THANKSGIVING FESTIVAL.—Last evening there was a splendid attendance at Turner Hall on the occasion of the festival given by the ladies of St. Rose's congregation for the benefit of the new college that is being prepared for the Christian Brothers. The hall was appropriately decorated, and along its sides there were distributed at intervals refreshment tables, booths for the sale of flowers and fancy articles, grab-bags, etc., and a plentiful supply of fish lurked in the never-failing pond. Dancing began at nine o'clock to the music of Church & Jones' quadrille band, and was kept up until a late hour this morning. The festival was a grand success in every respect, and those present enjoyed themselves to the fullest extent. The affair was certainly one of the happiest of the season.

Who has not felt that this world is a world of sin and passion and we know not at what moment we may be called upon to fight against sin and passion, and what are we to do when the bugle note is a doubtful or uncertain one? The lecturer then gave the theory of the Roman Catholic Church and the reason why that Church claims by right of direct communication through past generations with Christ himself, who founded a society that is now known as the Roman Catholic Church, to be infallible and traced by scriptural argument the inception of the Catholic Church and its progress to the present time. met with the assertion that the bulk of Protestants do agree upon the essential points of religion, each sect holding some particular point or action essential for their ideas of religion. One of the differences among the Protestants is upon the attributes of God himself. In proof of this the lecturer quoted from the Methodist Quarterly Review for April, 1873, in which the editor, in discussing the controversy between the Armenians and Calvinists, says that the latter's idea of God and his works rendered that God a "cruel hypocrite" and an "infinite gorilla." Protestantism when it first started, seemed to be destined for eternal prosperity. The freshest and most vigorous people entered into it and the wealth of the world was thrown at the feet of the new religion. And what has been the result? Dissention and quibbling over the most divine portion of Christ's life and the truth of his teachings. Most Protestants might say, "we do not care about religious discussions; leave that to the theologians; let us worship God together."

advised the doctrine, that idolatry must exist somewhere and if it did not exist that Christianity is a failure.
The speaker closed with an appeal for all to carefully consider what he had said and to attain certainty in religion themselves.

THE PAULIST MISSION.--The missionary efforts of the Paulist Fathers, who have been holding meetings at St. Rose's Church, came to a close by a mass celebrated this morning by Father De Shon, while Father Elliott gave the instructions and blessings. The church was crowded both last evening and this morning by devout worshippers, and it was hardly possible to obtain a seat when the exercises commenced. The Paulist Fathers have been remarkably successful in their efforts, and deservedly so, for they are earnest in their endeavors to accomplish good and disseminate the tenets of their religion. They will next go to San Jose or Marysville. This evening Father Elliott will deliver a lecture at the Metropolitan Theater for the benefit of the Christian Brothers' College fund, his subject being "Certainty in Religion." All who Attenu may depend upon being interested, as the gentleman is not only an eloquent speaker but a logical thinker.

THE COLLEGE BUILDING.—Plans and bids for the construction of the Christian Brothers' College in this city have been submitted to the Building Committee by N. D. Goodell, A. A. Cook and Wm. Kirk, three city architects. Kirk's plan would construct the College for $14,600, which was the lowest offered, but the question was raised that perhaps he proposed to purchase his material in San Francisco, and as some objected to that it was decided to interview Mr. Kirk on the subject. Others think that they have no right to subject a bidder to any such restrictions as are proposed; that it would be unfair to do so; and they assert that even the Board of Trustees are often compelled to purchase material in San Francisco because it can be had cheaper there.

THE NEW COLLEGE.

The foundation of the Christian Brothers' College has been laid, and the timbers are on hand, and a corps of carpenters. This will be a great addition to the educational institutions of Sacramento. There is every reason to believe that Sacramento will in time be the leading educational city of the State. The climate is healthy, and there is no place in the State where students from abroad can have greater advantages than in this city.

CHRISTIAN BROTHERS' COLLEGE. — In this issue of the BEE we publish a card setting forth that on the first instant the Congregation of St. Rose Church appointed Messrs. J. J. McCallion, N. H. Nicholl and P. Sarsfield as a committee to call on those who have not yet paid up their subscriptions toward the new Christian Brothers' College. There are now over $3,000 of subscriptions still unpaid, while the contract calls for the payment of the whole sum due on the building on the first of January next. The whole sum subscribed is inadequate for the payment of the demands against the institution, and those who agreed to assist in building the college are now requested to come forward at as early a day as possible and follow with the deed of their kind intentions and promises. It was on the strength of these assurances that the work was done and it is the duty of all to give as liberally as they agreed. Your charity could scarcely be extended to a more worthy object.

The Christian Brothers' College. A Card.

 At a Meeting of the Gentlemen of St. Rose's congregation, held on the first instant, a Committee of Three, to wit: J. J. McCallion, N. H. Nicholl and P. Sarsfield, was appointed to call on those who have not as yet paid up their subscriptions toward the new Christian Brothers' College. The report furnished by the Committee who solicited subscriptions for said College shows that there are $1,336 of the amount subscribed yet unpaid. The building must, according to contract, be completed before the 1st of January next, and the whole amount subscribed will not even be sufficient to meet the amount the contract calls for; hence all delinquent subscribers are expected to pay up immediately, as it was on the strength of their subscriptions that the contract was let. nl6-5t

AUCTION TO-MORROW.

At 10½ o'clock to-morrow morning W. H. Sherburne, auctioneer, will sell the furniture, carpets, etc., of the lodging house, 109 K street.

CHRISTIAN BROTHERS' COLLEGE.—A representative of the BEE called yesterday on Rev. Father Scanlan to learn the standing of the new College fund, which information he very kindly furnished. Father Scanlan desires to return his grateful thanks to all who assisted him in this worthy enterprise, and especially to those to whom the church had no especial claim. The cost of the site whereon the College was built was $4,000, and the first contract price of the building was $14,700. The building, according to the contract, was to be completed by the 1st of January, but owing to the inclement weaker, the time has been extended a month longer, and by the 1st of February it will be ready for occupancy. The total amount subscribed was $15,000, of which $12,000 have already been paid in. As the money must be forthcoming as soon as the building is completed, it is desired that all who have not paid their subscriptions will make an earnest effort to do so by the 1st of February. It is estimated that the cost of furnishing the College will be about $4,000, which money must be raised by the time the furnishing is necessitated. In March next the ladies of St. Rose's Church will unite and give a grand festival for this special purpose. The College will be in charge of the Christian Brothers, and will accommodate 100 students.
