

TOP PLAYERS, MOVERS AND SHAKERS

This fall would have been a final prep hurrah for top senior performers, movers and shakers, including:

Prophet Brown of Monterey Trail, a receiver/defensive back headed to USC; Kaleb Higgins of Folsom, a defensive back committed to Cal; Justin Lamson of Oak Ridge, a quarterback bound for Syracuse; Keleki Latu of Jesuit, a tight end off to Cal; Moses Oladejo of Cosumnes Oaks, a linebacker committed to Cal, and Ari Patu of Folsom, a quarterback signed with Stanford.

That's quite a lot. Each has grades that turn heads as much as their skills.

Other seniors receiving scholarship interest include Antelope lineman Dean Abdullah; Rocklin kicker Cole Becker; Cosumnes Oaks linebacker Isaiah Byars; Rocklin lineman Ilaisa Gonebure, a transfer from Capital Christian; Cosumnes Oaks quarterback Anthony Grigsby; Jesuit receiver/DB Nate Lewis; River City lineman Joshua Ngaluafe; Rocklin lineman Bobby Piland; Capital Christian lineman Kenndel Riley and Christian Brothers quarterback Jacob Stewart.

And a guy sure to get on the recruiting radar with good speed and a name to match: Jet Wiley, a receiver for Christian Brothers and the son of coach John Wiley.
