

For Jaden Eves 2026

-Maureen Wanket

Let us remember we are in the holy presence of God

Dear God I know you said Blessed are those who mourn
But today I am shredded ripped up and torn

Dear God I know your love for us is verified
But this loss is too much I'm in pain and I'm terrified

Were we as kind as we could have always been?
Did he know how much we valued him as our friend?

In the halls of school I keep thinking that he'll be there
But when I around to find he just isn't anywhere

My heart literally hurts in the scariest way
We miss our friend today.

Dear God, today the sun rose and everything feels wrong
I was hoping it was a dream that would evaporate with the dawn
But here we are together and still
Our friend is gone.

Oh dear God. Please, God.
Please God may my heart be filled with your light
To shine on my friends after the cold dark night.

Please God let me be a comfort and a buffer
Let us turn to each other so no one is alone as they suffer.

Please God let me know You as we turn to one another
We let no one stand alone not one sister not one brother

We have our teachers, our families, our friends, and each other
Oh dear God, Please, God, Thank you God
For our school
For Christian Brothers

We loved our brother here and we love him still
Our love for Jaden, like our love for You and for each other lives forever
And always will

Thank you, God, for our community,
our love, our family, our unity

Between us there's a bond too strong to sever

St John Baptist De La Salle pray for us
Live Jesus in our hearts. . . forever.
