

Notes From The Brothers School

DANCE, DECEMBER 18

A student body dance will be given next Friday evening, December 18, in the school auditorium, the first in recent years. The Committee was appointed this week and has been busy with arrangements. Tickets have been printed and distributed. The seniors, juniors and alumni are especially encouraged to make this dance successful.

Blocks Awarded At Rally

Basketball season was officially opened this week with Monday's rally before the Sacramento High game on Tuesday evening. Besides pep talks, yells and entertainment the varsity footballers were awarded their C. B. blocks by Coach Jimmy Flynn.

The basketball varsity will meet its second opponent, East Nicolaus, this evening in the school gymnasium. Wednesday night they will travel to North Sacramento to play Grant Union High.

"C. B. S. News"

The Christmas edition of the C. B. S. News will be distributed this week and the winning manuscript in the Short Story Contest will be announced.

Football Dinner

A dinner was given last night by the school to the varsity football players, the city champions. The clergy, faculty, coaching staff, sport writers, and alumni were represented.

Tuberculosis Test

High school students, who have received their parents' permission, will be given a tuberculin skin test by the Sacramento Tuberculosis Association and the Sacramento Board of Health this coming week. The girls from St. Joseph's Academy and the smaller pupils of the Catholic Grammar Schools also will come to the Brothers' School for the test.

CLASS NOTES

FROSH A—We're still waiting for Ray Garcia to give a concert on his trombone, but Ray prefers to study his Spanish between breaths . . . Boitano, Kiene, Poletti, and Harold McKenzie have made the honor roll twice in succession with Meusel making it three in a row . . . The class average is improving steadily. December's tests should prove interesting.

FROSH B—A handball tournament has been started in this class, singles and doubles. The winners may play the stars of 1C . . . As usual 1B has the highest percentage of honor students, with two of its members receiving straight A's—Edwin Coupe and Ellis Harlow.

FROSH C—Domich and Schneider are taking bets on the outcome of next exams. (They are betting they will make the honor roll—honor roll for what?) . . . A handball tournament is under way with Baurto and Gibson contending for the singles championship, and Archerda-Ekochko team, the probable winners of the doubles. Each contender paid 5 cents and the winners will be given a prize. The first round is to be over December 11 . . . Again 1C expects to make 100 per cent in the new subscription drive for the school paper.

SOPH A—Interclass basketball is

(Continued On Page 8, Column 7)

C. B. S. Notes

(Continued from Page 6)

still in full swing; 2A is remaining on top . . . Borich, Knezovich, Cordano, and Fouts upholding the class reputation in sports . . . Fouts, Coupe and Hatfield are all pepped up over the coming dance . . . Smolich is our big hope in the Short Story Contest . . . Archerda, the class football hero, maintains that geometry is his best subject.

SOPH B—Hanlon keeps the class posted on the daily homework . . . Bob Smith and Al Franzola are 2B's future varsity basketball stars . . . "Wee Willie," star sub-quarterback, received his block last Monday at the rally . . . Winslow's greeting to Brother consists of reminding him of the number of shopping days till Christmas.

JUNIORS—3A is still defeating its opponents in basketball . . . Members of the hot stove league (sitting on the radiator) are Frank Zelle, Jack McGuire, Cliff Russell, and John Beeler . . . Everybody is counting the school days until Christmas (vacation) . . . Plans are being made for the coming debate and basketball game at Mont La Salle.

SENIORS—Hayes Harrison and Ted Gardner have been on the sick list—the class wishes them a speedy recovery . . . Prominent at the rally and the football banquet were the graduating senior stars—George Gillette, Bill Palm, Vic Martinelli, Dave Simmons, Ted Gardner, Bob Lewis, Bob Shorrock.

Dance Will Honor C.B.S.

Squad On December 18

Sacramento. — The Christian Brothers School will hold a dance in honor of the undefeated football team on Friday evening, December 18, 8:15 o'clock, in the school auditorium. Friends and alumni of the school will attend.

Brothers Have Busy Basket Schedule Jan 26

Meet Elk Grove Tonight,
Vallejo Tuesday and Prelim on Friday

Coach Bud Hanna's Christian Brothers school cagers have a big week planned on the hardwood, starting with "A" and "B" games against Elk Grove high tonight in the Brothers gym.

Tomorrow night St. Vincent's of Vallejo plays Hanna's boys, also in the Brothers gym, and Friday night the Irish will meet either Ken Horton's of Sacramento or the Marysville Swedes in a prelim to the Spalding-Stockton Ambler contest.

GARDNER SICK

Ted Gardner, crack forward, has turned in his suit, on doctor's orders, but Pete Archerda has recovered from a sick spell and is available for both "B" and "A" play.

Hanna's probable starting "A" lineup against Elk Grove tonight will find Bob Neely and Bill Francis or Bob Lee at forwards, tall Charlie Shanz center, and "Babe" Pinaglia and George Gillette, guards.

Brothers Beat Elk Grove

A Five Wins 29-23, B's Lose 23-19; Vallejo Tonight

The Christian Brothers started a busy basketball week on their home gym last night with a 29 to 23 victory over the Elk Grove high school A team. The B team from Elk Grove stopped the Brothers in the preliminary, 23 to 19. Stocker tallied 13 for the visitors. Bob Smith led the locals with 10 points.

The Brothers maintained a lead over the Grovers in the main game from start to finish but were never out in front enough to feel comfortable. The Elk Grovers were continually shooting for points from all angles.

Tonight the Brothers tangle with St. Vincent's cagers from Vallejo in A and B games on their 21st and Y streets gym.

Summary:

Brothers (29)	Elk Grove (23)
Neely, f (8)	Frasinetti, f (4)

Brothers And Jan 26 Elk Grove Split Basket Games

The Elk Grove High School and the Christian Brothers School basketball teams split a pair of cage contests in the Twenty-first and Y Streets gymnasium. The locals copped the A tilt 29 to 23 and the visitors took the B game 23 to 18.

Bill Francis was the outstanding performer for the winners in the A tussle, with his floor play and defensive work at the guard post. Francis also collected a pair of baskets.

Hironymous and Morse were the stars for the losers as they both loped six points each. Bob Neely was the leading scorer for the Brothers A outfit with eight tallies.

The St. Vincent's High School of Vallejo will invade the local court tonight for a pair of contests with the Gaels. The B squads will meet at 7:30 o'clock.

The A summaries follow:

Brothers A		Elk Grove
	fg.ft.tp.		fg.ft.tp.
Lee, f ...	0 0 0	Frasinetti, f	2 0 4
Neely, f ...	4 0 8	Baker, f ...	2 0 4
Archerda, f	1 0 2	Gage, f ...	0 1 1
Schanz, f	2 0 2	Smith, f ...	0 1 1

Brothers Teams Will Travel Tonight For Jan 26 Basketball Contests

The Christian Brothers School's A and B fives will travel to East Nicolaus tonight for a pair of games with the high school quintets. The Brothers hold wins over the East Nicolaus outfits in the local gymnasium.

The Sacramentans will be without the services of their coach, Bud Hanna, tonight as he is suffering from a cold and will be unable to make the trip with the teams. Brother Joseph will handle the pair of squads.