

I will always regard
the work of my salvation
and the founding and governing of our community
as the work of God.

This is why I will abandon the care of both to him
to bend myself only to his purposes.

I will often seek his guidance to know what I must do for the one or the other.

I will often repeat
these words of the Prophet Habakkuk:

"Domine opus tuum."

[Lord, the work is yours.]

— St. John Baptist de La Salle
Rules I Have Imposed on Myself

Come to me,
all you who are weary
and are carrying heavy burdens,
and I will give you rest.

Take my yoke upon you
and learn from me,
for I am gentle and humble in heart,
and you will find rest for your souls.

For my yoke is easy,
and my burden is light.

— Matthew 11: 28-30 (NRSV)
