Adjournment of the Council

This last year we have witnessed two events of vast importance to the Catholic Church and the world. The Second Vatican Council reached its final stages and came to a close. The bishops of the world worked long and hard, hoping to develop a modern and catholic Catholic Church . . .

A Journey by the Pope

This year also marked the visit by Pope Paul VI to the United Nations. The Pope brought a major center of spiritual power to the potential center of temporal power, urging both to work for the common goal of peace.

Dedication

To the members of the lay faculty who have been concerned with the improvement of our minds and the strengthening of our lives we gratefully dedicate the 1966 CREST.

REST IN GOD

A YEARBOOK

can be a static directory of blank words and expressions.
Each year
a new staff must face the old task of bringing a mere record to life —
by capturing the mood
in which each event took place.
The 1966 CREST
is designed to take in the whole spectrum of Armstrong life —
our laughter, our sorrow, our victories, our disappointments, our work and play and surging spirit.

A time to

every purpose

Saint Augustine:
All kinds of things rejoiced my soul in their company ...

*to talk
and laugh*

and do each other kindness;

read pleasant books together;

pass from lightest jesting to talk of deepest things and back again...

teach each other or

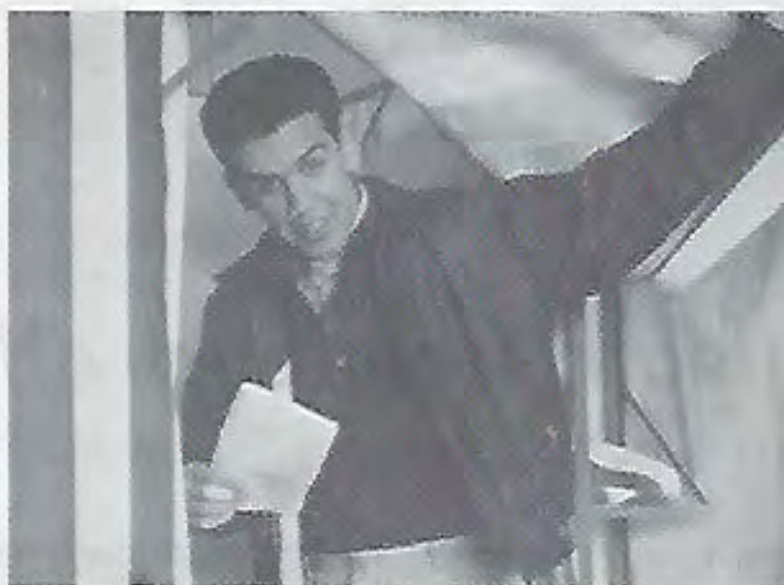

learn from each other

these and such like things...

shown by face,

by voice,

by the eyes,

and a thousand other

pleasing ways,

*kindled a flame
which fused our very souls*

and of many

made us one.
