Commencement

THE CBS TRADITION

The Institute of the Brothers of the Christian Schools, commonly called the Christian Brothers, was founded in 1680 in the city of Reims in France by St. John Baptist de LaSalle. All of the members of the congregation are Brothers devoted exclusively to the work of Christian education. As Brothers, these men are not priests and do not engage in the ministries proper to the ordained clergy. The Brothers do take vows and try in every way to keep alive the spirit of brotherhood among themselves and in relationships with their students.

At the time of their foundation, the Brothers devoted themselves in a special way to the task of providing a sound education for the children of the artisans and the poor who otherwise would have been left without any formal education. De La Salle and the early Brothers pioneered many educational practices that are taken for granted today: simultaneous instruction, instruction given in the vernacular rather than Latin, special attention to the skills of reading and writing, insistence on regular attendance, classroom discipline and sound habits of mental and physical hygiene.

Today the Brothers conduct secondary schools and universities in most of the major American cities and in over 100 countries in the world. They are still involved, as they always have been, in parish schools and welfare institutions, and they have associated themselves with devoted and talented lay teachers who share their sense of mission and the Lasallian spirit. Christian Brothers High School has been operated by the Brothers in Sacramento since 1876. The present location on Martin Luther King, Jr. Boulevard is its third site in the city. Today marks the one hundred and twenty-fifth commencement for the school.

The variety of educational enterprises conducted by the Brothers, as well as the uniformity of standards and structures that characterizes American educational institutions, makes it difficult to isolate whatever it is that is distinctive about a school conducted by the Brothers. Nevertheless, it is possible to suggest six elements which, if taken together, constitute the concrete reality of a Brothers' school.

The first and foremost of these elements is sensitivity to social issues. A second but not a secondary quality of the Brothers' school is the importance given to religious education that takes into account the varying needs and experiences of the student. Next, the Brothers' school is committed in a special way to excellence in teaching. The Brothers bring to a school a sense of permanence, commitment and professional competence. A fourth characteristic is an accent on quality education. As a fifth element, the education given in the Brothers' school emphasizes the practice. The sixth characteristic is the most subtle of all, but something quite distinctive and very real. The Institute is a Papal congregation and is instinctively loyal to the Roman Catholic Church. The Brothers manage their schools with a certain independence but respect the jurisdiction of the local church authority. Thus they can identify with their lay colleagues, students and parents and so understand better and support movements to give laymen and laywomen a greater role in the life of the Church.

The Brothers are well aware that many other schools manifest certain of the same characteristics listed above, but the six of them taken together seem to be the best way to describe the identity that the community recognizes as the Brothers' school.
