railway, and the head of the Train of Lights Exterior Decorating crew for the Niles Canyon Railway. He is also the database guru for the California Jobs Daughters, and the Jobs Daughters International Supreme Council. Tom, and his wife, Diane, enjoy traveling and recently spent a month in Eastern Europe.

Manny Tequida '65 was inducted into the Sacramento State Men's Basketball Coaches' Circle. 2013 marks just the second year of the Coaches' Circle which recognizes CSUS alums who graduated between 1965 and 1972 and went on to successful coaching careers. Tequida's career included coaching junior varsity basketball at Jesuit High School 1972-74, varsity head coach at Sacramento High School from 1974-81, Sacramento State assistant coach from 1981-84, and Sacramento High School varsity head coach 1984-85. He was inducted into the La Salle Club Coaches' Hall of Fame in 2005.

Jim Zarzana '68 recently returned to fulltime teaching after five years as Chair of the English Department at Southwest Minnesota State University (SMSU) in Marshall, Minnesota. This summer, he published his first novel, The Marsco Dissident, Book I of The Marsco Saga, a dystopian sci-fi series that starts in and around Sacramento beginning in 2092. The book is available for purchase on Amazon. In August, 2013, Jim began his 25th year teaching English at SMSU, where he and his wife, Marianne, are both professors of English. Their daughter, Elaine, is a graduate student at SMSU.

James Houpt '69 is a litigation lawyer in the Sacramento office of Orrick. He has litigated a wide range of complex business disputes, including antitrust, fraud and breach of fiduciary duty, insurance coverage, unfair competition and trademark and copyright infringement. Houpt's practice includes litigation in the bankruptcy court, where he has assisted clients in the Enron, U.S. Airways, Tri-State Outdoor Media Group and Stone & Webster cases, among others. He has extensive experience in libel, slander and privacy law, the pursuit of federal Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) and California Public Record Act requests, and the prosecution and defense of special motions to strike under California's landmark anti-SLAPP statute for the news media, Internet content providers and others. Mr. Houpt has also devoted a significant amount of his practice to appellate work in federal and state courts.

Rocky Niehaus '74 recently caught up with friend Max Baer, Jr. '55. Rocky and Max reminisced about growing up in Sacramento's Land Park area, Max's fond memories of Christian Brothers High School on 21st and Broadway and having a summer job with the Hires Bottling Company at 21st and R Streets. Hires Bottling Company is now Nor Cal Beverage in West Sacramento, where Rocky is employed.

Saint Mary's College Director of Athletics, Mark Orr '94, was recently appointed chairperson of the Division I Amateurism Cabinet for the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA). Orr, the Gaels' athletic director since March of 2006, will serve the membership in this capacity for the next two years. He has served on the Amateurism Cabinet since 2011 and becomes only the third chair since inception of the cabinet in 2008. The Amateurism Cabinet along with the Academics Cabinet, and the Administration Cabinet replaced the former Academics/Eligibility/Compliance Cabinet. This cabinet is responsible for all pre- and post-enrollment amateurism issues, including oversight of issues pertaining to the NCAA Eligibility Center, student-athlete likeness issues, and the relationship between college and professional athletes. The Amateurism Cabinet reports to the Division I Leadership Council on policy issues and the Division I Legislative Council on legislative issues.

Nicole Carter '02 and Brendan Latimer '04 were married on October 11, 2013. The couple own a home together in Sacramento. Brendan works as a solar consultant at Paramount Solar and Nicole is a kindergarten teacher in Sacramento.

Tim McGann '02 has returned to his alma mater, Christian Brothers High School, where he works in the business office managing accounts payable and working with the director of finance on a number of projects. He continues in his role as men's junior varsity basketball coach and enjoys preparing players to compete at the varsity level.

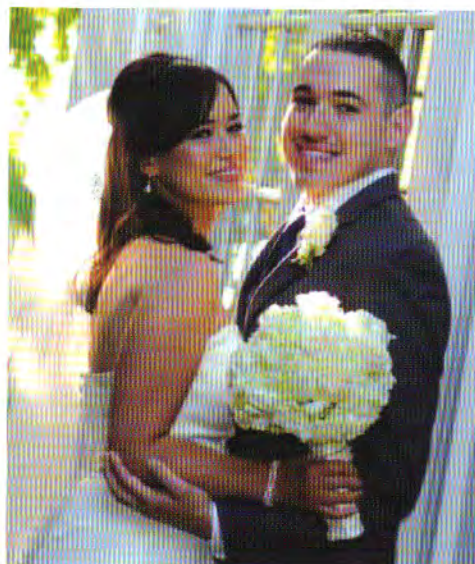

Eric Tozer '02 ran from San Diego, California to New York City as part of Run Across America. Tozer, along with the nine other type 1 diabetics on Team Type 1, made the run in a phenomenal 15 days. Tozer, who took turns running with the other members of the team, averaged 23 miles per day and ended the journey having logged more than 320 miles. Endurance running was new to him at the time of the run as he had only completed his first marathon several months prior to the race. Living the CB motto of Enter to Learn, Leave to Serve, Tozer volunteers his time on the weekends and evenings working with various Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation and American Diabetes Association chapters across the country to help inspire, educate, teach and motivate kids, families, health care professionals and anyone else affected by diabetes.

Apartment hunting in New York City is legendary in its challenges. Fortunately, a CB Connection helped Michael Koppes '03 when the realtor noticed the 916 area code on Koppes's application. It turned out that the realtor is a CB Class of 1977 graduate and Koppes beat out two other prospective tenants for the unit.

Mary McVeigh '03 recently left her job as Special Assistant to the Assistant Secretary of Defense at the Pentagon to attend graduate school at UC Berkeley. McVeigh will be earning a master's degree in public policy. One of her favorite moments at the Pentagon actually occurred when she was receiving an award from then Secretary of Defense, Leon Panetta. Mary snuck in a dog treat for Bravo, the Secretary's dog, and the event became an unexpected photo-op for the group.

Megan Wong '04 and Sam Regalado '07 were married on July 5, 2013 at the Cathedral of the Blessed Sacrament. The couple lives in the Bay Area.

Katelin Brennan '05 and Hannah Murphy '07 both work in the United States House of Representatives. Hannah works as a legislative correspondent for Congresswoman Anna Eshoo who represents the Silicon Valley. Kate is the executive assistant for Congresswoman Jackie Speier who represents South San Francisco. Both women have been working on Capitol Hill for more than two years, since graduating from CSU Chico.

Christianna Golden '06 graduated from OCS and has been commissioned as a 2nd lieutenant in the United States Marine Corps (OOO-RAH!). She is currently attending basic school studying to be a platoon commander.

Matt Smolich '06 graduated from Oregon Institute of Technology in 2010 with a bachelor's degree in software engineering. He lives and works in Beaverton, Oregon for the Huron Consulting Group as a software engineer.

Amanda Alden '07 graduated from California State University, Chico in December 2012 with bachelor's degrees in theatre arts and business administration with an option in accounting. In March of 2013 she started her job as an accountant at California Musical Theatre, where she interned the summer between her junior and senior years at Christian Brothers.

Daniel Cagley '07 graduated from San Francisco State University with a bachelor's degree in criminal justice. Daniel hopes to attend the police academy in San Francisco and work for the San Francisco Police Department.

Katherine Groesbeck '07 graduated from UCLA in 2011 with a bachelor's degree in linguistics and anthropology (Magna Cum Laude) and now lives in Temecula, CA where she rides and trains horses under the tutelage of Canadian Olympian Hawley Bennett Awad. Katherine runs her own small business, Katherine Groesbeck Eventing, and also tutors middle school and high school students on the side. This year she was named to the United States Equestrian Federation's Developing Rider/Eventing 25 program, through which she has the privilege of training with the US Olympic coach for Three Day Eventing. Katherine hopes to represent the United States in competition.

Alisa Mosman '08 graduated from St. Mary's College of California in 2012 and is working in San Francisco as a marketing analyst at Reply.com.

Alicia Schaefer '08 graduated from International Academy of Design and Technology in Natomas, CA in May 2011 with a bachelor's degree in fashion design and marketing, graduating with honors. Since graduation, Alicia has worked as a personal stylist at Nordstrom (Sacramento location). CB alumni needing to revamp their wardrobes or looking for the perfect outfit for a certain event, are encouraged to call Alicia at (916) 208-5747 to schedule an appointment!

Stephanie Achondo '09 graduated Cum Laude from St. Mary's College of California where she earned a bachelor's degree in biochemistry.

Katie Amegin '09 graduated from Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo with a bachelor's degree in economics. Following graduation she enjoyed a fantastic summer, running Tough Mudder in Lake Tahoe and traveling throughout Ireland and Scotland! She is currently living in Walnut Creek with college friends and working as an associate consultant for Triage Consulting, a health care finance/consulting firm in the Financial District of San Francisco.

Hannah Coyner '09 and Joseph Cohen '09 graduated from UC Santa Barbara where each earned bachelor's degrees in biological sciences. Coyner graduated with highest honors and earned the Academic Excellence Award. Cohen graduated with high honors. The two are applying to dental schools for next fall and planning a spring 2014 wedding as Joey popped "the question" and presented Hannah with a beautiful engagement ring at a family graduation party. Congratulations Hannah and Joey!

Ben Dagang '09 graduated from the University of Washington at Seattle this past June with a bachelor's degree in aeronautics and astronautics. He also won a National Championship gold medal with the UW in the men's varsity four event at the Intercollegiate Rowing Association National Championship regatta, beating 22 other crews from all over the country. Dagang's boat bested Cal by 0.3 seconds in the finals. He was accepted to an internship at Masten Space Systems in Mojave, CA where he will be helping build and test rocket engines for reusable spacecraft landing vehicles.

Albert Davalos '09 graduated from UC Davis with a bachelor's degree in animal science. While at Davis, he worked as an admissions counselor for undergraduate admissions, stallion manager at the UC Davis Horse Barn, and a student pathologist at the California Animal Health and Food Safety Laboratory. He has been recognized as a research scholar for research in induced dairy cattle lactation and gave a guest lecture in an advanced equine reproduction course on mare reproductive physiology, endocrinology, and management. Davalos also received the "UC Bar" award, the award given to outstanding seniors in animal science. He hopes to move to Kentucky to work at a large racehorse farm, delivering foals and training future racehorses. Further down the line he plans on pursuing a master's in equine exercise physiology and working in the racehorse industry, preventing fatal racehorse breakdowns.

Kayla Neto '09 set CSU Fullerton volleyball records in kills (1,628) and points (1,918.5). She is the eighth player in Big West history to garner four first-team all-conference honors. She was named the 2012-13 Big West Scholar Athlete of the Year, and was also an American Volleyball Coaches Association All-American for the second time. Neto played in every set (454) of every match (122) in her career. She is now playing professional volleyball in Basel, Switzerland as a member of Sm'Aesch Pfeffingen of the Swiss Volleyball League.

Vincent O'Brien '09 graduated from St. Mary's College of California with a bachelor's degree in biochemistry. He was the recipient of school's prestigious De La Salle Award which is given to the graduating senior with the highest record for scholarship and general excellence. O'Brien is attending medical school at UC Irvine.

Josh Hammer '12 had an amazing freshman year at Holy Names University. In addition to a successful year academically, playing baseball for the Hawks, and serving his HNU community as a student ambassador, Josh was honored by Holy Names University President, William Hynes with the Alpha Delta Award for Outstanding Service and Loyalty. Josh was also honored by the University with the Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary Scholarship for his outstanding leadership and dedication to service.

Mark Your Calendars

Christmas Choral Concert - December 10, 2013

Join us as CB's choral groups perform the Christmas classics and more. The performance begins at 7 p.m. in the Ron Limeberger '53 Gymnasium.

Christmas Instrumental Concert - December 11, 2013

CB's concert band, honors band, string ensemble and jazz bands will be performing at 7 p.m. in the Ron Limeberger '53 Gymnasium.

James Snyder '99 Benefit Concert – December 20, 2013

Join CB alumnus, James Snyder '99, at Christian Brothers High School for a special benefit performance in support of the George Cunningham '40 Performing Arts Center. Seating is limited. Tickets are $25 and may be purchased on CB's website. Snyder's stage credits include the Los Angeles and Las Vegas productions of Rock of Ages as Drew. Regional credits include The Fantastics, Hamlet, Fanny, Carousel and Oklahoma. Snyder originated the role of Wade "Cry-Baby" Walker in the Broadway show Cry-Baby. His film credits include An American in China, and our students will know him from the film She's the Man. James most recently joined Idina Menzel (Wicked), LaChanze (The Color Purple) and Anthony Rapp (Rent) in the Broadway-bound musical If/Then by Tony Award and Pulitzer Prize-winning writers Tom Kitt and Brian Yorkey. The show is currently enjoying a pre-production run in Washington, D.C. and opens on Broadway in March 2014.

Placement Exam for Incoming Freshmen – Saturday, January 18, 2014

Students interested in attending CB in the 2014-15 school year are required to take the placement exam on Saturday, January 18. Online applications are due on January 15, 2014. A link is available in the admissions section of our website at www.cbhs-sacramento.org. Students must check in by 8:45 a.m. and will be finished at approximately 12:30 p.m. Please contact the admissions office for more information at (916) 733-3690.

Alumni Dinner - Saturday, February 1, 2014

Join the CB Alumni Association for fun, fellowship and great food and celebrate the Class of '64 on its golden anniversary. Festivities begin at 6 p.m. in the Ron Limeberger '53 Gymnasium.

Auctionopoly – Saturday, March 29, 2014

Any way you roll the dice, CB's annual fundraising auction, Auctionopoly, is going to be a fantastic night of fun and games, fabulous food, and exceptional auction items. The silent auction, hosted cocktails and hors d'oeuvres begin at 5:30 p.m. in the field house with dinner and the live auction scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in the Ron Limeberger '53 Gymnasium. Proceeds from the event benefit a wide variety of student programs including tuition assistance.

Stay Connected

We often hear from alumni that their favorite part of Connection magazine is the Alumni News & Notes section. Email your current contact information and update to Nancy Smith-Fagan, director of advancement, at nsmithfagan@cbhs-sacramento.org. If you do not have email, please call Nancy at (916) 733-3647 or send a note to the advancement office.

Reunions

If your class year ends in a 4 or a 9, you are due to have a reunion in 2014. If you are interested in helping organize a celebration, please contact Nancy Smith-Fagan, director of advancement, at (916) 733-3647 or via e-mail at nsmithfagan@cbhs-sacramento.org.

BROADWAY COMES TO CHRISTIAN BROTHERS HIGH SCHOOL

James Snyder '99 stage, film and television actor returns to his alma mater on Friday, December 20th, for a benefit concert for Christian Brothers Performing Arts Program. The show will include a varied collection of songs from his musical career.

Snyder made his Broadway debut in 2008 as Wade "Cry Baby" Walker in Cry Baby. His stage credits include the Los Angeles and Vegas productions of Rock of Ages as Drew, The Fantastics, Hamlet, Ray Bradbury's Let All Kill Constance, Sneaux, Fanny, Carousel and Oklahoma. His film credits include American in China and She's the Man.

James most recently joined Idina Menzel (Wicked), LaChanze (The Color Purple) and Anthony Rapp (Rent) in the Broadway-bound musical If/Then by Tony Award and Pulitzer Prize-winning Next to Normal writers Tom Kitt and Brian Yorkey. The show is currently enjoying a pre-production run in Washington, D.C. and opens on Broadway in March 2014.
