

2006

Christian Brothers H.S. teacher receives Lasallian award

Tom English, shown teaching students at Christian Brothers High School in Sacramento, has been nominated for the Distinguished Lasallian Educator Award. English was selected from educators teaching in the De La Salle Christian Brother's District of San Francisco, comprised of 12 schools. He was recognized at a dinner held Dec. 2 at Sacred Heart Cathedral Preparatory in San Francisco, during a Huether Conference of Lasallian educators from the United States and Toronto regions. English, who has served the Lasallian educational community for 27 years, has been a member of the Lasallian Leadership Institute and named Christian Brothers' educator of the year in 1997-98. In addition to being a teacher, English's duties include serving as assistant principal for curriculum/instruction and social studies department chair.