Folsom moves to No. 2 in the rankings, still ahead of Jesuit. Folsom rolled Jesuit in an opener but Jesuit has cruised since, winning seven consecutive games, including dropping 70 in a 35-point win over Elk Grove on Saturday, the most points the Herd has allowed in its storied football history, a nugget unearthed by our friends from Cal-Hi Sports.

QUICK HITS

- Foresthill has the nation's reported No. 1 interception leader in Aemon Aldrich with 11. The Wildfires (7-1) host Woodland Christian (7-0) on Friday with the Sacramento Metropolitan title on the line.

- Trajan Clark's five touchdowns lifted Davis past Pleasant Grove 42-19, the team's first victory in a trying season. Davis had surged in recent years before hitting walls this season, and extra kudos to the Blue Devils rooting section for coming out to home games.

- River Valley beat Bella Vista 46-40 for its first victory of a season stalled by COVID-19 testing issues and injuries, but the Falcons of Yuba City never stopped pushing, a credit to coaches Brennan McFadden and Dave Humphers.

- Christian Brothers has senior stars and an emerging freshman in Phillip Bell, who had 174 yards receiving against McNair and two touchdowns and had three more TD grabs in a 43-36 win over El Camino.

- Garrett McGriff is having a Bee Player of the Year type of season. In the last two games alone, the Jesuit star has rushed for six touchdowns, scored on defense, had two interceptions, 11 tackles and is breaking up passes.

- Nick Afato does it all for Yuba City, including Friday in a win over Roseville: three passing touchdowns, two rushing and 13 tackles on defense. He did not change the oil in the team bus before or after.

- The last winless teams in the region are hard-luck teams thin on bodies and heavy on bad luck: Grant (0-7), Fairfield (0-7), San Juan (0-8), Western Sierra Academy (0-6) and Lindhurst (0-5).
