

Player Group To Produce Brother Orchid

On May 17 and 18 the Broadway players will present Brother Orchid in the C.B.S. auditorium.

The thespians, under the direction of Brother Laurian, include the following: Joe Martinez as "Little John Sarto" or "Brother Orchid," Andy Molina as "Fat Dutchy," Monty Honig as "Freckles," Mike Brousseau as "The Gimp," Dennis Messner as "Dum-Dum," and Dave Wolfram as "The Abbot."

Brother Orchid, a three-act play by Leo Brady, is the story of a gangster, Little John Sarto, who runs away from the law and hides out in a monastery. He becomes "Brother Orchid" and begins to like the monastic life. Humorous complications ensue when "Brother Orchid" meets some of his former professional colleagues.

The stage crew, headed by Fred Fox, assisted by Bruce Lockhart, Ray Bamberry, and Bernard Boat, is responsible for the lighting, pulling the curtain, and changing the scenery.

Tickets will be on sale for the students on May 1 at the price of 50 cents. There are no reserved seats.

Vol. XXI, No. 5 Wednesday, April 17, 1957 Sacramento, Calif.

Douglas Ryno, as Brother Nasturtium, and Dick Cross, as Brother Hollyhock, take care of Joe Martinez, as Little John Sarto, in a scene from Brother Orchid.